2013-14 NHL Schedule Format

For 2013-14, the Western Conference will be made up of two seven-team divisions; the Eastern Conference will have two eight-team divisions. Each club will play 82 regular-season games: four or five against each club in its Division, three against each of the non-Division clubs within its Conference and two against each of the clubs in the other Conference.

Introduction

Welcome to the 82nd edition of the National Hockey League Official Guide & Record Book, the definitive statistical record of the NHL. A labor dispute, a lockout and protracted negotiations resulted in the cancellation of 510 games in 2012-13. Teams played a condensed 48-game schedule that ran from January 19 to April 27, 2013. There were no inter-conference games and an Eastern Conference team did not face off against a team from the Western Conference until game one of the Stanley Cup Final, a 4-3 triple overtime win by Chicago at home vs. Boston. This would prove to be the first of three overtime games in a well-played Final and the longest of the 27 overtime games played in pursuit of the Stanley Cup in 2013. The Blackhawks clinched the Cup in regulation time in game six on June 24, getting goals from Bryan Bickell and Dave Bolland in the last two minutes of the third period to win their second Cup since 2010. Each clubs's 2012-13 results can be found on the last of its four pages of detailed statistics beginning with Anaheim on page 21. An in-depth stat pack for the 2013 Stanley Cup Playoffs begins on page 245. A list of every playoff overtime game since 1918 begins on page 274 with 2013's games on page 276.

After the disappointments and tensions of the September lockout, NHL clubs and players were quick to return the focus of the sport from the negotiating table to the ice, displaying skill and intense competition night after night. The Blackhawks, eventual Stanley Cup champions, didn't lose in regulation time until the 25th game of the season. And later in the season, the Pittsburgh Penguins won 15 consecutive games. Given the shortened 48-game schedule it is no surprise that these two clubs finished atop their respective Conferences with 77 and 72 points. (New records for Longest Team Points Streak can be found on page 165 as can the record for Longest Winning Streak. NHL final standings for 2012-13 are found on page 141.)

For the fifth time since 1998, the NHL's regular-season schedule has been structured to provide a break so that top players can travel to Sochi, Russia and play for their nations' Olympic teams from February 12 to 23, 2014. The previous four Olympic hockey competitions have seen three pairs of teams meet in the gold medal final. In Nagano (1998), the Czech Republic defeated Russia; in Salt Lake City (2002) and Vancouver (2010), Canada defeated the USA; while in Torino (2006), Sweden defeated Finland. Since NHLers have taken part in the tournament, North American teams have not reached the gold medal game when the games are played on the wider European-sized ice. Conversely, European teams have never played for gold on an NHL-sized rink. Will this trend hold? A galaxy of the NHL's big-game star players, including 2010's golden goal scorer Sidney Crosby (CAN), Patrick Kane (USA), Evgeni Malkin (RUS), Alex Ovechkin (RUS), Zach Parise (USA), Daniel and Henrik Sedin (SWE) and Jonathan Toews (CAN), expect to have their say in Sochi in February. Olympic hockey schedules for both men's and women's competition are found on page 15. Olympic scoring statistics for active NHL players begin on page 19. Goaltenders' Olympic results are found on page 20.

Future Olympians will undoubtedly be found amongst the 211 players selected in the 2013 Entry Draft (Entry Draft coverage begins on page 218.) This year's first selection, Nathan MacKinnon, is the youngest player chosen first overall since the modern universal draft began in 1969. He is the third 17-year old selected first overall, joining Pierre Turgeon (1987) and Sidney Crosby (2005). Also noteworthy is the fact that players born in 22 American states were selected in the 2013 Entry Draft. The traditional hockey incubators of Minnesota, Massachusetts, Michigan and New York topped the table, but players from California, Arizona, Texas and Florida were selected as well. A quarter century after Wayne Gretzky joined the Los Angeles Kings, high-quality youth hockey programs flourish in various parts of the USA. (2013 Entry Draft Analysis by birthplace, position and birth year is found on page 222.) And for fans of statistics that are interesting but don't mean much, left wing Adam Erne from the Quebec Remparts of the QMJHL was taken by Tampa Bay 10,000th overall since the modern draft began in 1969!

Anchoring this and every edition of the NHL Official Guide & Record Book is data on every one of the more than 7,000 players who have appeared in an NHL game, plus more than 1,000 prospects who have yet to do so. See the Prospect Register (page 281), Active Player Register (348), Goaltender Register (591), Retired Player Index (616), Retired Goaltender Index (659), regular-season and playoff Record Books (164 and 248), Award Winners (210), All-Star Teams (234) or Hockey Hall of Fame sections (241). A register of 2013's free agent signings is found on page 666, a trade register on page 668 and late additions on page 615.

A key to the abbreviations and symbols used in individual player and goaltender data panels, along with useful information on how to use the Registers, is found on page 280. Each NHL club's minor-pro affiliates are found on page 14. A list of league abbreviations used in the Prospect, Player and Goaltender Registers is found on page 670. The league's revised Conferences and Divisions are listed on the inside front cover. The new Division-based playoff format is detailed on page 257. Two photos of the NHL goal of the year for 2013 are found on page 671. This play by Eric Fehr of the Capitals was ranked number one on the NHL Network's Top 10 Countdown.

Thanks to readers, correspondents, members of the media and hockey communications professionals throughout the game who make good use of what we produce. This is the 30th and largest edition of the combined NHL Official Guide & Record Book. Our mandate is simple and has not changed; if it has happened in the NHL, or if it's about to happen, it's in the Guide.

Best wishes,

Dan Diamond

NHL History

1917 — National Hockey League organized November 26 in Montreal following suspension of operations by the National Hockey Association of Canada Limited (NHA). Montreal Canadiens, Montreal Wanderers, Ottawa Senators and Quebec Bulldogs attended founding meeting. Delegates decided to use NHA rules.

Toronto Arenas were later admitted as fifth team; Quebec decided not to operate during the first season. Quebec players allocated to remaining four teams.

Frank Calder elected president and secretary-treasurer.

First NHL games played December 19, with Toronto only arena with artificial ice. Clubs played 22-game split schedule.

1918 — Emergency meeting held January 3 due to destruction by fire of Montreal Arena which was home ice for both Canadiens and Wanderers.

Wanderers withdrew, reducing the NHL to three teams; Canadiens played remaining home games at 3,250-seat Jubilee rink.

Quebec franchise sold to P.J. Quinn of Toronto on October 18 on the condition that the team operate in Quebec City for 1918-19 season. Quinn did not attend the November League meeting and Quebec did not play in 1918-19.

1919-20 — NHL reactivated Quebec Bulldogs franchise. Former Quebec players returned to the club. New Mount Royal Arena became home of Canadiens. Toronto Arenas changed name to St. Patricks. Clubs played 24-game split schedule.

1920-21 — H.P. Thompson of Hamilton, Ontario made application for the purchase of an NHL franchise. Quebec franchise shifted to Hamilton with other NHL teams providing players to strengthen the club.

1921-22 — Split schedule abandoned. First and second place teams at the end of full schedule to play for championship.

1922-23 — Clubs agreed that players could not be sold or traded to clubs in any other league without first being offered to all other clubs in the NHL. Norman Albert made the first broadcast of a hockey game on February 8, 1923. The first NHL game was broadcast on February 14, 1923. Foster Hewitt called his first game on February 16, 1923. All games were broadcast on Toronto radio station CFCA.

1923-24 — Ottawa's new 10,000-seat arena opened. First U.S. franchise granted to Boston for following season.

Dr. Cecil Hart Trophy donated to NHL to be awarded to the player judged most useful to his team.

1924-25 — New franchises granted to Boston and Montreal (later named Maroons). NHL now six team league with two clubs in Montreal. Inaugural game in new Montreal Forum played November 29, 1924 as Canadiens defeated Toronto 7-1. Hamilton finished first in the standings, receiving a bye into the finals. But Hamilton players, demanding $200 each for additional games in the playoffs, went on strike. The NHL suspended all players, fining them $200 each. Stanley Cup finalist to be the winner of NHL semi-final between Toronto and Canadiens.

Lady Byng Trophy donated to NHL.

Clubs played 30-game schedule.

1925-26 — Hamilton club dropped from NHL. Players signed by new New York Americans franchise. Pittsburgh Pirates granted franchise. Prince of Wales Trophy donated to NHL.

Clubs played 36-game schedule.

1926-27 — New York Rangers granted franchise May 15, 1926. Chicago Black Hawks and Detroit Cougars granted franchises September 25, 1926. NHL now ten-team league with an American and a Canadian Division.

Stanley Cup came under the control of NHL. In previous seasons, winners of the now-defunct Western or Pacific Coast leagues would play NHL champion in Cup finals.

Toronto franchise sold to a new company controlled by Hugh Aird and Conn Smythe. Name changed from St. Patricks to Maple Leafs.

Clubs played 44-game schedule.

The Montreal Canadiens donated the Vezina Trophy to be awarded to the team allowing the fewest goals-against in regular season play. The winning team would, in turn, present the trophy to the goaltender playing in the greatest number of games during the season.

1930-31 — Detroit franchise changed name from Cougars to Falcons. Pittsburgh transferred to Philadelphia for one season. Pirates changed name to Philadelphia Quakers. Trading deadline for teams set at February 15 of each year. NHL approved operation of farm teams by Rangers, Americans, Falcons and Bruins. Four-sided electric arena clock first demonstrated.

1931-32 — Philadelphia dropped out. Ottawa withdrew for one season. New Maple Leaf Gardens completed.

Clubs played 48-game schedule.

1932-33 — Detroit franchise changed name from Falcons to Red Wings. Franchise application received from St. Louis but refused because of additional travel costs. Ottawa team resumed play.

1933-34 — First All-Star Game played as a benefit for injured player Ace Bailey. Leafs defeated All-Stars 7-3 in Toronto.

1934-35 — Ottawa franchise transferred to St. Louis. Team called St. Louis Eagles and consisted largely of Ottawa's players.

1935-36 — Ottawa-St. Louis franchise terminated. Montreal Canadiens finished season with very poor record. To strengthen the club, NHL gave Canadiens first call on the services of all French-Canadian players for three seasons.

1937-38 — Second benefit All-Star game staged November 2 in Montreal in aid of the family of the late Canadiens star Howie Morenz.

Montreal Maroons withdrew from the NHL on June 22, 1938, leaving seven clubs in the League.

1938-39 — Expenses for each club regulated at $5 per man per day for meals and $2.50 per man per day for accommodation.

1939-40 — Benefit All-Star Game played October 29, 1939 in Montreal for the children of the late Albert (Babe) Siebert.

1940-41 — Ross-Tyer puck adopted as the official puck of the NHL. Early in the season it was apparent that this puck was too soft. The Spalding puck was adopted in its place.

On May 16, 1941, Arthur Ross, NHL governor from Boston, donated a perpetual trophy to be awarded annually to the player voted outstanding in the league. Due to wartime restrictions, the trophy was never awarded.

1941-42 — New York Americans changed name to Brooklyn Americans.

1942-43 — Brooklyn Americans withdrew from NHL, leaving six teams: Boston, Chicago, Detroit, Montreal, New York and Toronto. Playoff format saw first-place team play third-place team and second play fourth.

Clubs played 50-game schedule.

Frank Calder, president of the NHL since its inception, died in Montreal. Meryn ''Red'' Dutton, former manager of the New York Americans, became president. The NHL commissioned the Calder Memorial Trophy to be awarded to the League's outstanding rookie each year.

1945-46 — Philadelphia, Los Angeles and San Francisco applied for NHL franchises.

The Philadelphia Arena Company of the American Hockey League applied for an injunction to prevent the possible operation of an NHL franchise in that city.

1946-47 — Mervyn Dutton retired as president of the NHL prior to the start of the season. He was succeeded by Clarence S. Campbell.

Individual trophy winners and all-star team members to receive $1,000 awards.

Playoff guarantees for players introduced.

Clubs played 60-game schedule.

1947-48 — The first annual All-Star Game for the benefit of the players' pension fund was played when the All-Stars defeated the Stanley Cup Champion Toronto Maple Leafs 4-3 in Toronto on October 13, 1947.

Criteria for awarding Art Ross Trophy changed. Now awarded to top scorer. Elmer Lach was its first winner.

Philadelphia and Los Angeles franchise applications refused.

National Hockey League Pension Society formed.

1949-50 — Clubs played 70-game schedule.

First intra-league draft held April 30, 1950. Clubs allowed to protect 30 players. Remaining players available for $25,000 each.

1951-52 — Referees included in the League's pension plan.

1952-53 — In May of 1952, City of Cleveland applied for NHL franchise. Application denied. In March of 1953, the Cleveland Barons of the AHL challenged the NHL champions for the Stanley Cup. The NHL governors did not accept this challenge.

1953-54 — The James Norris Memorial Trophy presented to the NHL for annual presentation to the League's best defenseman.

Intra-league draft rules amended to allow teams to protect 18 skaters and two goaltenders, claiming price reduced to $15,000.

1954-55 — Each arena to operate an ''out-of-town'' scoreboard.

1956-57 — Referees and linesmen to wear shirts of black and white vertical stripes. Standardized signals for referees and linesmen introduced.

1960-61 — Canadian National Exhibition, City of Toronto and NHL reach agreement for the construction of a Hockey Hall of Fame on the CNE grounds. Hall opens on August 26, 1961.

1963-64 — Player development league established with clubs operated by NHL franchises located in Minneapolis, St. Paul, Indianapolis, Omaha and, beginning in 1964-65, Tulsa. First universal amateur draft took place. All players of qualifying age (17) unaffected by sponsorship of junior teams available to be drafted.

1964-65 — Conn Smythe Trophy presented to the NHL to be awarded annually to the outstanding player in the Stanley Cup playoffs.

Minimum age of players subject to amateur draft changed to 18.

1965-66 — NHL announced expansion plans for a second six-team division to begin play in 1967-68.

1966-67 — Fourteen applications for NHL franchises received.

Lester Patrick Trophy presented to the NHL to be awarded annually for outstanding service to hockey in the United States.

NHL sponsorship of junior teams ceased, making all players of qualifying age not already on NHL-sponsored lists eligible for the amateur draft.

1967-68 — Six new teams added: California Seals, Los Angeles Kings, Minnesota North Stars, Philadelphia Flyers, Pittsburgh Penguins, St. Louis Blues. New teams to play in West Division. Remaining six teams to play in East Division.

Minimum age of players subject to amateur draft changed to 20.

Clubs played 74-game schedule.

1993-94 — Mighty Ducks of Anaheim and Florida Panthers added, making the NHL a 26-team league. Minnesota franchise shifted to Dallas, team named Dallas Stars. Prince of Wales and Clarence Campbell Conferences renamed Eastern and Western. Adams, Patrick, Norris and Smythe Divisions renamed Northeast, Atlantic, Central and Pacific. Winnipeg moved to Central Division from Pacific; Tampa Bay moved to Atlantic Division from Central; Pittsburgh moved to Northeast Division from Atlantic.

1994-95 — A lockout resulted in the cancellation of 468 games from October 1, 1994 to January 19, 1995. Clubs played a 48-game schedule that began January 20, 1995 and ended May 3, 1995. No inter-conference games were played.

1995-96 — Quebec franchise transferred to Denver. Team named Colorado Avalanche and placed in Pacific Division of Western Conference. Clubs to play 82-game schedule.

1996-97 — Winnipeg franchise transferred to Phoenix. Team named Phoenix Coyotes and placed in Central Division of Western Conference.

1997-98 — Hartford franchise transferred to Raleigh. Team named Carolina Hurricanes and remains in Northeast Division of Eastern Conference.

1998-99 — The addition of the Nashville Predators made the NHL a 27-team league and brought about the creation of two new divisions and a League-wide realignment in preparation for further expansion to 30 teams by 2000-2001. Nashville was added to the Central Division of the Western Conference, while Toronto moved into the Northeast Division of the Eastern Conference. Pittsburgh was shifted from the Northeast to the Atlantic, while Carolina left the Northeast for the newly created Southeast Division of the Eastern Conference. Florida, Tampa Bay and Washington also joined the Southeast. In the Western Conference, Calgary, Colorado, Edmonton and Vancouver make up the new Northwest Division. Dallas and Phoenix moved from the Central to the Pacific Division.

The NHL retired uniform number 99 in honor of all-time scoring leader Wayne Gretzky who retired at the end of the season.

1999-2000 — Atlanta Thrashers added, making the NHL a 28-team league.

Major Rule Changes

1910-11 — Game changed from two 30-minute periods to three 20-minute periods.

1911-12 — National Hockey Association (forerunner of the NHL) originated six-man hockey, replacing seven-man game.

1917-18 — Goalies permitted to fall to the ice to make saves. Previously a goaltender was penalized for dropping to the ice.

1918-19 — Penalty rules amended. For minor fouls, substitutes not allowed until penalized player had served three minutes. For major fouls, no substitutes for five minutes. For match fouls, no substitutes allowed for the remainder of the game.

With the addition of two lines painted on the ice twenty feet from center, three playing zones were created, producing a forty-foot neutral center ice area in which forward passing was permitted. Kicking the puck was permitted in this neutral zone.

Tabulation of assists began.

1921-22 — Goaltenders allowed to pass the puck forward up to their own blue line.

Overtime limited to twenty minutes.

Minor penalties changed from three minutes to two minutes.

1923-24 — Match foul defined as actions deliberately injuring or disabling an opponent. For such actions, a player was fined not less than $50 and ruled off the ice for the balance of the game. A player assessed a match penalty may be replaced by a substitute at the end of 20 minutes. Match penalty recipients must meet with the League president who can assess additional punishment.

1925-26 — Delayed penalty rules introduced. Each team must have a minimum of four players on the ice at all times.

Two rules were amended to encourage offense: No more than two defensemen permitted to remain inside a team's own blue line when the puck has left the defensive zone. A faceoff to be called for ragging the puck unless shorthanded.

Team captains only players allowed to talk to referees.

Goaltender's leg pads limited to 12-inch width.

Timekeeper's gong to mark end of periods rather than referee's whistle. Teams to dress a maximum of 12 players for each game from a roster of no more than 14 players.

1926-27 — Blue lines repositioned to sixty feet from each goal-line, thereby enlarging the neutral zone and standardizing distance from blue line to goal.

Uniform goal nets adopted throughout NHL with goal posts securely fastened to the ice.

1927-28 — To further encourage offense, forward passes allowed in defending and neutral zones and goaltender's pads reduced in width from 12 to 10 inches.

Game standardized at three twenty-minute periods of stop-time separated by ten-minute intermissions.

Teams to change ends after each period.

Ten minutes of sudden-death overtime to be played if the score is tied after regulation time.

Minor penalty to be assessed to any player other than a goaltender for deliberately picking up the puck while it is in play. Minor penalty to be assessed for deliberately shooting the puck out of play.

The Art Ross goal net adopted as the official net of the NHL.

Maximum length of hockey sticks limited to 53 inches measured from heel of blade to end of handle. No minimum length stipulated.

Home teams given choice of end to defend at start of game.

1928-29 — Forward passing permitted in defensive and neutral zones and into attacking zone if pass receiver is in neutral zone when pass is made. No forward passing allowed inside attacking zone.

Minor penalty to be assessed to any player who delays the game by passing the puck back into his defensive zone.

Ten-minute overtime without sudden-death provision to be played in games tied after regulation time. Games tied after this overtime period declared a draw.

Exclusive of goaltenders, team to dress at least 8 and no more than 12 skaters.

1929-30 — Forward passing permitted inside all three zones but not permitted across either blue line.

Kicking the puck allowed, but a goal cannot be scored by kicking the puck in.

No more than three players including the goaltender may remain in their defensive zone when the puck has gone up ice. Minor penalties to be assessed for the first two violations of this rule in a game; major penalties thereafter.

Goaltenders forbidden to hold the puck. Pucks caught must be cleared immediately. For infringement of this rule, a faceoff to be taken ten feet in front of the goal with no player except the goaltender standing between the faceoff spot and the goal-line.

Highsticking penalties introduced.

Maximum number of players in uniform increased from 12 to 15.

December 21, 1929 — Forward passing rules instituted at the beginning of the 1929-30 season more than doubled number of goals scored. Partway through the season, these rules were further amended to read, ''No attacking player allowed to precede the play when entering the opposing defensive zone.'' This is similar to modern offside rule.

1930-31 — A player without a complete stick ruled out of play and forbidden from taking part in further action until a new stick is obtained. A player who has broken his stick must obtain a replacement at his bench.

A further refinement of the offside rule stated that the puck must first be propelled into the attacking zone before any player of the attacking side can enter that zone; for infringement of this rule a faceoff to take place at the spot where the infraction took place.

1931-32 — Though there is no record of a team attempting to play with two goaltenders on the ice, a rule was instituted which stated that each team was allowed only one goaltender on the ice at one time.

Attacking players forbidden to impede the movement or obstruct the vision of opposing goaltenders.

Defending players with the exception of the goaltender forbidden from falling on the puck within 10 feet of the net.

1932-33 — Each team to have captain on the ice at all times. Maximum number of players in uniform reduced to 14 from 15.

If the goaltender is removed from the ice to serve a penalty, the manager of the club to appoint a substitute.

Match penalty with substitution after five minutes instituted for kicking another player.

1933-34 — Number of players permitted to stand in defensive zone restricted to three including goaltender.

Visible time clocks required in each rink.

Two referees replace one referee and one linesman.

1934-35 — Penalty shot awarded when a player is tripped and thus prevented from having a clear shot on goal, having no player to pass to other than the offending player. Shot taken from inside a 10-foot circle located 38 feet from the goal. The goaltender must not advance more than one foot from his goal-line when the shot is taken.

1937-38 — Rules introduced governing icing the puck.

Penalty shot awarded when a player other than a goaltender falls on the puck within 10 feet of the goal.

1938-39 — Penalty shot modified to allow puck carrier to skate in before shooting.

One referee and one linesman replace two referee system.

Blue line widened to 12 inches.

Maximum number of players in uniform increased from 14 to 15.

1939-40 — A substitute replacing a goaltender removed from ice to serve a penalty may use a goaltender's stick and gloves but no other goaltending equipment.

1940-41 — Flooding ice surface between periods made obligatory.

1941-42 — Penalty shots classified as minor and major. Minor shot to be taken from a line 28 feet from the goal. Major shot, awarded when a player is tripped with only the goaltender to beat, permits the player taking the penalty shot to skate right into the goalkeeper and shoot from point-blank range.

One referee and two linesmen employed to officiate games.

For playoffs, standby minor league goaltenders employed by NHL as emergency substitutes.

1942-43 — Because of wartime restrictions on train scheduling, regular-season overtime was discontinued on November 21, 1942.

Player limit reduced from 15 to 14. Minimum of 12 men in uniform abolished.

1943-44 — Red line at center ice introduced to speed up the game and reduce offside calls. This rule is considered to mark the beginning of the modern era in the NHL.

1945-46 — Goal indicator lights synchronized with official time clock required at all rinks.

1946-47 — System of signals by officials to indicate infractions introduced.

Linesmen from neutral cities employed for all games.

1947-48 — Goal awarded when a player with the puck has an open net to shoot at and a thrown stick prevents the shot on goal. Major penalty to any player who throws his stick in any zone other than defending zone. If a stick is thrown by a player in his defending zone but the thrown stick is not considered to have prevented a goal, a penalty shot is awarded.

All playoff games played until a winner determined, with 20-minute sudden-death overtime periods separated by 10-minute intermissions.

1949-50 — Ice surface painted white.

Clubs allowed to dress 17 players exclusive of goaltenders.

Major penalties incurred by goaltenders served by a member of the goaltender's team instead of resulting in a penalty shot.

1950-51 — Each team required to provide an emergency goaltender in attendance with full equipment at each game for use by either team in the event of illness or injury to a regular goaltender.

1951-52 — Home teams to wear basic white uniforms; visiting teams basic colored uniforms.

Goal crease enlarged from 3 × 7 feet to 4 × 8 feet.

Number of players in uniform reduced to 15 plus goaltenders.

Faceoff circles enlarged from 10-foot to 15-foot radius.

1952-53 — Teams permitted to dress 15 skaters on the road and 16 at home.

1953-54 — Number of players in uniform set at 16 plus goaltenders.

1954-55 — Number of players in uniform set at 18 plus goaltenders up to December 1 and 16 plus goaltenders thereafter. Teams agree to wear colored uniforms at home and white uniforms on the road.

1956-57 — Player serving a minor penalty allowed to return to ice when a goal is scored by opposing team.

1959-60 — Players prevented from leaving their benches to enter into an altercation. Substitutions permitted providing substitutes do not enter into altercation.

1960-61 — Number of players in uniform set at 16 plus goaltenders.

1961-62 — Penalty shots to be taken by the player against whom the foul was committed. In the event of a penalty shot called in a situation where a particular player hasn't been fouled, the penalty shot to be taken by any player on the ice when the foul was committed.

1964-65 — No body contact on faceoffs.

In playoff games, each team to have its substitute goaltender dressed in his regular uniform except for leg pads and body protector. All previous rules governing standby goaltenders terminated.

1965-66 — Teams required to dress two goaltenders for each regular-season game. Maximum stick length increased to 55 inches.

1966-67 — Substitution allowed on coincidental major penalties.

Between-periods intermissions fixed at 15 minutes.

1967-68 — If a penalty incurred by a goaltender is a co-incident major, the penalty to be served by a player of the goaltender's team on the ice at the time the penalty was called. Limit of curvature of hockey stick blade set at 1½ inches.

1969-70 — Limit of curvature of hockey stick blade set at 1 inch.

1970-71 — Home teams to wear basic white uniforms; visiting teams to wear basic colored uniforms.

Limit of curvature of hockey stick blade set at ½ inch.

Minor penalty for deliberately shooting the puck out of the playing area.

1971-72 — Number of players in uniform set at 17 plus 2 goaltenders.

Third man to enter an altercation assessed an automatic game misconduct penalty.

1972-73 — Minimum width of stick blade reduced to 2 inches from 2½ inches.

1974-75 — Bench minor penalty imposed if a penalized player does not proceed directly and immediately to the penalty box.

1976-77 — Rule dealing with fighting amended to provide a major and game misconduct penalty for any player who is clearly the instigator of a fight.

1977-78 — Teams requesting a stick measurement to be assessed a minor penalty in the event that the measured stick does not violate the rules.

1979-80 — Wearing of helmets made mandatory for players entering the NHL.

1980-81 — Maximum stick length increased to 58 inches.

1981-82 — If both of a team's listed goaltenders are incapacitated, the team can dress and play any eligible goaltender who is available.

1982-83 — Number of players in uniform set at 18 plus 2 goaltenders.

1983-84 — Five-minute sudden-death overtime to be played in regular-season games that are tied at the end of regulation time.

1985-86 — Substitutions allowed in the event of co-incidental minor penalties. Maximum stick length increased to 60 inches.

1986-87 — Delayed off-side is no longer in effect once the players of the offending team have cleared the opponents' defensive zone.

1990-91 — The goal lines, blue lines, defensive zone face-off circles and markings all moved one foot out from the end boards, creating 11 feet of room behind the nets and shrinking the neutral zone from 60 to 58 feet.

1991-92 — Video replays employed to assist referees in goal/no goal situations. Size of goal crease increased. Crease changed to semi-circular configuration. Time clock to record tenths of a second in last minute of each period and overtime. Major and game misconduct penalty for checking from behind into boards. Penalties added for crease infringement and unnecessary contact with goaltender. Goal disallowed if puck enters net while a player of the attacking team is standing on the goal crease line, is in the goal crease or places his stick in the goal crease.

1992-93 — No substitutions allowed in the event of coincidental minor penalties called when both teams are at full strength. Minor penalty for attempting to draw a penalty ("diving"). Major and game misconduct penalty for checking from behind into goal frame. Game misconduct penalty for instigating a fight. High sticking redefined to include any use of the stick above waist-height. Previous rule stipulated shoulder-height.

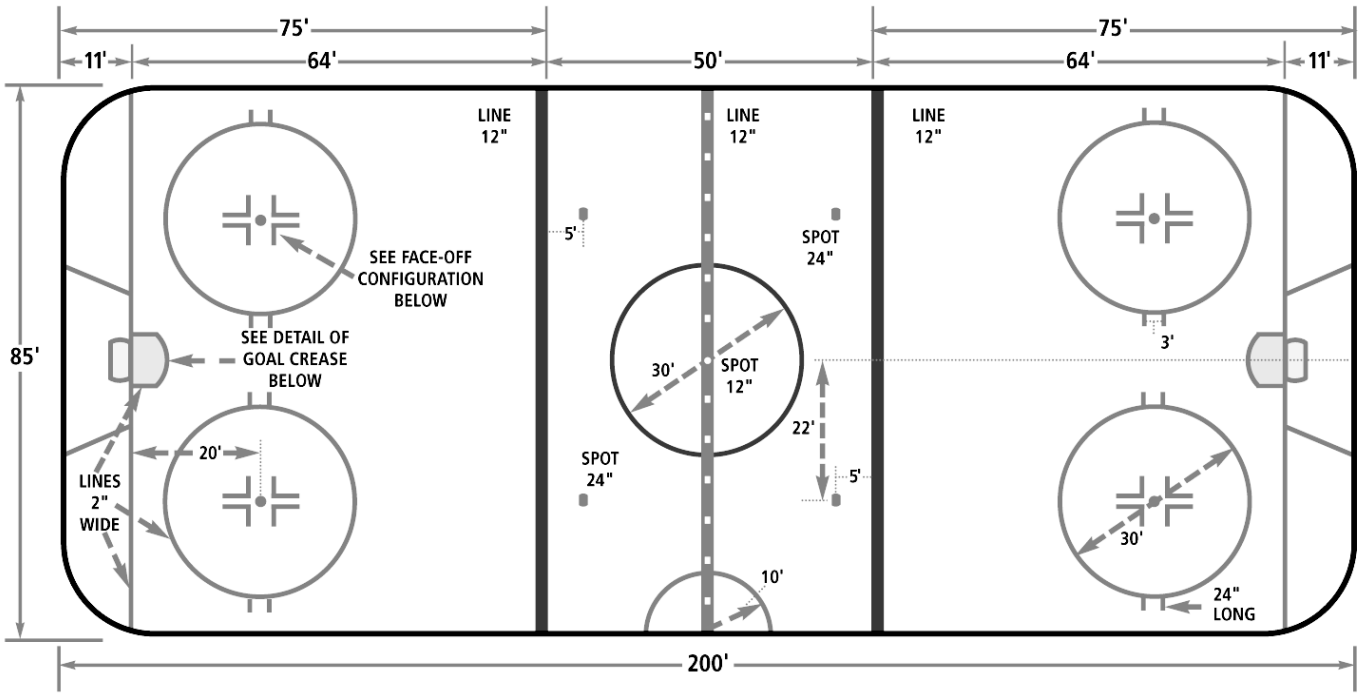
1993-94 — High sticking redefined to allow goals scored with a high stick below the height of the crossbar of the goal frame.

1996-97 — Maximum stick length increased to 63 inches. All players must be clear of the attacking zone prior to the puck being shot into that zone. The opportunity to "tag-up" and return into the zone has been removed.

1998-99 — The league instituted a two-referee system with each team to play 20 regular-season games with two referees and a pair of linesmen. Goal line moved to 13 feet from end boards. Goal crease altered to extend one foot beyond each goal post (eight feet across in total. Sides of crease squared off, extending 4'6". Only the top of the crease remains rounded. Only the top of the crease remains rounded.

1999-2000 — Each team to play 25 home and 25 road games using the two-referee system. Crease rule revised to implement a ''no harm, no foul, no video review'' standard. Teams to play with four skaters and a goaltender in regular-season overtime. If a goal is scored in regular-season overtime, the winner is awarded two points and the loser one point. In no goal is scored in overtime, both teams are awarded one point.

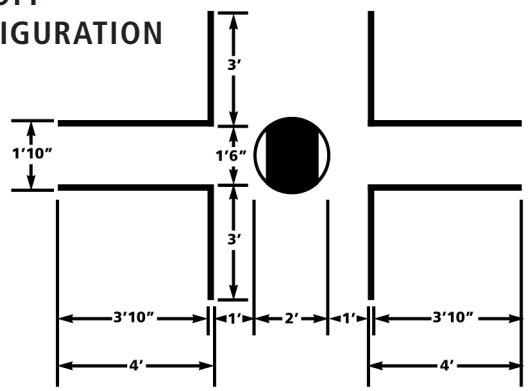
2000-01 — All games to be played using the two-referee system.



2002-03 — "Hurry-up" faceoff and line-change rules implemented.

2003-04 — Home teams to wear basic colored uniforms; visiting teams to wear basic white uniforms. Maximum length of goaltender's pads set at 38 inches.

2005-06 — The NHL adopted a comprehensive package of rule changes that included the following:



Goal line moved to 11 feet from end boards; blue lines moved to 75 feet from end boards, reducing neutral zone from 54 feet to 50 feet. Center red line eliminated for two-line passes. "Tag-up" off-side rule reinstituted. Goaltender not permitted to play the puck outside a designated trapezoid-shaped area behind the net. A team that ices the puck is not permitted to make any player substitutions prior to the ensuing faceoff. A player who instigates a fight in the final five minutes of regulation time or at any time of overtime to receive a minor, a major, a misconduct and an automatic one-game suspension. The size of goaltender equipment reduced. If a game remains tied after five minutes of overtime, winner determined by shootout.

2011-12 — Rules and penalties modified to address contact with the head.

NHL Players at the 2014 Olympic Winter Games

FOR THE FIFTH TIME SINCE 1997-98, the NHL's 2013-14 regular season will be interrupted in order to allow the League's players to represent their countries at the Olympic Winter Games in Sochi, Russia.

Twelve teams, divided into three groups of four, will play for Olympic gold. Each team will play the three opponents in its group from Feb. 12 to Feb. 16. Russia, Slovakia, the USA and Slovenia will compete in Group A; Finland, Canada, Norway and Austria in Group B; and the Czech Republic, Sweden, Switzerland and Latvia in Group C.

At the conclusion of the Preliminary Round, all 12 teams will be ranked in one group. The top four teams will advance to the quarterfinals. The remaining teams play a single Qualification Playoff on Feb. 18: 5 vs. 12, 6 vs. 11, 7 vs. 10 and 8 vs. 9. The four winners qualify for the quarterfinals. Single-game playoffs will then determine the winner of the quarterfinals (Feb. 19), the semifinals (Feb. 21), the bronze medal game (Feb. 22) and the gold medal game (Feb. 23).

2014 Men's Olympic Hockey Schedule

Bruce Boudreau

Head Coach

Born: Toronto, Ont., January 9, 1955.

Bruce Boudreau was named head coach in Anaheim on November 30, 2011. In his first full season with the team in 2012-13, he led the Ducks to a division title.

As head coach of the Washington Capitals between 2007 and 2011, Boudreau won the 2007-08 Jack Adams Award (NHL Coach of the Year) and led his club to the 2009-10 Presidents' Trophy as the NHL's top club in the regular season with a franchise record 54 wins and 121 points. He compiled a record of 201-88-40 (.672 winning percentage) with the Capitals and won the Southeast Division four times. He became the fastest coach in modern day NHL history to win 200 games (Nov. 21, 2011 vs. Phoenix) and recorded more wins (184) in his first 300 NHL games than any NHL coach all-time.

Boudreau was named interim head coach of the Capitals on November 22, 2007. On that date, Washington was 30th in the NHL standings. Boudreau led the club to a 37-17-7 finish, as the Capitals won the Southeast Division. Boudreau, whose interim tag was removed on December 26, 2007, became the first coach since Bill Barber (2001) to win the Jack Adams Award after taking over a team midseason. In 2008-09, he led the Capitals to their first playoff series win since 1988.

Before joining the Capitals, Boudreau spent nine seasons as an AHL head coach, including a Calder Cup championship with the Hershey Bears in 2006. Boudreau began his coaching career in the Colonial Hockey League with Muskegon in 1992-93 and was named the International Hockey League Coach of the Year in 1993-94 with Fort Wayne. He also served as head coach and director of hockey operations for Mississippi (ECHL), where he won the 1999 Kelly Cup championship.

Boudreau played parts of eight NHL seasons with the Toronto Maple Leafs and Chicago Blackhawks between 1976 and 1986, recording 28 goals and 42 assists for 70 points in 141 career games. He was selected by the Maple Leafs in the third round of the 1975 NHL Entry Draft. As a Canadian junior player playing for the Toronto Marlboros in 1974-75, he scored 68 goals and added 97 assists for 165 points, a Canadian Hockey League record until Bobby Smith and Wayne Gretzky surpassed the mark during the 1977-78 season. Boudreau also ranks 11th all-time in scoring in AHL history with 316 goals and 799 points and led all AHL players in scoring during the 1980s. He won the AHL scoring title in 1987-88 and was a member of the 1992 Calder Cup champion Adirondack Red Wings

Bob Murray

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Born: Kingston, Ont., November 26, 1954.

Bob Murray was named executive vice president and general manager of the Anaheim Ducks on November 12, 2008 after 3 1/2 years as senior vice president of hockey operations. He was named to that original position on July 14, 2005. Murray's astute judgment of hockey talent and player evaluation were instrumental in several trades and acquisitions the Ducks made over his tenure, highlighted by a Stanley Cup championship in 2007.

Murray's responsibilities include overseeing all aspects of player development, playing a key role in the club's professional scouting efforts, contract negotiations and all matters relating to the National Hockey League. He has been instrumental in the organization's success at both the NHL and AHL level. Both the Ducks and American Hockey League's Portland Pirates made Conference Final appearances in 2006, making Anaheim the only organization to have both their NHL and AHL teams advance to their league's respective Conference Finals.

Prior to joining the Ducks, Murray worked as a professional scout with the Vancouver Canucks from 1999 to 2005 under then-general manager Brian Burke (1998 to 2004). Murray's scouting expertise helped to build teams that recorded 100+ point season two years in a row (2002-03 and 2003-04) and advanced to the Stanley Cup playoffs four seasons in a row (2001 to 2004). Before his stint in Vancouver, he served as a scouting consultant for Anaheim during the 1998-99 season.

Murray was a member of the Chicago Blackhawks organization for 25 years, serving as general manager from 1997 to 1999. He was promoted to the post after serving as assistant general manager under Bob Pulford for two seasons. Before joining upper management, Murray was named the director of player personnel in 1991 and was largely responsible for the club's entry draft selections over eight seasons.

Drafted by the Blackhawks in 1974, Murray spent his entire 1,008-game, 15-year career in a Chicago uniform. He became just the fourth player in Blackhawks history to reach the 1,000-game plateau. In addition, he became the first defenseman in club history to appear in 100 postseason contests, reaching the mark during the 1990 Stanley Cup playoffs. In all, Murray had 132 goals and 382 assists for 514 points, and currently ranks second in all-time points among Blackhawk defensemen. He was named to both the 1981 and 1983 NHL All-Star Games. Murray retired at the conclusion of the 1989-90 season. Known for his work ethic, intelligence and determination as a player, Murray remained with the organization as a professional scout following his retirement in 1990.

Claude Julien

Head Coach

Born: Orleans, Ont., April 23, 1960.

The Boston Bruins named Claude Julien the 28th head coach in club history on June 21, 2007. In his first season behind the bench in 2007-08, he guided the Bruins back to the playoffs for the first time since 2003-04. In 2008-09, the Bruins posted the best record in the Eastern Conference and were second overall in the NHL, earning Julien the Jack Adams Award for coach of the year. In 2010-11, he guided the team to a Stanley Cup victory for the first time since 1972. Boston reached the Stanley Cup final again in 2013.

Julien joined the Bruins with four years of NHL head coaching experience. In his lone season with New Jersey, he held a record of 47-24-8 before being replaced on April 2, 2007 with three games remaining in the 2006-07 regular season. At the time he was replaced by the Devils, Julien's club was in first place in the Atlantic Division. Prior to being named head coach of the Devils, Julien spent three seasons as the head coach of the Montreal Canadiens, serving from January 2003 until January of 2006. During his tenure with Montreal, Julien led the Canadiens to a record of 72-71-16 in 159 games.

Before joining the NHL coaching ranks, Julien spent four seasons with Hull of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League and three campaigns with Hamilton of the American Hockey League. While with Hamilton, Julien was co-awarded the Louis A. R. Pieri Award as the league's outstanding coach during the 2002-03 season. Julien has also coached at the international level, having served as an assistant coach to Team Canada at the 2006 World Championship after he led Team Canada to a bronze medal as a head coach at the 2000 World Junior Championship. He will be an associate coach for Canada at the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics.

A defenseman, Julien's professional playing career spanned 12 seasons from 1981 to 1992, highlighted by stints with the Quebec Nordiques between 1984 and 1986.

Peter Chiarelli

General Manager

Born: Nepean, Ont., August 5, 1964.

Peter Chiarelli became just the seventh man in club history to hold the position of general manager when he was named to the post on May 26, 2006. He officially began his position in Boston on July 10, 2006 as a result of a league-arbitrated compensation agreement that saw the Bruins surrender a third-round draft pick in the 2006 NHL Entry Draft (Eric Gryba, 68th overall) to the Ottawa Senators. By his third season in Boston in 2008-09, the Bruins posted the best record in the Eastern Conference and were second overall in the NHL. In 2010-11, Boston won the Stanley Cup for the first time since 1972. The Bruins reached the Stanley Cup final again in 2013.

Chiarelli came to the Bruins after seven seasons with the Ottawa Senators, five as the director of legal relations and the last two as assistant general manager. He was involved in all aspects of that team's hockey operations, including contract research and negotiations, salary arbitration and all player personnel matters. He was also involved in overseeing Ottawa's top developmental affiliate, the Binghamton Senators of the American Hockey League. The Senators had four 100+ point seasons during his tenure and never finished below 94 points, finished with the NHL's top record in 2002-03 (113 points) and the best record in the Eastern Conference in 2005-06 (113 points).

A native of the Ottawa area, Chiarelli played four seasons of college hockey at Harvard University where he served the team as captain and was a teammate of former Bruin Don Sweeney. He had 21 goals and 28 assists for 49 points with 70 penalty minutes in 109 career college games and earned his degree in Economics in 1987. He played professionally in Europe for one year before returning to school and obtaining his law degree from the University of Ottawa. He was admitted to the Ontario bar in 1993 and spent six years as a lawyer and player agent prior to joining the Senators front office in 1999.

Ron Rolston

Head Coach

Born: Fenton, MI, October 14, 1966.

Ron Rolston was named head coach of the Buffalo Sabres on May 7, 2013. He had been serving as the club's interim head coach since February 20. Rolston is the 16th head coach in franchise history.

Prior to joining the Sabres, Rolston was the head coach of the Rochester Americans, Buffalo's farm club in the American Hockey League. In his two seasons with the Americans, Rolston compiled a 63-44-17 regular-season record.

Before joining the Americans as head coach in 2011, Rolston spent seven seasons as head coach with USA Hockey's National Team Development Program, where he became the first coach in U.S. history to lead the United States under-18 team to three gold medals (2005, 2009, 2011) at the World Under-18 Championship, adding a silver medal (2007) in his other appearance as head coach. In addition to coaching at the under-18 and under-17 levels, Rolston also served as head coach for the U.S. national junior team at the World Junior Championship in 2007 and 2009. In 2007, he led Team USA to the bronze medal.

Rolston joined USA Hockey after serving as an assistant coach at four different NCAA Division I hockey programs between 1990 and 2004 (Lake Superior State University, 1990 to 1995; Clarkson University, 1996 to 1999; Harvard University, 1999 to 2002; Boston College, 2002 to 2004). He won national championships in 1992 and 1994 with Lake Superior State.

Darcy Regier

General Manager

Born: Swift Current, Sask., November 27, 1957.

Darcy Regier was named general manager of the Buffalo Sabres on June 11, 1997 after a lengthy management apprenticeship in the New York Islanders organization. As a player, Regier played eight pro seasons, including part of the 1977-78 season with the Cleveland Barons and parts of the 1982-83 and 1983-84 campaigns with the New York Islanders.

He began his career as an administrator with the Islanders in 1984-85 and went on to serve in a variety of capacities including director of administration, assistant director of hockey operations, assistant coach and assistant general manager. He also served as an assistant coach with Hartford in 1991-92.

While with the Islanders, Regier benefited from working with talented managers and coaches including Bill Torrey and Al Arbour. As a minor pro player with Indianapolis of the CHL he became associated with another important influence on his hockey career, current Detroit Red Wing executive Jim Devellano.

Bob Hartley

Head Coach

Born: Hawkesbury, Ont., September 9, 1960.

The Calgary Flames announced the hiring of Bob Hartley as head coach on May 31, 2012. Hartley joined the Flames following a championship season with the ZSC Lions of Switzerland's National League A in 2011-12. Hartley brings a wealth of experience and winning to the Flames, having coached the Colorado Avalanche for five seasons, during which they won the 2001 Stanley Cup, and coaching the Atlanta Thrashers for parts of five seasons. He also led the Hershey Bears to the 1997 Calder Cup and has Junior A and Major Junior championship rings among his accomplishments.

Hartley began his coaching career with the Junior A team in his hometown of Hawkesbury, Ontario. After guiding the club to two championships, he was named head coach of the Laval Titan of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League in 1991. After an appearance in the 1993 Memorial Cup, Hartley's was hired by the Quebec Nordiques as an assistant coach with their American Hockey League affiliate, the Cornwall Aces. He took over as head coach in 1994, guiding the Aces to two division titles during the team's three-year history.

When the Nordiques relocated to Colorado, Hartley became the head coach of their AHL affiliate, the Hershey Bears. He guided the team to four consecutive playoff appearances and a Calder Cup title in 1997. A season later, Hartley was hired as the Colorado Avalanche bench boss. During his five seasons, the Avalanche won four division titles and made four appearances in the Conference Finals. In his third season of 2000-01, Colorado won the Presidents' Trophy and the Stanley Cup. He became the only coach in team history to record 40 or more wins during his first four seasons as head coach. When his tenure with the Avalanche franchise ended in December of 2002 he had a franchise record 193 wins.

One month later, Hartley was appointed head coach of the Atlanta Thrashers. He guided the young Thrashers through four seasons of steady improvements including the 2006-07 campaign in which they won their first Southeast Division title, setting new franchise records for wins (43-28-11) and points (97) and gaining its first playoff berth. A slow start for the Thrashers in 2007-08 season resulted in Hartley and the club parting ways.

Hartley was enjoying a successful media career as a hockey analyst with RDS, but in the summer of 2011, he signed as head coach for the ZSC Lions in Zurich, Switzerland.

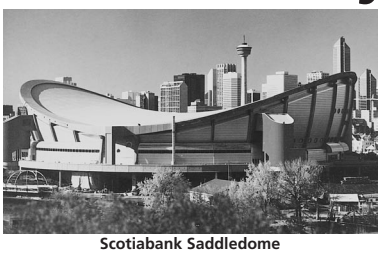
Jay Feaster

General Manager

Born: Williamstown, PA, July 30, 1962.

Jay Feaster joined the Calgary Flames in July 2010 as assistant general manager. He was named acting general manager on December 28, 2010 and, on May 16, 2011 was named general manager of the team. Feaster and senior vice president & assistant general manager Michael Holditch are central figures with the Flames hockey management group.



Feaster joined the Flames organization to build on his decorated managerial career that includes a Stanley Cup championship as general manager of the Tampa Bay Lightning in 2004 and a Calder Cup championship as the president of the Hershey Bears (American Hockey League) in 1997. The native of Williamstown, Pennsylvania was originally named general manager of the Lightning on February 10, 2002. In addition to a Stanley Cup championship, the Lightning won back to back Southeast Division titles in 2002-03 and 2003-04.

Feaster was named the 2004 Sporting News NHL Executive of the Year based on a vote of other NHL GMs and hockey executives. Prior to being named general manager, he spent three seasons with the club in the assistant general manager's position. In that capacity, Feaster was responsible for all contractual, collective bargaining and NHL legal issues, as well as the organization's scouting department and its developmental league affiliates.

To join the Lightning, Feaster resigned his post as president of the Hershey Bears and vice president of Hershey Entertainment. In that capacity, Feaster oversaw the operations of the Bears, the Hershey Wildcats professional soccer team and Hersheypark Arena/Stadium, including the star Pavilion. Feaster, who spent nine years with the Bears, led the team to a division title (1993-94) and a Calder Cup Championship (1997), while establishing three consecutive single-season attendance records (1991-92 to 1993-94) and entering into a five-year affiliation agreement with the NHL's Colorado Avalanche. For his work, he was named the AHL's Executive of the Year in 1997. He originally joined Hershey Entertainment as assistant to the president in 1989 and was named general manager of the Bears and Hersheypark Arena/Stadium in 1990.

Prior to joining Hershey Entertainment, Feaster practiced law with the firm of McNees, Wallace & Nurick in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Feaster is a Summa Cum Laude graduate of Susquehanna University and a Cum Laude graduate of the Georgetown Law Center in Washington, DC.

Kirk Muller

Head Coach

Born: Kingston, Ont., February 8, 1966.

Kirk Muller was named head coach of the Carolina Hurricanes on November 28, 2011 and spent his first full season behind the bench in 2012-13. He is the 12th person to serve as head coach in franchise history, and the third since the team relocated to North Carolina in 1997.

Muller began the 2011-12 season in his first professional head coaching job with the Nashville Predators' American Hockey League affiliate Milwaukee Admirals. Prior to joining the Admirals, Muller spent five seasons as an assistant coach with the Montreal Canadiens, helping the Habs reach the playoffs four consecutive seasons, including a trip to the Eastern Conference Final in 2010. Muller worked extensively with the Habs' penalty killing unit throughout his tenure in Montreal, helping it finish in the top half of the NHL in each season under his watch, including a seventh-place ranking in 2010-11 and a perfect 21-for-21 performance during the 2011 Stanley Cup playoffs. Prior to joining the Canadiens on June 20, 2006, Muller spent one season as head coach with the Queen's University Golden Gaels in his hometown of Kingston. He also served as an assistant coach for Canada at the 2005 Lotto Cup and the 2006 Under-18 World Championship.

As a player, Muller totaled 357 goals and 602 assists (959 points) in 1,349 career NHL games over 19 seasons with the New Jersey Devils, Montreal Canadiens, New York Islanders, Toronto Maple Leafs, Florida Panthers and Dallas Stars from 1984 to 2003. He skated in 127 career Stanley Cup playoff games, totaling 69 points (33 goals, 36 assists), including the Stanley Cup-clinching goal for the Canadiens in the 1993 Stanley Cup Final. A six-time NHL All-Star, Muller posted 30-or-more goals five times in his career, 20-or-more goals nine times, and had seven 70-point seasons. He established career highs with New Jersey in 1987-88 and Montreal in 1992-93, totaling 37 goals, 57 assists and 94 points in each of those seasons. Muller served as captain for both the Devils (1989 to 1991) and the Canadiens (1994-95).

Prior to turning professional, Muller played junior hockey in the Ontario Hockey League for Kingston and Guelph, and represented Canada at the 1984 Olympic Games. He made his NHL debut for New Jersey straight out of junior hockey in 1984, after the Devils selected him second overall in the 1984 NHL Entry Draft, behind only Mario Lemieux.

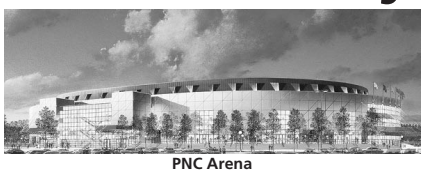
Jim Rutherford

President and General Manager

Born: Beeton, Ont., February 17, 1949.



Jim Rutherford, a former NHL goaltender, is the franchise's seventh general manager and the only general manager of the Carolina Hurricanes. Named to his position on June 28, 1994, Rutherford has always taken an aggressive approach towards improving the fortunes of the franchise through trades and the NHL Entry Draft. In 2002, the team reached the Stanley Cup Finals for the first time in history. The Hurricanes won the Stanley Cup in 2006.

A veteran of 13 NHL seasons, Rutherford began his professional goaltending career in 1969 as a first-round selection of the Detroit Red Wings. While playing for Detroit, Pittsburgh, Toronto and Los Angeles, Rutherford collected 14 career shutouts. For five seasons he also served as the Red Wings' player representative. Rutherford also played for Team Canada at the World Championships in Vienna in 1977 and Moscow in 1979.

After his playing days with the Red Wings, Rutherford joined Compuware to serve as the director of hockey operations for Compuware Sports Corporation. Rutherford gained a wealth of experience in youth hockey and junior programs. As a former player, coach, and general manager, his ability to develop players and produce winning programs is widely respected throughout the hockey community.

He started his management career by guiding Compuware Sports Corporation's purchase of the Windsor Spitfires of the Ontario Hockey League in April of 1984. During the next four years, Rutherford acted as general manager of the Spitfires. After the Spitfires advanced to the 1988 Memorial Cup finals, Rutherford led Compuware's efforts to bring the first American-based OHL franchise to Detroit on December 11, 1989. Rutherford was voted the 1987 executive of the year in both the OHL and the Canadian Hockey League and won the OHL executive of the year award again in 1988.

Joel Quenneville

Head Coach

Born: Windsor, Ont., September 15, 1958.

Joel Quenneville was named the 37th head coach in Chicago Blackhawks history on October 16, 2008 and in 2009-10 he guided the team to its first Stanley Cup championship since 1961. Quenneville led Chicago to another Stanley Cup title in 2013. He originally joined the Blackhawks as a pro scout in September 2008. Quenneville has been a proven winner throughout his career as a head coach in the NHL, including seven seasons with the St. Louis Blues (1996 to 2004) and three with the Colorado Avalanche (2005 to 2008). In his first season behind the bench in Chicago, he led the Blackhawks to the Western Conference Final in just their second playoff appearance since the 1996-97 season.

One of only three men in the history of the NHL to have played in and coached 800 or more games, Quenneville is the winningest coach in Blues history, having compiled a 307-191-95 record. He won the 2000 Jack Adams Award as the league's top coach. Quenneville was drafted by the Toronto Maple Leafs in the first round (21st overall) of the 1978 NHL Entry Draft. He spent 13 seasons as an NHL defenseman, netting 54 goals, 136 assists, 190 points and 705 penalty minutes in 803 career games with the Toronto Maple Leafs, Colorado Rockies, New Jersey Devils, Hartford Whalers and Washington Capitals.

Quenneville retired as an active player after the 1991-92 season, when he served as a player-coach for the American Hockey League's St. John's Maple Leafs. Quenneville broke into coaching with the AHL's Springfield Indians before serving as an assistant coach for the Quebec Nordiques/Colorado Avalanche organization for two and a half seasons. He helped Colorado capture the 1996 Stanley Cup in that position before accepting his first NHL head coaching job with St. Louis for the 1996-97 campaign.

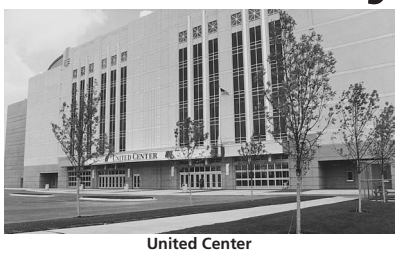
Stan Bowman

General Manager



Born: Montreal, Que., June 28, 1973.

Stan Bowman was named general manager of the Chicago Blackhawks on July 14, 2009. In his first season on the job in 2009-10, the Blackhawks won the Stanley Cup for the first time since 1961. They won it again in 2013. Prior to being named to the position, Bowman had served for eight years in the Blackhawks operations department.

Bowman originally joined the Blackhawks in 2001, serving for four seasons as special assistant to the G.M. before being promoted to director of hockey operations from 2005 to 2007. As assistant G.M. from 2007 to 2009, Bowman attended to the day-to-day administration of the hockey operations department including contract negotiations, free agency, salary arbitration, player movement and player assignment. He also tracked the progress of the Blackhawks prospects at the club's minor league affiliate in Rockford and assisted with player evaluation, prospect development and scouting.

Bowman graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1995 with degrees in Finance and Computer Applications. He was born in Montreal where his father, current Blackhawks senior advisor and Hall of Fame member Scotty Bowman, was coaching at the time.

Patrick Roy

Head Coach and Vice President of Hockey Operations

Born: Quebec City, Que., October 5, 1965.

The Colorado Avalanche announced on May 23, 2013 that the organization had reached an agreement in principle with Patrick Roy to become the franchise's head coach and vice president of hockey operations. He was formally introduced at a press conference on May 28. Roy is the sixth head coach in Avalanche history and the 14th in franchise history. In addition to his head coaching duties, Roy will work with executive vice president of hockey operations Joe Sakic in all player personnel decisions.

Roy spent the previous eight seasons as head coach and general manager of the Quebec Remparts of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League. He guided the Remparts to a 348-159-37 record (.674) in 544 regular-season games behind the bench, which included leading Quebec to the 2006 Memorial Cup title as the Canadian Hockey League champions. He is also a part owner of the QMJHL franchise.

Roy, who was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2006, retired with the most regular season wins in NHL history (551), a number that currently ranks second all-time. The four-time Stanley Cup champion is still the winningest goaltender in Stanley Cup playoff history with 151 postseason wins. Roy is the only player in league history to win the Conn Smythe Trophy as playoff MVP three times (1986, 1993, 2001). The Quebec City native backstopped the Montreal Canadiens to two Stanley Cup championships (1986, 1993), the first of which was his rookie campaign. Traded to Colorado on December 6, 1995, Roy led the Avalanche to the Stanley Cup during the club's first season in Denver (1996) and again in 2001. He is the only goaltender in NHL history to win 200 or more games with two different teams. Roy won the Vezina Trophy three times (1989, 1990, 1992) and the William Jennings Trophy five times (1987, 1988, 1989, 1992, 2002). He was selected to the NHL All-Star Team on six occasions, the First Team in 1988-89, 1989-90, 1991-92 and 2001-02 and the Second Team in 1987-88 and 1990-91. He participated in 11 NHL All-Star Games and was named to the NHL All-Rookie Team in 1985-86.

Roy, who is the Avalanche's all-time goaltending leader in nearly every statistical category, had his number 33 retired by the organization on October 28, 2003.

General Managers' History

Maurice Filion, 1979-80 to 1987-88; Martin Madden, 1988-89; Martin Madden and Maurice Filion, 1989-90; Pierre Page, 1990-91 to 1993-94; Pierre Lacroix, 1994-95 to 2005-06; Francois Giguere, 2006-07 to 2008-09; Greg Sherman, 2009-10 to date.

Greg Sherman

General Manager/Executive V.P. and Alt. Governor

Born: Scranton, PA, March 30, 1970.

Greg Sherman was named general manager of the Colorado Avalanche on June 3, 2009. At the time of his appointment, he had spent the last seven years as the team's assistant general manager and had been associated with the franchise for 13 years. In his first few weeks on the job, Sherman oversaw the selection of Matt Duchene with the third pick in the 2009 NHL Entry Draft. The team showed a 26-point improvement in 2009-10 and returned to the playoffs. In the 2011 Entry Draft, Sherman made Gabriel Landeskog the second overall selection and he went on to win the Calder Trophy as rookie of the year in 2011-12.

In his previous role in Colorado, Sherman worked on contract negotiations, arbitration cases, salary cap management and matters concerning personnel at all levels of the organization. In addition, Sherman also served as a liaison between the Avalanche and its American Hockey League affiliate, the Lake Erie Monsters. He oversaw and coordinated all financial obligations of both clubs.

Born in Scranton, Pennsylvania and raised in Denver, Sherman has spent most of his life in Colorado. He attended the University of San Diego and received his Bachelor in Accountancy in May 1992.

Todd Richards

Head Coach

Born: Robbinsdale, MN, October 20, 1966.

Todd Richards was named head coach of the Columbus Blue Jackets on May 14, 2012. He joined the Blue Jackets as an assistant coach on June 20, 2011 and took over as interim head coach on January 9, 2012. He spent his first full season as Blue Jackets bench boss in 2012-13.

Before joining the Blue Jackets, Richards was the head coach of the Minnesota Wild from 2009 to 2011 after being named the second head coach in Wild history on June 16, 2009. In 2008-09, he served as an assistant coach with the San Jose Sharks and helped the club capture the Presidents' Trophy with an NHL-best 53-18-11 record. He was responsible for the power play in San Jose and that unit ranked third in the NHL at 24.2 percent in 2008-09. During his stint with the Wild, the club's power play unit converted nearly 19 percent of its man advantage opportunities.

Prior to his stint with the Sharks, Richards spent two seasons as the head coach of the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins in the American Hockey League from 2006 to 2008, leading the club to the 2008 Calder Cup Final. He also coached the PlanetUSA squad at the 2007 AHL All-Star Classic in Toronto. He began his coaching career as an assistant with the American Hockey League's Milwaukee Admirals from 2002 to 2006, helping the club to a pair of West Division titles, two appearances in the Calder Cup Final and the 2004 Calder Cup championship.

Richards played four seasons at the University of Minnesota from 1985 to 1989. He was a three-time WCHA Second All-Star Team pick, helping the Golden Gophers win Western Collegiate Hockey Association titles in 1988 and 1989 and reach the NCAA title game in 1989. He served as the team's captain and earned Second Team All-America honors as a senior. He is the University of Minnesota's all-time leading scorer among defensemen with 30 goals, 128 assists and 158 points.

Montreal's third pick, 33rd overall, in the 1985 Entry Draft, Richards made his professional debut in 1990 and appeared in eight career NHL games with the Hartford Whalers between 1990 and 1992, collecting four assists and four penalty minutes. His playing career would span 13 seasons, mostly in the AHL and International Hockey League. He helped Springfield win the 1991 Calder Cup championship, was a three-time IHL All-Star and won the 2001 Turner Cup title with the Orlando Solar Bears. He wrapped up his career in 2001-02 with Servette Geneve in Switzerland.

General Managers' History

Doug MacLean, 2000-01 to 2006-07; Scott Howson, 2007-08 to 2011-12; Scott Howson and Jarmo Kekalainen, 2012-13; Jarmo Kekalainen, 2013-14.

Jarmo Kekalainen

General Manager

Born: Tampere, Finland, July 3, 1966.

Jarmo Kekalainen was named the third general manager in Columbus Blue Jackets history on February 13, 2013. He joined the club after serving as the president and general manager of Jokerit in the Finnish Elite League since 2010. He works closely with Blue Jackets president of hockey operations John Davidson on all hockey-related matters involving the club. Kekalainen owns a bachelor's degree in management from Clarkson University and earned a master's in business marketing from the University of Tampere.

Prior to his stint with Jokerit, Kekalainen spent eight seasons with the St. Louis Blues from 2002 to 2010. He joined the Blues as director of amateur scouting and was named assistant general manager as well in 2005. Kekalainen was involved in all facets of hockey operations, including professional scouting efforts and overseeing the club's amateur scouting and draft preparations. During his eight years in St. Louis, the Blues drafted players such as David Backes, Roman Polak, David Perron, T.J. Oshie, Patrik Berglund and Alex Pietrangelo.

Kekalainen was a member of the Ottawa Senators hockey operations department from 1995 to 2002 and served in a variety of roles with the club. He served as Ottawa's director of player personnel for three years and also oversaw the amateur draft and the club's scouting efforts in Europe. Among the players selected by Ottawa during this time were Jason Spezza, Marian Hossa, Martin Havlat, Antoine Vermette and Ray Emery. While working with the Senators, he also served as general manager of HIFK Helsinki in the Finnish Elite League from 1995 to 1999 and led the club to the league championship in 1998.

As a player, Kekalainen appeared in 55 career NHL games with the Senators and Boston Bruins during his career. He also played in the American Hockey League and his native Finland before wrapping up his playing career with Vasteras IK in the Swedish Elite League in 1994-95. Before signing with the Bruins, Kekalainen played two seasons at Clarkson University from 1987 to 1989. He was named to the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference First All-Star Team after tallying 19 goals and 25 assists for 44 points in 31 games during the 1988-89 season. He also represented Finland at the 1986 World Junior Championship and the 1991 Canada Cup Tournament.

Lindy Ruff

Head Coach

Born: Warburg, Alta., February 17, 1960.

Dallas Stars general manager Jim Nill announced on Friday, June 21, 2013, that Lindy Ruff had been hired as the 22nd head coach in franchise history. He is the seventh head coach in Dallas Stars history.

Ruff is the 12th-winningest head coach in NHL history, one of only 17 to reach the 500-victory plateau, and has the third-most wins of any active NHL coach. Dallas marks his second stint as an NHL head coach after departing the Buffalo Sabres as their all-time franchise leader in wins with a 571-432-162 record. During Ruff's tenure in Buffalo, the team made eight postseason appearances, including four trips to the Eastern Conference Final as well as an appearance in the 1999 Stanley Cup Final. In 2006, he was awarded the Jack Adams Award as the league's top coach for guiding his team to the Conference Final. Ruff was nominated again for the accolade in 2007 for posting consecutive 50-win campaigns and for leading his club to the Presidents' Trophy, which is earned annually by the top team in the regular season.

In Ruff's eight postseason appearances in Buffalo he earned a 57-44 record, which is tied for the 15th-most playoff victories in NHL history. He is also one of only 21 NHL head coaches to guide his team through at least 100 postseason contests.

No stranger to international competition, Ruff coached Canada's national team to a silver medal at the World Championships in 2009, served as an associate coach for the gold medal-winning team at the 2010 Winter Olympic Games in Vancouver, and served as head coach once more at the 2013 World Championships. He will be an associate coach again at the 2014 Olympics.

Prior to his coaching career, the native of Warburg, Alberta, played 691 games in the NHL from 1979 to 1991, posting 300 points (105 goals, 195 assists). He was Buffalo's second-round selection (32nd overall) in 1979.

Jack Adams Award (2006)

Assistant coaches Brian McCutheon and Scott Arniel posted an 0-1-0 record as replacement coach when Lindy Ruff was sidelined due to a family medical emergency, March 20, 2006. Game is credited to Ruff's coaching record.

Assistant coach James Patrick posted a 2-1-0 record as replacement coach after Lindy Ruff suffered broken ribs on February 6, 2012 and was sidelined from February 8 to 11. Games are credited to Ruff's coaching record.

After making a one-game debut with Dallas in 2011-12, Brenden Dillon was one of only six NHL rookies to suit up for all of his team's games in 2012-13. Dillon ranked third among rookies in total time on ice.

Jim Nill

General Manager

Born: Hanna, Alta., April 11, 1958.

Jim Nill was appointed general manager of the Dallas Stars on April 29, 2013. He becomes the 11th General Manager in franchise history and the sixth since the team moved to Dallas.

Nill concluded his 15th season as assistant general manager of the Detroit Red Wings, and his 19th season overall as a member of the management team, in 2012-13. His responsibilities with Detroit included directing the amateur scouting department and overseeing all selections at the annual NHL Draft, as well as managing the development of the organization's prospects at both the professional and amateur levels. During Nill's tenure in Detroit, the Red Wings had more wins than any other franchise in the NHL, won the Stanley Cup four times (1997, 1998, 2002 and 2008), the Presidents' Trophy six times (1995, 1996, 2002, 2004, 2006 and 2008), the Central Division title 12 times, and won seven regular season Western Conference titles while never missing the playoffs. He was an integral part of Detroit's drafting of Pavel Datsyuk, Henrik Zetterberg, Niklas Kronwall, Valtteri Filppula, Jimmy Howard and Johan Franzen. Nill was also general manager of Team Canada for the 2004 World Championship, winning a gold medal.

Nill joined the Red Wings' front office in the summer of 1994 following three seasons with the Ottawa Senators. Previously, Nill enjoyed a nine-season NHL career as a right winger with the Boston Bruins, Vancouver Canucks, St. Louis Blues, Winnipeg Jets and Red Wings. He collected 58 goals, 87 assists and 854 penalty minutes in 524 regular season games. Nill later went to Adirondack of the American Hockey League as a player/coach, retiring as a player after the 1990-91 season. A member of the 1979-80 Canadian national and Olympic team, he was a fifth-round pick of the St. Louis Blues (89th overall) in the 1978 draft.

Mike Babcock

Head Coach

Born: Manitouwadge, Ont., April 29, 1963.

Mike Babcock became the 26th coach in Detroit Red Wings history on July 14, 2005. In 2008, he led the Red Wings to the Stanley Cup. The Red Wings reached the Finals again in 2009 and topped 50 wins during the regular season in each of Babcock's first four years with the team. He coached Canada to an Olympic gold medal in 2010 and will serve as head coach again at the 2014 Sochi Olympics.

Babcock brought a winning track record to Detroit from all levels of play, including college and junior hockey, the American Hockey League, the NHL and international hockey. He is the only man to coach Team Canada to victories at both the World Junior Championship (1997) and the senior World Championship (2004.) Prior to joining the Red Wings, he had spent two seasons with Anaheim, leading the team to the Stanley Cup Finals in his first season behind the bench in 2002-03. He became the first rookie coach to reach the Finals since Florida's Doug MacLean in 1996. With a four-game sweep over Detroit in the first round of the playoffs, the Ducks became the first team since the 1952 Red Wings (over Toronto) to sweep a defending Stanley Cup champion.

Before joining Anaheim, Babcock spent two seasons as head coach of the Cincinnati Mighty Ducks (2000 to 2002), the primary development affiliate for both Detroit and Anaheim in the American Hockey League. He led the club to a franchise-best 41 wins and 95 points in 2000-01. Babcock moved to Cincinnati after a successful six-year run as the head coach of the Spokane Chiefs of the Western Hockey League (1994 through 2000). He was twice named WHL coach of the year (1996 and 2000) after taking the Chiefs to the league finals in both seasons. He began his WHL coaching career with the Moose Jaw Warriors in 1991-92. In Canadian university play, Babcock won a national championship and was named the coach of the year with the Lethbridge Pronghorns in 1993-94. In 1988, he was named head coach at Red Deer College in Red Deer, Alberta. He spent three seasons at the school, winning the Alberta college championship and coach of the year award in 1989.

Babcock played in the WHL for Saskatoon (1980-81) and Kelowna (1982-83), where he was team captain. In between, he spent a year at the University of Saskatoon. Babcock also played four years at McGill University (1983 to 1987), twice being named an All-Star defenseman. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and attended graduate school in sports psychology at McGill.

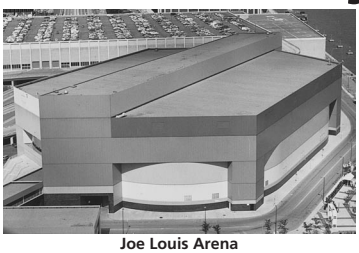
Ken Holland

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Born: Vernon, B.C., November 10, 1955.



Ken Holland has served in the Red Wings front office since 1985, and has been the club's general manager since July 18, 1997. He has established himself as one of the most innovative and aggressive GMs in the National Hockey League. Detroit's Stanley Cup victory in 2008 marked the team's third championship under his leadership. Holland began his tenure as the club's general manager after serving as assistant general manager for the previous three seasons. He will be part of the management group for Team Canada at the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics.

Holland oversees all aspects of hockey operations including all matters relating to player personnel, development, contract negotiations and player movements, though he now takes a less prominent role in the NHL draft than he did during his seven years as the club's director of amateur scouting.

At the conclusion of his playing days as a goaltender, spending most of his pro career at the American Hockey League level, Holland began his off-ice career in 1985 as a western Canada scout followed by five years as an amateur scouting director before promotions led to his current position as general manager.

A native of Vernon, British Columbia, Holland played in the junior ranks for Medicine Hat (WHL) in 1974-75. He was Toronto's 13th pick (188th overall) in the 1975 draft but never saw action with the Maple Leafs. Holland twice signed with NHL teams as a free agent — in 1980 with Hartford and 1983 with Detroit. He spent most of his pro career with AHL clubs in Binghamton and Springfield, along with Adirondack, but did appear in four NHL games, making his debut with Hartford in 1980-81 and playing three contests for Detroit in 1983-84.

Dallas Eakins

Head Coach

Born: Dade City, FL, February 27, 1967.

General manager Craig MacTavish appointed Dallas Eakins the new head coach of the Edmonton Oilers on June 10, 2013. Eakins is the 12th head coach in Oilers franchise history.

Eakins spent the previous eight seasons in the Toronto Maple Leafs organization, where he served as an assistant coach with the Maple Leafs for two seasons (2006 to 2008), before becoming the head coach of the Leafs' American Hockey League affiliate, the Toronto Marlies, in 2009. He was also an assistant coach with the Marlies in 2005-06 and served as the Maple Leafs' director of player development for one season in 2008-09.

In four seasons as head coach of the Marlies, Eakins accumulated a record of 157-114-41. He was one of two head coaches who represented the Western Conference at the AHL All-Star Game in 2011-12 and 2012-13. After knocking off the Oilers' AHL affiliate, the Oklahoma City Barons, in the 2012 playoffs Eakins' Marlies went on to the Calder Cup Final, losing out to the Norfolk Admirals.

Drafted in the 10th round, 208th overall by the Washington Capitals in 1985, Eakins recorded nine assists in 120 career NHL games and patrolled the blueline for the Winnipeg Jets, Florida Panthers, St. Louis Blues, Phoenix Coyotes, Toronto Maple Leafs, Calgary Flames, New York Rangers and the New York Islanders.

The Dade City, Florida native finished his playing career with minor league stops in the International Hockey League and the AHL, where he played in 882 games, registering 222 points (43 goals, 179 assists). His minor league stops included Baltimore, Moncton, Cincinnati, Worchester, Springfield, Binghamton, New Haven, St. John's, and the Chicago Wolves, where he won a Calder Cup. Eakins concluded his playing career in 2003-04, captaining the Manitoba Moose.

Craig MacTavish

General Manager

Born: London, Ont., August 15, 1958.

Craig MacTavish was named the fifth general manager of the Edmonton Oilers on April 15, 2013 after starting the 2012-13 season as the Oilers' senior vice president of hockey operations. MacTavish had been head coach of the Chicago Wolves of the American Hockey League in 2011-12, where he led the Vancouver Canucks' American Hockey League affiliate to a 42-27-7 record.

Named the eighth head coach in Oilers history on June 22, 2000, MacTavish compiled a career record of 301-252-103 (.537) in 656 regular-season games over the course of eight seasons (2000-01 to 2008-09). He became the 36th coach in NHL history to win 300-or-more games with a 5-3 win versus the Vancouver Canucks on April 4, 2009. He completed his coaching tenure behind the Oilers bench after the 2008-09 season, ranking second among Edmonton coaches in games coached, wins, losses, ties/overtime losses and winning percentage, and ranked 36th all-time in NHL history in wins and 41st in games coached.

The former Edmonton captain has a 19-17 record (.528) in the Stanley Cup playoffs and became the third coach to lead the Oilers to the Stanley Cup Final in 2006. MacTavish guided the Oilers to their first trip to the Stanley Cup Final since 1990 as Edmonton fell in seven games to the Carolina Hurricanes. After finishing the regular season in eighth place in the NHL's Western Conference standings with a 41-28-13 record, MacTavish led the Oilers to within a game of their sixth Stanley Cup.

After departing the Oilers organization following the 2008-09 season, MacTavish earned a master's degree in business from Queen's University and spent two years as an analyst for the NHL on TSN.

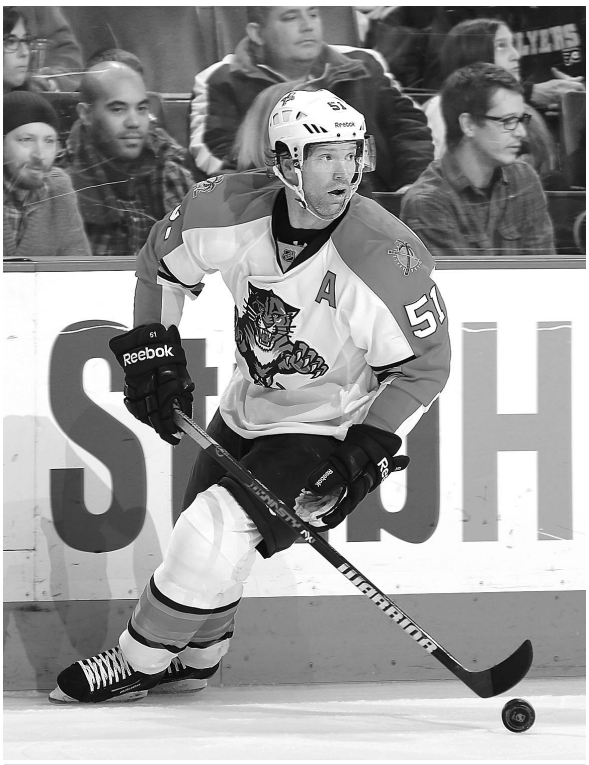
Kevin Dineen

Head Coach

Born: Quebec City, Que., October 28, 1963.

Kevin Dineen was named to the position as the head coach of the Florida Panthers on June 1, 2011. In his first year behind the bench in 2011-12, he led the Panthers to the first division title in franchise history and the first playoff berth since the 1999-2000 season.

Prior to being hired in Florida, Dineen had spent the previous six seasons as the head coach of the Portland Pirates (AHL), where he compiled a record of 266-155-59 with a .616 winning percentage, the best in the franchise's history. During this tenure with Portland, his teams won at least 40 games in four of out six seasons, won a pair of division titles (2005-06 and 2010-11) and advanced to the AHL's Eastern Conference Finals twice (2005-06 and 2007-08).



A third-round draft pick of the Hartford Whalers in the 1982 NHL Entry Draft, Dineen played in 1,188 career National Hockey League games with Hartford (1984 to 1991 and 1995 to 1997), Philadelphia (1991 to 1995), Carolina (1997 to 1999), Ottawa (1999-2000) and Columbus (2000 to 2003). Throughout his 19-year NHL playing career, he scored 355 goals with 405 assists and 2,229 penalty minutes. He also served as team captain while playing for Philadelphia, Hartford and Carolina. Dineen appeared in two NHL All-Star Games while playing for Hartford (1988 and 1989). He was named the 1990-91 NHL Man of the Year and was a three-time finalist for the Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy (1995, 2001 and 2002). After retiring as a player on November 5, 2002, Dineen spent two seasons working in the Columbus Blue Jackets hockey operations department.

As a coach for Portland in the AHL for six seasons, Dineen demonstrated the ability to develop young talent. He guided young stars like Corey Perry, Bobby Ryan, Ryan Getzlaf and Dustin Penner before they moved to the NHL with the Anaheim Ducks, then coached three straight winners of the AHL Rookie of the Year award – Buffalo farmhands Nathan Gerbe, Tyler Ennis and Luke Adam.

Dineen comes from one of the most prominent hockey families. His father, Bill, was a two-time NHL All-Star with the Detroit Red Wings who later was head coach of the Flyers for a season and a half at the time Kevin played for Philadelphia. His brothers Gord and Peter also played in the NHL. Gord is currently an assistant with the Toronto Marlies of the AHL, while Peter is a scout for the Columbus Blue Jackets. Brothers Shawn and Jerry played minor league hockey – Shawn is now a professional scout with the Nashville Predators, where he worked with Panthers assistant general manager Mike Santos; Jerry is the video coach of the New York Rangers.

Born: Noranda, Que., October 19, 1950.

Dale Tallon was named general manager of the Florida Panthers on May 17, 2010. After joining Florida, Tallon conducted a successful 2010 NHL Entry Draft that saw the club stockpile 13 picks, including three first-round selections (No. 3 - D Erik Gudbranson, No. 19 - C Nick Bjugstad and No. 25 - C Quinton Howden). The hiring of head coach Kevin Dineen, and acquisitions such as Brian Campbell before the 2011-12 season helped Florida win the first division title in franchise history and return to the playoffs for the first time since 1999-2000. Jonathan Huberdeau, whom the Panthers selected third overall in 2011, won the Calder Trophy as rookie of the year in 2012-13.

Prior to joining the Panthers, Tallon spent 33 years with the Blackhawks organization as a front office executive, player and broadcast personality. He served as Chicago's general manager from June 2005 to July 2009 after having served as assistant general manager from November 2003 to June 2005. Tallon was responsible for drafting or acquiring many of the players who led the Blackhawks to the Stanley Cup in 2010, including Jonathan Toews, Patrick Kane, Marian Hossa, Patrick Sharp, Kris Versteeg, John Madden and Brian Campbell.

As a player, Tallon was the Vancouver Canucks' first-round selection (second overall) in the 1970 NHL Draft. The Noranda, Quebec native played in 642 NHL contests with Vancouver (1970 to 1973), Chicago (1973 to 1978) and Pittsburgh (1978 to 1980) registering 336 points (98 goals, 238 assists) and 568 penalty minutes.Tallon recorded a career-high 17 goals in 69 games with Vancouver during the 1971-72 season and appeared in the 1971 and 1972 NHL All-Star Games. In 1972, Tallon was picked as an alternate for Team Canada for the Summit Series against the Soviet Union. After retiring following the 1979-80 season, Tallon served as a color analyst for Chicago radio and television broadcasts for 16 seasons.

Prior to joining the Panthers, Tallon spent the 2009-10 season serving as a senior advisor of hockey operations for the Blackhawks. He also served four years (1998 to 2002) as director of player personnel before returning to the radio and television booth prior to the 2002-03 season.

Darryl Sutter

Head Coach

Born: Viking, Alta., August 19, 1958.

Darryl Sutter was named the 24th head coach in Kings history on December 20, 2011. The team had a record of 15-14-4 when Sutter took over and posted a mark of 25-13-11 under him. A strong finish saw them claim the eighth and final playoff spot in the Western Conference and an impressive 16-4 playoff run saw the Kings win the Stanley Cup for the first time in franchise history. It was also Sutter's first Stanley Cup win. The Kings reached the Western Conference final in 2013.

Sutter had a career head coaching record of 409-320-131 in 860 regular season games over 12 seasons when hired by the Kings. His team's had eclipsed the 40-win mark four times, 100 points twice and finished in first place three times. He is also only one of nine head coaches in NHL history to lead three different teams to 100 wins. Only Scotty Bowman and Ron Wilson have coached four different teams to 100 wins. Sutter led the Calgary Flames to Game 7 of the 2004 Stanley Cup Final and Chicago to the 1995 Western Conference Final.

Before coming to Los Angeles, Sutter was the general manager of the Flames from the 2003-04 season until he resigned on December 28, 2010. Sutter also served as Calgary's head coach from 2002-03 through 2005-06. He was the head coach of the San Jose Sharks for parts of six seasons (1997-98 through the start of the 2002-03 season), where he worked under current Kings president/general manager Dean Lombardi, then the GM of the Sharks. As in Calgary, the Sharks increased their point total every season Sutter was the head coach. He led San Jose to a first-place finish in the Pacific Division in 2001-02 with a 44-27-11 record (99 points). Sutter was relieved of his duties with the Sharks on December 1, 2002.

Sutter was the head coach of the Chicago Blackhawks for three seasons (1992-93 through 1994-95) and served as Chicago's assistant coach in 1987-88 and as associate coach in 1990-91 and 1991-92. He led Chicago to a first-place finish in the Norris Division (and the best record in the Campbell Conference) in 1992-93 with a 47-25-12 record and 106 points. Sutter's head coaching experience also includes two seasons in the International Hockey League, where he coached the Saginaw Hawks in 1988-89 and he led the Indianapolis Ice to the Turner Cup Championship in 1989-90.

As a player, Sutter played in 406 career NHL regular season games (all with the Blackhawks), recording 279 points (161 goals, 118 assists) and 288 penalty minutes. He scored 20-plus goals in five of his eight NHL seasons, including a career-high 40 goals in 1980-81. He served as Chicago's captain from 1982 to 1985 and again in 1986-87. Darryl is one of seven Sutter brothers, six of whom played in the NHL. His son Brett currently plays in the Carolina Hurricanes organization.

Dean Lombardi

President and General Manager

Born: Holyoke, MA, March 5, 1958.

The Kings entered into a new executive era when the club hired Dean Lombardi as president and general manager on April 21, 2006. Coming to Los Angeles as a veteran of 20 NHL seasons in the front office as an executive and a pro scout, Lombardi brought a well-earned reputation for being one of hockey's true visionaries while possessing a solid track record of success, building from within, and of development on the ice and infrastructure off the ice. In 2010, the Kings returned to the playoffs for the first time since 2002 and in 2012 they became Stanley Cup champions for the first time in franchise history. Los Angeles reached the Western Conference final in 2013.

Lombardi was formerly a member of the San Jose Sharks front office for 13 years, including seven seasons as general manager, followed by three years as a pro scout for the Philadelphia Flyers from 2003 to 2006, As an executive in the San Jose front office beginning in 1990, Lombardi first served as assistant general manager (a post he held the previous two seasons with the Minnesota North Stars) for the expansion Sharks before being elevated to vice president, director of hockey operations in 1992. Four years later, he was promoted to executive vice president and general manager. During his tenure as general manager in San Jose from 1996 to 2003, Lombardi helped build the Sharks into one of the premier teams in the NHL.

Prior to joining the North Stars, Lombardi spent three seasons as a player representative, including the representation of five members of the 1988 United States Olympic team, and at the time he joined Minnesota's front office Lombardi was only the second former player agent to be employed in an NHL front office (Brian Burke/Vancouver Canucks was the other).

Born in Holyoke, Massachusetts, and raised in nearby Ludlow, Lombardi received his undergraduate degree from the University of New Haven where he finished third in his class. On the ice he was the hockey team's captain his final two seasons, and he received a full athletic scholarship and the school's student-athlete of the year award. In 1985, Lombardi earned his Law degree (with honors) from Tulane Law School where he specialized in Labor Law.

Mike Yeo

Head Coach

Born: North Bay, Ont., July 31, 1973.

Mike Yeo was named head coach of the Minnesota Wild on June 17, 2011. The hiring came 366 days after Yeo had been tabbed to lead the Houston Aeros, the Wild's primary developmental affiliate in the American Hockey League. In his one year as a head coach, he led the Aeros to an appearance in the Calder Cup Finals. Yeo joined the Wild franchise with the Aeros after spending the previous five seasons as assistant coach of the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins. During Yeo's tenure in Pittsburgh he helped lead the Penguins to the 2008-09 Stanley Cup championship. Yeo led the Wild to their first playoff appearance since 2008 in 2013.

Yeo played five seasons with the Aeros (1994 to 1999) and was the captain of Houston's 1999 Turner Cup Championship team. He joined the Aeros in 1994 after playing the previous four seasons with the Sudbury Wolves (Ontario Hockey Leaue). As a left winger, he accumulated 127 points (55 goals, 72 assists) and 511 penalty minutes over 317 games during his Aeros playing career. Yeo enjoyed career-highs of 20 goals, 21 assists, 41 points and 128 penalty minutes during the 1997-98 season while serving as team captain. The native of North Bay, Ontario posted 18 points (six goals, 12 assists) and 65 penalty minutes in 57 games during the 1998-99 season. He also added four assists and 11 penalty minutes in nine games during the Aeros' run to the Turner Cup. Yeo joined the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins for the 1999-2000 season and played in 19 games before suffering a career-ending knee injury.

After his injury, Yeo joined the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton coaching staff where he spent six seasons as the assistant coach of Pittsburgh's AHL affiliate. During his tenure in Wilkes-Barre/Scranton, Yeo helped the Penguins to a Western Conference championship in 2001, an Eastern Conference championship in 2005, and two trips to the Calder Cup Finals. He made the jump to the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins under head coach Michel Therrien in December 2005. During his first full season in 2006-07, Yeo helped the Penguins to a 47-point improvement from the previous season, the fourth-largest turnaround from one season to the next in NHL history. In Yeo's second season, he helped lead the Penguins to the Stanley Cup Final for the first time since the 1992 season. Yeo remained on staff in Pittsburgh during the 2008-09 season after Dan Byslma replaced Therrien on February 15, 2009, and the Penguins went on to win their third Stanley Cup championship in franchise history.

Chuck Fletcher

General Manager

Born: Montreal, Que., April 29, 1967.

The Minnesota Wild announced the hiring of Chuck Fletcher as the second general manager in club history on May 22, 2009. During the summer of 2012, Fletcher made his mark with the acquisition of Zach Parise and Ryan Suter, two of the biggest names available on the free-agent market, and the Wild made their first playoff appearance since 2008 in the spring of 2013.

Fletcher has been to the Stanley Cup Finals in management with three different teams (Florida, Anaheim and Pittsburgh). With the Penguins from 2006 to 2009, he worked closely with general manager Ray Shero on all hockey-related matters, including scouting, overseeing the development of young prospects and contract negotiations. Fletcher also managed hockey operations for the club's American Hockey League affiliate, the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins. Under his leadership, Wilkes-Barre/Scranton reached the AHL's Calder Cup finals in 2007-08, and the division finals in 2008-09.

Fletcher, the son of Hockey Hall of Famer Cliff Fletcher, had extensive NHL management experience before he joined the Penguins in July 2006 – including a four-year stint with the Anaheim Ducks from 2003 to 2006 as director of hockey operations, assistant general manager, and vice president of amateur scouting and player development.

The Montreal native also spent nine years in the front office of the Florida Panthers from 1993 to 2002, working seven seasons as assistant general manager and part of one season (2001-02) as interim general manager. In 1996, the Panthers advanced to the Stanley Cup Finals.

Fletcher graduated from Harvard in 1990 and spent one year as the sales and merchandising coordinator for Hockey Canada and two years as a player representative for Newport Sports Management before making the transition to the front office.

Michel Therrien

Head Coach

Born: Montreal, Que., November 4, 1963.

The Montreal Canadiens announced the appointment of Michel Therrien as the club's head coach on June 5, 2012. After finishing 15th in the Eastern Conference in 2011-12, Therrien led the Canadiens to a division title in 2012-13.

This is Therrien's second stint with the Canadiens, having previously served as a head coach in the organization from 1997 to 2003. The Montreal native joined the franchise in June 1997 taking over behind the bench of the Canadiens' American Hockey League affiliate in Fredericton. In 1999-2000, he became the first head coach of the Quebec Citadelles leading the team to the Atlantic Division Championship in its inaugural season. On November 20, 2000, Therrien became the 25th head coach in Canadiens history. He led the Canadiens to their first playoff appearance in four years in 2001-02.

After Montreal, Therrien spent six years with the Pittsburgh Penguins organization, coaching the club's AHL affiliate in Wilkes-Barre/Scranton from 2003 to 2005, before being promoted to Pittsburgh and leading the Penguins to new heights from 2005 to 2009. Therrien's team was off to a 21-1-3 start in the AHL when he was summoned to Pittsburgh to take over as head coach on December 15, 2005. In 2006-07, his second season behind the Pens' bench, he was a finalist for the Jack Adams Award as NHL coach of the year after leading the Penguins to 105 points and a 47-point improvement over the previous season. It was the fourth-biggest turnaround from one season to the next in NHL history. In 2007-08 under Therrien's guidance, the Penguins kept the same pace and earned 102 regular season points making their way to the Stanley Cup Final, dropping a six-game decision to the Detroit Red Wings. It was the Penguins first division title since 1997-98 and their first berth to the Cup finals since 1991-92.

Before joining the Canadiens, Therrien coached the Laval Titan and the Granby Predateurs in the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League, winning the Memorial Cup with Granby in 1996. In his playing days, he was a solid defenseman who captured the Calder Cup in 1985 as a member of the Sherbrooke Canadiens.

Marc Bergevin

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Born: Montreal, Que., August 11, 1965.

The Montreal Canadiens announced the appointment of Marc Bergevin as executive vice president and general manager on May 2, 2012. Bergevin became the 17th general manager in Canadiens history after having spent the previous seven seasons with the Chicago Blackhawks where he was the assistant general manager under Stan Bowman in 2011-12. After finishing 15th in the Eastern Conference in 2011-12, the Canadiens won a division title in 2012-13 and Bergevin finished third in voting as NHL General Manager of the Year.

Bergevin held various positions within the Blackhawks organization, including director of player personnel for two seasons (2009 to 2011), and won the Stanley Cup in 2009-10. He served as an assistant coach on Joel Quenneville's staff during the 2008-09 campaign and also spent three years on the Blackhawks scouting staff (2005 to 2008), including one season as director of professional scouting (2007-08).

Originally selected by the Blackhawks in the third round (60th overall) in the 1983 NHL Entry Draft, Bergevin enjoyed a 20-season career as a defenseman in the National Hockey League, collecting 181 points (36 goals, 145 assists) in 1,191 regular season games with Chicago, the New York Islanders, Hartford Whalers, Tampa Bay Lightning, Detroit Red Wings, St. Louis Blues, Pittsburgh Penguins and Vancouver Canucks. Bergevin also skated in 80 playoff contests, reaching the Conference Finals in 1996 (Detroit) and in 2001 (Pittsburgh). He played his junior hockey in the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League with the Chicoutimi Sagueneens, from 1982 to 1984.

Coaching History

Barry Trotz, 1998-99 to date.

Barry Trotz

Head Coach

Born: Winnipeg, Man., July 15, 1962.

The only head coach in the history of the Nashville Predators, Barry Trotz was hired on August 6, 1997 and is currently the longest-tenured coach in the NHL. During the 2011-12 season, Trotz joined Lindy Ruff and Hall of Famer Toe Blake as the only coaches in history to win 500 games while coaching just one NHL team (though Ruff is now coaching his second team in Dallas).

Trotz was hired after serving four seasons as head coach and director of hockey operations for the American Hockey League's Portland Pirates. He and assistant Paul Gardner spent the 1997-98 season scouting in preparation for the inaugural season of the Predators. In his sixth season behind the bench in 2003-04, Trotz led Nashville into the playoffs for the first time. During the 2006-07 season, Nashville was in contention for first overall in the NHL, setting club records with 51 wins and 110 points.Trotz was nominated for the Jack Adams Award as coach of the year for the first time in 2009-10 and received a second nomination in 2010-11.

Trotz began his coaching career in 1984 as assistant coach with the University of Manitoba for one season, before serving two seasons as the head coach and general manager of the Dauphin Kings Junior Hockey Club from 1985 to 1987. He became head coach of the University of Manitoba during the 1987 season and also served as a scout for the Spokane Chiefs of the Western Hockey League that season. Trotz joined the Washington Capitals organization as their chief western scout during the 1988 season. The Winnipeg, Manitoba native was appointed an assistant coach of the Capitals' American Hockey League affiliate in Baltimore prior to the 1991 season before being named head coach prior to the 1992 season. When the franchise relocated to Portland, he guided the Pirates to two AHL Calder Cup Final appearances in the club's first four seasons. He led the Pirates to a league-best 43-27-10 record, captured the Calder Cup championship and was named the American Hockey League coach of the year following the 1994-95 season.

In 1995, Trotz guided Portland to a new North American professional hockey league record 17-game unbeaten streak (14-0-3) to start the season. He was named head coach for the U.S. team at the American Hockey League All-Star Game in 1996.

Prior to his coaching career, Trotz played junior hockey for the Western Hockey League's Regina Pats from 1979 to 1983. During that time, he recorded 39 goals, 121 assists for 160 points, along with 490 penalty minutes in 204 games.

General Managers' History

David Poile, 1998-99 to date.

David Poile

President of Hockey Operations and General Manager

Born: Toronto, Ont., February 14, 1949.

Hired as the first general manager in franchise history on July 9, 1997, David Poile has been committed to building the team through the NHL Draft. In 2003-04, Nashville reached the playoffs for the first time in franchise history. During the 2006-07 season, the team was in contention for first overall in the NHL, setting club records with 51 wins and 110 points. Though forced to rebuild the roster for 2007-08, the Predators reached the playoffs for the fourth year in a row. Poile has an impressive reputation as an NHL leader and in 2001 he received the Lester Patrick Trophy for his contributions to hockey in the United States. His father, Norman "Bud" Poile, had won the honor in 1989. He served as Associate G.M. for the 2010 U.S. Olympic Team and U.S. squads for the 2009 and 2010 IIHF World Championships and will be general manager of the 2014 U.S. Olympic team at Sochi. He was a finalist for the NHL's inaugural G.M. of the Year Award in 2010 and was a finalist for the award again in 2011 and 2012.

Prior to joining Nashville, Poile spent 15 seasons as vice president/general manager of the Washington Capitals. During his tenure in Washington, the Capitals made 14 postseason appearances, winning their only Patrick Division title in 1989 and advancing to the Conference Finals in 1990. During Poile's 15 years in Washington, the Capitals compiled a record of 594-454-132, finished second in the Patrick Division seven times and recorded 90-or-more points seven different seasons.

Poile started his professional hockey career as an administrative assistant for the Atlanta Flames in 1972, shortly after graduating from Northeastern University in Boston. At Northeastern, he was hockey team captain, leading scorer and most valuable player for two years. In 1977, he was named assistant general manager of the Atlanta Flames (who moved to Calgary in 1980), serving as the manager and coordinator of the Flames farm club.

Poile was instrumental in the NHL's adoption of the instant replay rule in 1991. He was awarded Inside Hockey's man of the year for his leadership on the issue. He has also been honored three times as The Sporting News NHL executive of the year in 1982-83, 1983-84 and 2006-07. Poile served as general manager of the 1998 and 1999 U.S. national teams for the World Championships.

Lou Lamoriello

President, CEO and General Manager

Born: Providence, RI, October 21, 1942.

Lou Lamoriello has been president and general manager of the Devils since 1987-88 following more than 20 years with Providence College as a player, coach and administrator. He was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame's Builder category in November, 2009 and elected to the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame in 2012. His trades, signings and draft choices helped lead the Devils to their first Stanley Cup Championship in 1995 and were followed by victories again in 2000 and 2003. During his tenure, the Devils have had 13 100-point seasons, five Eastern Conference playoff titles and nine Atlantic Division regular-season championships. In 2005-06, Lamoriello took over behind the bench and coached the Devils to first place in the Atlantic Division.

While at Providence, Lamoriello served as hockey coach for 15 seasons, compiling an impressive .578 winning percentage (248-179-13), while guiding the Friars to 12 post-season tournaments in a row. During his last five seasons (1978-83) of coaching, the school compiled a record of 107-58-4 and had more players drafted by the National Hockey League after entering college than any other college team during those years. Lamoriello helped propel numerous players and administrators toward NHL careers during his tenure at Providence. He was hired as president of the Devils on April 30, 1987, and assumed the responsibility of general manager on September 10, 1987. Lamoriello was G.M. of Team USA for the first World Cup of Hockey in 1996 as the U.S. captured the championship. He was also the G.M. for the 1998 U.S. Olympic Team.

Peter DeBoer

Head Coach

Born: Dunnville, Ont., June 13, 1968.

New Jersey Devils general manager Lou Lamoriello introduced Peter DeBoer as the 21st coach in franchise history on July 19, 2011. He had spent the previous three seasons as head coach of the Florida Panthers. In his first season behind the bench with the Devils in 2011-12, DeBoer led New Jersey to the Stanley Cup Final.

DeBoer joined the NHL coaching ranks with Florida in 2008 after 13 seasons of leading teams in the Ontario Hockey League. The current part-owner of the OHL's Oshawa Generals is a two-time winner of the OHL coach of the year – both coming with the Plymouth Whalers, in 1998-99 and 1999-2000. He coached the Kitchener Rangers to the Memorial Cup twice, winning it in 2003. DeBoer also served as an assistant coach for Team Canada at the 2010 World Championship and was a member of the gold medal-winning Canadian staff at the 2005 World Junior Championship.

As a player, DeBoer won the 1988 Memorial Cup as a member of the Windsor Spitfires. He was a 12th-round selection of the Toronto Maple Leafs in the 1988 NHL Entry Draft and played two full seasons professionally with the Milwaukee Admirals of the International Hockey League. He holds a law degree from the University of Windsor/University of Detroit.

Jack Capuano

Head Coach

Born: Cranston, RI, July 7, 1966.

Jack Capuano was named the interim head coach of the New York Islanders on November 15, 2010. Islanders general manager Garth Snow announced his decision to remove the "interim" title and officially name Capuano the club's head coach on April 12, 2011. In 2012-13, he guided the Islanders into the playoffs for the first time since 2007.

Capuano made his debut in the midst of one of the worst winless streaks in team history and was tasked with turning the season around. Right after Capuano took the reigns, the team posted a 1-8-2 record, but that wouldn't last. After their rough start, Capuano led the Islanders to a 25-21-8 record in their last 54 games of the season, making the Islanders one of the best teams in the Eastern Conference after December 15. The coach had a 15-12-6 record after the All-Star Break.

Capuano joined the Islanders organization in the 2005-06 season as an assistant coach with the Islanders. The native of Cranston, Rhode Island, was named head coach of the Bridgeport Sound Tigers on April 30, 2007. In four seasons he had a 133-100-22 mark as head coach of the Sound Tigers. From 1997 to 2005 he served as the general manager of the Pee Dee Pride of the East Coast Hockey League. Capuano also served as the head coach of the 2005 U.S. Under-18 Select Team at the Five Nations Cup in Slovakia.

Capuano began his coaching career in 1995 as an assistant coach with the Tallahassee Tiger Sharks of the ECHL after ending a pro playing career that included stints with Boston, Vancouver and Toronto of the NHL and Springfield and Maine of the American Hockey League. The former First Team All-American captained the University of Maine to a Hockey East championship and NCAA Frozen Four appearance in 1998.

Garth Snow

General Manager

Born: Wrentham, MA, June 28, 1969.

Former Islanders' goaltender Garth Snow retired as a player on July 18, 2006 to become the fifth general manager of the New York Islanders. In his first season as general manager, Snow successfully bolstered the lineup with several key additions that helped to propel the Islanders into the postseason for the first time since the 2003–04 season and earned Snow the title of NHL Executive of the Year from Sports Illustrated.

Snow spent four seasons with the Islanders and 12 in the NHL. The goaltender was 135-147-44 with a 2.80 goals-against average and .901 save percentage over 368 games with Quebec, Philadelphia, Vancouver, Pittsburgh and the Islanders. Originally selected in the sixth round by Quebec in the 1987 NHL Entry Draft, the native of Wrentham, Massachusetts signed with the Islanders as a free agent on July 1, 2001.

Alain Vigneault

Head Coach

Born: Quebec City, Que., May 14, 1961.

The New York Rangers officially named Alain Vigneault as the club's head coach on June 21, 2013. He is the 35th head coach in franchise history. A three-time Jack Adams Award finalist, and the 2007 winner of the award presented to the NHL's top coach, Vigneault joined the Rangers after spending seven season with the Vancouver Canucks where he recorded five seasons with 100 or more points.

After being a successful head coach in the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League and as an assistant with the Ottawa Senators, Vigneault earned his first NHL head coaching job with the Canadiens in 1997-98, leading the club to the second round of the playoffs that season. He became the Canucks head coach prior to the 2006-07 season. His most successful season behind the bench in Vancouver was 2010-11 when the Canucks won 54 games, totaled 117 points, captured the Presidents' Trophy as the top team in the league over the regular season, and then fell just one victory shy of winning the Stanley Cup. A year later Vigneault's Canucks edged the Rangers by just two points, 111 to 109, to win the Presidents' Trophy again.

Glen Sather

President and General Manager

Born: High River, Alta., September 2, 1943.

Glen Sather, who spent parts of four seasons with the New York Rangers as a player from 1970 to 1974, became the franchise's 12th president and tenth general manager on June 2, 2000. He also served as coach of the team from January 30, 2003, to February 25, 2004.

Sather joined the Rangers following a 24-year career with the Edmonton Oilers, where he was the architect of five Stanley Cup championships between 1984 and 1990. One of the most respected executives in the National Hockey League, Sather was honored for his tremendous achievements in 1997 by becoming the first member of the Oilers organization to be selected to the Hockey Hall of Fame.

Named coach and vice president of hockey operations for the Oilers when the franchise joined the NHL in June of 1979, Sather became general manager and club president in May of 1980. He coached through the 1988-89 season and also returned for 60 games behind the bench in 1993-94. Sather-coached teams won the Stanley Cup four times in the 1980s. As general manager, Sather was instrumental in the Oilers' fifth Cup triumph in 1990.

He played for six different teams during a 10-year NHL career. He scored 80 goals in 658 games.

* Denotes afternoon game.

A rash of injuries saw Ottawa's offense tumble from fourth best in the NHL in 2011-12 to fourth worst in 2012-13. Goalie Craig Anderson also battled injuries, but his brilliant play in just 24 games helped Ottawa return to the playoffs and saw Anderson rank fourth in voting for the Vezina Trophy and 12th for the Hart as MVP.

Paul MacLean

Head Coach

Born: Grostenquin, France, March 9, 1958.

Ottawa Senators general manager Bryan Murray announced the hiring of Paul MacLean as the club's head coach on June 14, 2011. In hs first season behind the bench in Ottawa in 2011-12, MacLean led the Senators back to the postseason after finishing 26th in the NHL's overall standings the year before. He won the Jack Adams Award as coach of the year in 2012-13 for guiding an injury-ravaged Ottawa team to the playoffs again.

MacLean joined the Senators after spending the previous six seasons as assistant coach to Mike Babcock with the Detroit Red Wings. During his tenure with Detroit, the Red Wings finished first in the Central Division five times and made two appearances in the Stanley Cup Final, winning in six games over the Pittsburgh Penguins in 2008 and losing in seven games to Pittsburgh in 2009. During his six seasons with Detroit, the team posted a 304-126-62 record in 492 regular-season games (.681 winning percentage).

Prior to joining Detroit, MacLean was hired in 2002 by Bryan Murray, who was then the general manager of the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim. MacLean spent two seasons as an assistant to Babcock, the Mighty Ducks' head coach at that time. In his first season in Anaheim, the club made its first Stanley Cup Final appearance and posted a 69-62-33 record (.521) during MacLean's two seasons as an assistant with the Ducks. In his last eight seasons as an assistant coach, MacLean was part of a team that has reached the Stanley Cup Final on three occasions.

Before joining the Anaheim coaching staff in 2002, MacLean, who was born in Grostenquin, France, but grew up in Antigonish, Nova Scotia, was head coach of the Quad City Mallards of the United Hockey League (UHL) from 2000 to 2002. MacLean led the Mallards to a two-season record of 112-27-9 (.787) and the 2001 Colonial Cup championship. MacLean was the head coach of the International Hockey League's Kansas City Blades from 1997 to 2000. He spent one season as an assistant coach with the Phoenix Coyotes in 1996-97 and was head coach at Peoria (IHL) from 1993 to 1996. While with Peoria, MacLean was named The Hockey News Minor League Coach of the Year in 1994 after leading the Rivermen to a 51-24-6 mark and a division title. He was also a scout with the St. Louis Blues for two seasons from 1991 to 1993.

MacLean spent 11 seasons in the National Hockey League as a forward with St. Louis, Winnipeg and Detroit from 1980-81 to 1990-91. He played in 719 NHL regular-season games, scoring 324 goals and adding 349 assists for 673 points. He recorded eight seasons of 30 or more goals. He also appeared in 53 playoff games, scoring 21 goals and 35 points. MacLean set career highs in goals (41) and points (101) during the 1984-85 season with Winnipeg and was named to the Campbell Conference All-Star Team. MacLean also represented Canada internationally at the 1980 Winter Olympics, held in Lake Placid, New York.

Bryan Murray

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Born: Shawville, Que., December 5, 1942.

On June 18, 2007, Bryan Murray was appointed as the seventh general manager of the Ottawa Senators. Murray had joined the organization on June 8, 2004, when he was named the club's head coach. Murray resigned as senior vice president and general manager of Anaheim to take the coaching position in Ottawa. As coach in Ottawa in 2006–07, Murray led the Senators to the Stanley Cup Final for the first time in franchise history, only to lose to his former Anaheim team. He also has previous front office experience as vice president and general manager of the Florida Panthers from 1994 to 2001, assembling a team that reached the Stanley Cup Final in just its third year of existence in 1996.

Murray, who was back behind the bench in Ottawa briefly in 2007-08, began his NHL career as head coach of the Washington Capials in 1981. He has served 16+ years behind the bench, coaching more than 1,300 regular-season and playoff games, including 672 wins. He earned the Jack Adams Award as coach of the year in 1983-84. Murray's regular-season coaching record in Ottawa is 107-55-20 and includes winning the 2007 Prince of Wales Trophy as the NHL's Eastern Conference champions.

Peter Laviolette

Head Coach

Born: Norwood, MA, December 7, 1964.

Peter Laviolette was named the 17th coach in Flyers history on December 4, 2009. Taking over the team two months into the season, Laviolette's Flyers would clinch a playoff berth in the final game on the schedule and go on to reach the Stanley Cup Final before losing to the Chicago Blackhawks. Along the way, they became just the third team in NHL history to rally from a three-games-to-nothing deficit when they beat the Boston Bruins in the second round of the playoffs.

Previously, Laviolette had coached the Carolina Hurricanes from 2003-04 until partway through the 2008-09 season. In 2005-06 he led the Hurricanes to a club-record 52 wins and 112 points in the regular-season and a Stanley Cup championship. Laviolette's career as an NHL head coach began with the New York Islanders in 2001-02. He led the team to the playoffs two years in a row after the club had failed to reach the postseason for seven straight seasons. Prior to joining the Islanders, Laviolette served as an assistant coach with the Boston Bruins after two years of guiding Boston's AHL affiliate, Providence. In 1998-99, Laviolette led the Providence Bruins to a 56-16-8 regular-season record, and a 15-4 playoff record that culminated with Providence hoisting the Calder Cup and Laviolette being named AHL coach of the year.

Laviolette played 11 seasons of professional hockey, mostly in the AHL and IHL, but did play 12 games with the New York Rangers during the 1988-89 season. He was a member of the 1988 and 1994 U.S. Olympic hockey teams, and captained the 1994 Olympic squad.

In the spring of 2004, Laviolette helped assure the United States a spot in the 2006 Olympic Games in Torino, Italy, when he guided Team USA to a bronze medal at the 2004 World Championship in the Czech Republic. He also served as an assistant to San Jose Sharks head coach Ron Wilson behind the bench for Team USA in the 2004 World Cup of Hockey and was head coach again at the 2005 World Championship and 2006 Olympics.

General Managers' History

Bud Poile, 1967-68, 1968-69; Bud Poile and Keith Allen, 1969-70; Keith Allen, 1970-71 to 1982-83; Bob McCammon, 1983-84; Bob Clarke, 1984-85 to 1989-90; Russ Farwell, 1990-91 to 1993-94; Bob Clarke, 1994-95 to 2005-06; Bob Clarke and Paul Holmgren, 2006-07; Paul Holmgren, 2007-08 to date.

Paul Holmgren

General Manager

Born: St. Paul, MN, December 2, 1955.

Paul Holmgren was named interim general manager of the Philadelphia Flyers on November 11, 2006, replacing Bob Clarke who resigned on October 22. On March 14, 2007, Holmgren was officially announced as the club's new g.m. In his first full season on the job in 2007-08, the Flyers returned to the playoffs after finishing last overall in the NHL the year before. They reached the Stanley Cup Final in 2010. Prior to his promotion, Holmgren had served the previous seven seasons as the team's assistant general manager. He rejoined the Flyers organization as a scout after being replaced as the Hartford Whalers' head coach on November 6, 1995. He had served as a head coach with both the Whalers and the Flyers and also served as general manager in Hartford during the 1993–94 season.

Holmgren retired from playing after the 1984-85 season, having recorded 144 goals and 179 assists for 323 points and 1,684 penalty minutes in 527 career regular season NHL games with the Flyers and the Minnesota North Stars. He recorded 138 goals and 171 assists for 309 points and 1,600 penalty minutes in 500 games over parts of nine seasons with the Flyers (1975-76 to 1983-84). His 1,600 penalty minutes with the Flyers are second all-time in club history. Holmgren was drafted from the University of Minnesota by the Flyers in the sixth round (108th overall) of the 1975 NHL Entry Draft.

Mike Smith's five shutouts for Phoenix in 2012-13 earned him a share of the NHL lead along with Jimmy Howard, Tuukka Rask, Cory Schneider and Pekka Rinne.

Don Maloney

General Manager

Born: Lindsay, Ont., September 5, 1958.

Don Maloney was signed as general manager of the Phoenix Coyotes on May 30, 2007. Maloney has steered the team through turbulent times and guided the Coyotes to the most successful season in franchise history in 2009-10, setting club records with 50 wins and 107 points. He was rewarded for his efforts by being named the inauguarl winner of the NHL General Manager of the Year Award in 2010. In 2011-12, the Coyotes won the first division title in franchise history and advanced to the second round of the playoffs for the first time since 1987.

Maloney joined the Coyotes from the New York Rangers for whom he served as vice president of player personnel and assistant general manager. He assisted Rangers' president and g.m. Glen Sather in all player transactions and contract negotiations and was involved with the team's professional and amateur scouting operations. Maloney spent 10 seasons in the Rangers' front office. He played a key role in the Rangers' development of several prospects into productive NHL players, including Henrik Lundqvist. Maloney also served as assistant general manager for Team Canada squads that won gold medals at the 2003 and 2004 World Championships.

Maloney's first front office position in the NHL was as assistant general manager of the New York Islanders following his retirement as a player with the club on January 17, 1991. Maloney later served as Islanders' general manager from August 17, 1992 to December 2, 1995. Among the players drafted by the Islanders during Maloney's tenure with the club were Todd Bertuzzi, Bryan McCabe, Ziggy Palffy, Tommy Salo and Darius Kasparaitis. Maloney then served as Eastern professional scout for the San Jose Sharks during the 1996-97 season prior to joining the Rangers' front office.

As a player, Maloney registered 214 goals, 350 assists, and 564 points as well as 815 penalty minutes in 765 regular-season games over 13 NHL campaigns with the Rangers, Hartford Whalers and Islanders. He also collected 22 goals, 35 assists, and 57 points in 94 career playoff games. Maloney spent 11 seasons with the Rangers after being selected by the club in the second round (26th overall) of the 1978 NHL Entry Draft. He helped lead the Rangers to the 1980 Stanley Cup Final by posting 20 points (7 goals, 13 assists) that postseason, a playoff record for rookies at the time. Maloney played in the NHL All-Star Game in 1983 and 1984. He was named MVP of the 1984 game.

Dave Tippett

Head Coach

Born: Moosomin, Sask., August 25, 1961.

Dave Tippett was named the 17th head coach in Coyotes/Jets history on September 24, 2009. In his first season with the team in 2009-10, he led the Coyotes to a club-record 50 wins and 107 points and the team's first playoff appearance since 2001-02. Tippett was rewarded with the Jack Adams Award as coach of the year. In 2011-12, the Coyotes won the first division title in franchise history and advanced to the second round of the playoffs for the first time since 1987.

Prior to Phoenix, Tippett spent seven seasons as the head coach of the Dallas Stars from 2002-03 to 2008-09. Under Tippett's leadership, the Stars won two Pacific Division titles (2002-03 and 2005-06), made the playoffs in five out of six years and reached the Western Conference Final in 2008. His 271 career regular-season coaching victories rank him second all-time in Stars history.

Tippett joined the Stars organization on May 16, 2002 after serving as an assistant coach with the Los Angeles Kings for three seasons. Prior to becoming a coach, Tippett played 11 years as a forward in the National Hockey League with the Hartford Whalers, Washington Capitals, Pittsburgh Penguins and Philadelphia Flyers. He ended his playing career in 1995 as a player-assistant coach with the Houston Aeros (IHL). Internationally, he captained the 1984 Canadian Olympic team in Sarajevo, Yugoslavia, and he earned a silver medal as a member of the Canadian Olympic team in Albertville, France, in 1992. He was a member of the 1982 NCAA Division I championship squad at the University of North Dakota with former Stars defenseman Craig Ludwig. Tippett became head coach of the Houston Aeros in 1995-96. In 1999, he led the team to the Turner Cup championship and was named the IHL coach of the year.

METROPOLITAN DIVISION
47th NHL Season

Franchise date: June 5, 1967

2012-13 Results: 36W-12L-0OTL-0SOL 72PTS
1ST, Atlantic Division • 1ST, Eastern Conference

Likely en route to a scoring title during a brilliant comeback in 2012-13, Sidney Crosby was sidelined for the final 12 games of the regular season when a fluky deflection saw a puck hit him in the face and break his jaw. He returned in time for the playoffs wearing a special plastic protector.

Ray Shero

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Born: St. Paul, MN, July 28, 1962.

The Pittsburgh Penguins signed Ray Shero to a five-year contract as their new general manager on May 25, 2006. His fresh ideas and calm but firm management style helped transform the Penguins organization in his first year on the job as the team made the playoffs in 2006-07 for the first time since 2000-01. In 2007-08 the team posted the second-best record in the Eastern Conference and advanced to the Stanley Cup Final. They won the Stanley Cup in 2009. Shero was named NHL General Manager of the Year in 2012-13. He will be an assistant general manager with Team USA at the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics.

Shero is the son of the late Fred Shero, who coached the Philadelphia Flyers for seven years and led them to back-to-back Stanley Cup championships in 1973-74 and 1974-75. Fred Shero also was g.m. and coach of the New York Rangers from 1978 to 1980. He was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2013. Ray Shero played college hockey at St. Lawrence University, serving twice as team captain, and was drafted by the Los Angeles Kings in 1982. He worked as a player agent for seven years before entering NHL management.

Before joining the Penguins, Shero had been assistant general manager of the Nashville Predators for eight seasons, working closely with Predators g.m. David Poile on all aspects of the club's hockey operations. His specific responsibilities included scouting at the amateur and professional levels, contract negotiations, and personnel matters such as arbitration, in addition to overseeing operations of the Predators top minor-league affiliate, the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League. Before joining the Predators organization, Shero spent six seasons as assistant general manager of the Ottawa Senators – joining the club in its second year of existence as an expansion team.

Both Ottawa and Nashville made significant improvement during Shero's tenure as assistant g.m., building with youth while adhering to a budget and business plan. The Predators went 49-25-8 and established a club record with 106 points in 2005-06, qualifying for the Stanley Cup playoffs for the second straight season. They had the third-best record in the Western Conference and fifth-best in the NHL.

Shero also played an important role in the success of the Milwaukee Admirals, Nashville's top affiliate in the American Hockey League. In 2003-04, the Admirals led the AHL in wins (43) and points (102) and won the Calder Cup by defeating the

Dan Bylsma

Head Coach

Born: Grand Haven, MI, September 19, 1970.

Dan Bylsma was named interim head coach of the Pittsburgh Penguins on February 15, 2009 and had the interim tag removed on April 28. He took over a Penguins team that was six points out of a playoff spot with 25 games to go and guided them to the Stanley Cup. Bylsma was the 14th rookie head coach, and just the fourth in 50 years, to win the Stanley Cup. Of these, only Montreal's Al MacNeil (1970-71) took over in midseason. In 2010-11 he won the Jack Adams Award as coach of the year for guiding an injury-riddled Penguins club to a 49 wins and 106 points. In 2014, Bylsma will serve as head coach for Team USA at the Sochi Winter Olympics.

Bylsma played nine NHL seasons as a right winger with Los Angeles and Anaheim from 1995 to 2004. A role player who excelled at killing penalties and blocking shots, he played 429 NHL regular-season games and also played in the 2003 Stanley Cup Final with Anaheim. He retired as a player following the 2003-04 season. The native of Grand Haven, Michigan began his coaching career as an assistant with the Cincinnati Mighty Ducks of the AHL in 2004-05. He made his NHL coaching debut as an assistant with the New York Islanders in 2005-06.

Bylsma joined the Penguins organization as an assistant to Todd Richards in Wilkes-Barre/Scranton in 2006-07. The Baby Penguins won the AHL East Division and Eastern Conference championships in 2007-08 and advanced to the Calder Cup Final. When Richards accepted the job as an assistant coach with the NHL's San Jose Sharks in the offseason, Bylsma was elevated to head coach at Wilkes-Barre/Scranton.

Bylsma was an outstanding athlete at West Michigan Christian High School, winning a state individual golf championship and starting in left field on a state championship baseball team. He played Junior B hockey for St. Mary's of the Ontario Hockey Association before playing four years of college hockey at Bowling Green. He was twice selected to the Central Collegiate Hockey Association (CCHA) All-Academic Team. Dan and his father, Jay, also have written four books about sports for kids and families, including "So Your Son Wants to Play in the NHL" and "So You Want to Play in the NHL." He operates Dan Bylsma's Western Michigan Hockey Camp and has established the Dan Bylsma Charitable Trust Fund, which provides a means to assist children with the high cost of participating in youth sports, especially hockey.

Ken Hitchcock

Head Coach

Born: Edmonton, Alta., December 17, 1951.

Ken Hitchcock was named the 24th head coach in St. Louis Blues history on November 6, 2011. The team was 6-7-0 at the time. Hitchcock led the Blues to a record of 43-15-11 the rest of the way and third place in the overall standings. He was rewarded with the Jack Adams Award as coach of the year.

In 14 full seasons behind the bench prior to his arrival in St. Louis, Hitchcock led his teams to nine Stanley Cup playoffs appearances and six division titles while recording at least 40 wins nine times and 100 points on eight occasions. He won the Stanley Cup with Dallas in 1999 when the team set club records with 51 wins and 114 points. He also won the Presidents' Trophy twice and was nominated for the Jack Adams Award three times. In Philadelphia from 2002 to 2006, he posted three straight 100-point seasons. While coaching Columbus, Hitchcock became the 13th coach in NHL history to record 500 wins on February 19, 2009.

Hitchcock began his professional coaching career as an assistant coach with the Philadelphia Flyers from 1990 to 1993 before spending two-plus seasons as the head coach of the Kalamazoo Wings/Michigan K-Wings, Dallas' International Hockey League affiliate. Prior to joining the professional ranks, Hitchcock was one of the winningest coaches in the history of the Western Hockey League with the Kamloops Blazers from 1984 to 1990. He was the league's coach of the year in 1986-87 and 1989-90 and was also named the Canadian Major Junior coach of the year in 1989-90 after leading Kamloops to the WHL championship.

Hitchcock has also represented Canada at numerous international competitions, including serving as an associate coach at the Winter Olympics in 2002 (gold), 2006, 2010 (gold), and will again in 2014. He also helped Team Canada win the World Cup of Hockey Tournament in 2004 as an associate coach and was an assistant on gold medal-winning squads at the 2002 World Championship and the 1987 World Junior Championships.

Doug Armstrong

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Born: Sarnia, Ont., September 24, 1964.

Doug Armstrong was named the Blues' executive vice president and general manager on July 1, 2010 after serving two seasons with the club as vice president of player personnel. In his second season on the job in 2011-12, Armstrong acquired goalie Brian Elliott to share the net with Jaroslav Halak and hired Ken Hitchcock as coach after a slow start. The result was the best defensive record in the NHL and 49 wins and 109 points for the second-best performance in franchise history. Armstrong was rewarded with a selection as the NHL G.M. of the Year.

Prior to being hired in St. Louis, Armstrong spent 17 years with the Dallas Stars organization and the last six seasons (from January 25, 2002, to 2008) as the club's general manager. He was a part of the Stars' organization since the club moved to Dallas in 1993 and helped lead the franchise to two Presidents' Trophies, two Western Conference titles and the 1999 Stanley Cup championship. Prior to being named the team's seventh general manager, Armstrong served nine years as the assistant general manager under Bob Gainey. As Gainey's assistant, Armstrong worked on contract negotiations and season scheduling, and handled the day-to-day operations of the hockey department.

On the international level, Armstrong was the associate director of player personnel for Team Canada at the 2010 Winter Olympics in Vancouver and will be involved with the management team again at Sochi in 2014. He also served as general manager for Team Canada and won the silver medal at the 2009 World Championship in Switzerland. He was the assistant general manager for Team Canada at the 2002 World Championship and 2008 World Championship (silver medal) and served as a special advisor to Steve Yzerman for the Canadian team that won gold at the 2007 World Championship. Armstrong is the son of former NHL linesman Neil Armstrong who was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1991.

Todd McLellan

Head Coach

Born: Melville, Sask., October 3, 1967.

The San Jose Sharks introduced Todd McLellan as their new head coach on June 12, 2008. In his first three seasons as an NHL head coach, McLellan posted a 152-63-31 record behind the San Jose Sharks bench, tying him with Mike Keenan for the most wins by any NHL head coach in their first three years. In his five years with the Sharks, the team has posted four 40-plus win seasons, three 100-point seasons, captured a Presidents' Trophy (2009), three Pacific Division titles and made back-to-back appearances in the Western Conference Final (2010, 2011). They have never failed to reach the playoffs.

During the 2010-11 campaign, McLellan's Sharks tied for the third-most wins in the NHL (48), were second in power play percentage (23.5%), led the NHL in shots per game (34.5) and were second in faceoff percentage (53.7%). In 2009-10, McLellan's team finished in the top-five among all NHL teams in goals per game (3.13), power play (21.0 percent), penalty killing (85.0), faceoff percentage (55.6) and even-strength goal differential (plus-32). He became just the third coach in NHL history to record 50-plus wins in his first two seasons. In his first season as an NHL head coach, he was named as a finalist for the Jack Adams Award and became just the sixth NHL coach (and first since 1990) to lead his team to the Presidents' Trophy for the best overall regular season record (53-18-11) in his first season.

Before joining San Jose, McLellan spent three seasons as an assistant coach under Mike Babcock with the Detroit Red Wings. During that span, no NHL team won more games (162) or earned more points (352) than Detroit. One of McLellan's key responsibilities was working with the Red Wings power play, which finished third in the NHL in 2007-08 (20.7) and first in 2005-06 (22.1). Prior to being hired in Detroit, McLellan spent four seasons as head coach of the Houston Aeros in the American Hockey League, capturing the Calder Cup championship and being named Minor League coach of the year by The Hockey News in 2003. In 2000-01, he was the head coach of the Cleveland Lumberjacks of the International Hockey League. From 1994-95 through 1999-00, McLellan coached the Swift Current Broncos of the Western Hockey League, where he also served as general manager in his final four seasons. He was named 2000 WHL coach of the year and 1997 WHL executive of the year. The team captured division titles in 1996 and 2000. In 18 years as a head and assistant coach, McLellan's teams have never missed the playoffs.

McLellan played his junior hockey with Saskatoon (WHL) and was drafted by the New York Islanders in the fifth round (106th overall) in the 1986 NHL Entry Draft. He played parts of two seasons with Springfield in the AHL and played in five games with the Islanders in 1987-88, posting two points (one goal, one assist) before a shoulder injury ended his career.

Doug Wilson

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Born: Ottawa, Ont., July 5, 1957.

In his nine seasons in charge of the Sharks hockey department, Doug Wilson has guided the team to its most successful era since the franchise's inception, capturing the Presidents' Trophy (2009) and five Pacific Division titles (2004, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011). Under Wilson, the Sharks advanced to the Western Conference Final in 2004, 2010 and 2011.

Wilson has overall authority regarding all hockey-related operations. He oversees player personnel decisions, contract negotiation, scouting, player evaluation and draft day preparation. In his previous role as the team's director of pro development (1997 to 2003), the 16-year NHL veteran's responsibilities included evaluating talent at all professional and minor league levels and continuous assessment of the Sharks roster and reserve list. Working closely with the entire hockey department, Wilson has played a major role in creating a positive atmosphere in the Sharks dressing room.

Wilson draws on a vast amount of hockey knowledge. He was an integral member of the NHL Players' Association for four years (1993 to 1997) and is a past president of the NHLPA and served a consultant to Team Canada, winners of four consecutive World Junior gold medals in the 1990s. His brother Murray was a member of four Stanley Cup championship teams with Montreal in the 1970s. With the Ottawa 67s in junior, Wilson played for Hall of Famer Hec Kilrea, junior hockey's winningest coach.

In 2004, Wilson was named to the NHL's Game Committee, a panel of players, coaches, executives and media responsible for examining all aspects of the game. This committee included Hall of Fame Coach Scotty Bowman, Pittsburgh's Mario Lemieux and St. Louis Blues President of Hockey Operations John Davidson, among others.

A first-round draft choice (sixth overall) by the Blackhawks in 1977 after a stellar junior career, Wilson played 14 seasons in Chicago and still ranks as that club's highest scoring defenseman with 225 goals and 554 assists for 779 points. He led all Blackhawks defensemen in scoring for 10 consecutive seasons (1980-81 through 1990-91) and captured the 1982 James Norris Memorial Trophy, as the League's top defenseman, when he tallied 39 goals and 85 points — still Blackhawks single-season records for goals and points for a defenseman.

Acquired by San Jose from Chicago just before the Sharks inaugural season (1991-92), Wilson brought instant credibility and respect to the young franchise. He played two seasons for the Sharks, serving as the franchise's first team captain (1991 to 1993). He played his 1,000th NHL game on Nov. 21, 1992 and was named San Jose's nominee (1992 and 1993) for the King Clancy Award for leadership and humanitarian contributions both on-and off-the-ice.

Wilson announced his retirement as a member of the Sharks during training camp in 1993-94 after playing 1,024 regular-season and 95 playoff games. He was selected to play in a total of seven NHL All-Star Games (six with Chicago and one with San Jose) and earned one First and two Second Team All-Star selections.

Jon Cooper

Head Coach

Born: Prince George, B.C., August 23, 1967.

The Tampa Bay Lightning named Jon Cooper as the eighth head coach in franchise history on March 25, 2013. Cooper joined the Lightning after having spent the previous three seasons behind the bench of Tampa Bay's top minor league affiliate, the Norfolk Admirals, from 2010 to 2012 and the Syracuse Crunch in 2012-13. He compiled a 133-62-26 regular-season record (.661) in 221 games in the American Hockey League.

Cooper was awarded the Louis A.R. Pieri Memorial Award as the AHL's top coach in 2011-12 after guiding the Admirals to a franchise-record 55 wins and 113 points en route to the team's first Calder Cup Championship. Along the way, Cooper and his team set a North American professional hockey record, winning a remarkable 28 consecutive games. Norfolk also earned the Macgregor Kilpatrick Trophy as the AHL's regular-season points champion, while capturing the league's East Division title. Cooper led Norfolk to a 94-44-18 record in the regular season and a 17-7 mark in the playoffs during two seasons behind the bench. In 2012-13, he led the Syracuse Crunch to a 39-18-8 record, the best in the AHL at the time, despite a number of key players being recalled to the Lightning before he himself was summoned to Tampa Bay.

Before joining the AHL ranks, Cooper also found success in the United States Hockey League with the Green Bay Gamblers, posting an 84-27-9 record in two seasons. Under Cooper's guidance the Gamblers posted back-to-back seasons with the best record in the USHL and won the 2010 Clark Cup. In his first season in 2008-09, Green Bay saw a 50-point improvement from the previous year, setting a USHL record for largest single-season improvement. He was rewarded with the 2009 and 2010 USHL General Manager of the Year Awards, as well as being named the 2010 USHL Coach of the Year.

Cooper played high school hockey at Notre Dame in Wilcox, Saskatchewan. He then moved on to Hofstra University in the NCAA, where he played four seasons of Division I lacrosse and spent one season on Hofstra's hockey team. He then went on to earn a law degree from Thomas M. Cooley Law School in Lansing, Michigan, eventually closing his practice in 2003 to pursue a career in coaching.

* Hired by Tampa Bay on March 25, 2013 but did not appear behind the bench until March 29. Assistant coaches Dan Lacroix, Martin Raymond, and Steve Thomas worked a 3-2 loss at Winnipeg on March 24. Lacroix and Thomas worked a 2-1 win vs. Buffalo on March 26.

Selected 208th overall among the 211 players drafted in 2011, Ondrej Palat reached the NHL in 2012-13 when he made his debut for Tampa Bay on March 4, 2013.

Steve Yzerman

Vice President and General Manager

Born: Cranbrook, B.C., May 9, 1965.

Steve Yzerman – the iconic Detroit Red Wing player and executive – was named the sixth general manager in Lightning history on May 25, 2010. In his first season wih the club in 2010-11 Yzerman was a finalist for the G.M of the Year award as Tampa Bay returned to the playoffs for the first time since 2006-07 and reached the Eastern Conference Final after tying a club record with 46 wins during the regular season.

Before joining the Lightning Yzerman spent four seasons as vice president with the Red Wings, working closely with general manager Ken Holland, senior vice president Jim Devellano and assistant general manager Jim Nill on evaluating talent at both the professional and amateur levels. He also contributed valuable input on trades, free agent signings and at the Entry Draft each summer. Yzerman served as general manager for Canada at the 2007 and 2008 World Championships, bringing home gold and silver respectively. He then led Canada to an Olympic gold medal victory on home ice in Vancouver at the 2010 Winter Olympics as executive director, and will serve in that role again for the 2014 Sochi Olympics. Yzerman also won an Olympic gold medal as a player with Canada in 2002.

Yzerman is a four-time Stanley Cup champion, winning three as a player (1997, 1998 and 2002) and another as a member of Detroit's management team (2008). Overall he spent 27 seasons with the franchise. He was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2009, his first year of eligibility. Recognized as one of the best centers in NHL history, Yzerman retired on July 3, 2006 after a remarkable 22-year NHL career with the Red Wings. He ranks among the NHL's all-time leaders with 1,514 career games, 692 goals, 1,063 assists and 1,755 career points. Even more impressive than his career statistics may be his 20-year run as captain in Detroit, the longest tenure in NHL and major sports history. Yzerman was named captain of the Red Wings prior to the 1986-87 season, making him the youngest captain in franchise history at 21-years-old.

During his illustrious career Yzerman was selected to the NHL All-Star Game on 9 occasions. He also won the Bill Masterton Trophy (perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey) in 2003, the Frank J. Selke Trophy (best defensive forward) in 2000, the Conn Smythe Trophy (playoff MVP) in 1998, the Lester B. Pearson Trophy (the NHLPA's top player) in 1989 and was also selected to the NHL All-Rookie Team in 1984.

Randy Carlyle

Head Coach

Born: Sudbury, Ont., April 19, 1956.

Randy Carlyle was hired as the head coach of the Toronto Maple Leafs on March 2, 2012. The move brought Carlyle back to where he had begun his NHL career as a player in 1976-77. In his first full season behind the bench in Toronto in 2012-13, Carlyle led the Maple Leafs into the playoffs for the first time since 2004.

Carlyle's first NHL coaching job was in Anaheim, where he was hired on August 1, 2005. In his first season behind the bench in 2005-06, he led the Ducks to the Western Conference Final. He led Anaheim to its first Stanley Cup championship in 2007. Prior to joining the Ducks, Carlyle had served as the head coach of the Manitoba Moose, the Vancouver Canucks' primary development team. In all, Carlyle spent six seasons between 1996 and 2005 as head coach in Manitoba (both in the International and American Hockey Leagues) with his team posting an overall record of 222-159-52-7. He had the additional duties of general manager of the Moose from 1996 to 2000, and served as club president for the 2001-02 season. Carlyle helped the Moose to a 47-21-14 record for 108 points in 1998-99, for which he was named the IHL's general manager of the year.

Following the 2001-02 season, Carlyle joined the coaching staff of the Washington Capitals. He served as an assistant coach with Washington for two seasons (2002 to 2004), before rejoining Manitoba in 2004–05.

Carlyle played 17 seasons in the NHL with Toronto, Pittsburgh and Winnipeg. He appeared in 1,055 games and had 148 goals and 499 assists for 647 points. Known as a fiery, tough-nosed defenseman, he was selected to play in four NHL All-Star Games, winning the Norris Trophy as the league's top defenseman in 1981. At the conclusion of his playing career in 1993, Carlyle remained with the Winnipeg organization's hockey operations staff, eventually becoming an assistant coach for the 1995-96 season.

Dave Nonis

Senior Vice President and General Manager

Born: Burnaby, B.C., May 25, 1966.

David Nonis was named senior vice president and general manager of the Toronto Maple Leafs on January 9, 2013. He originally joined the Maple Leafs organization as the senior vice president of hockey operations on December 6, 2008. Nonis also serves as the general manager of the Toronto Marlies, the American Hockey League affiliate of the Maple Leafs.

Prior to joining the Maple Leafs, Nonis had been named the Anaheim Ducks' senior advisor of hockey operations on June 20, 2008. Previously, he was the senior vice president and general manager of the Vancouver Canucks from 2004 to 2008, during which time his team compiled a record of 130-91-25. Nonis originally joined the Canucks in 1990 and spent four years with the team before moving on to a four-year term as the NHL's manager of hockey operations. He returned to Vancouver in 1998 as senior vice president, director of hockey operations. Since coming to Toronto, Nonis has also worked in a management capacity for Canada in international hockey, serving as general manager of Team Canada for the World Championship in 2011 and assistant general manager in 2012.

A native of Burnaby, British Columbia, Nonis played hockey for the University of Maine where he served as captain for two seasons, leading his team to back-to-back NCAA championship tournaments and graduating with a B.A. in 1988. He played one season professionally in Denmark before returning to Maine in 1989 to serve on the coaching staff of his alma mater. He earned his M.B.A. from Maine in 1990.

John Tortorella

Head Coach

Born: Boston, MA, June 24, 1958.

Vancouver Canucks president and general manager Mike Gillis announced on June 25, 2013 that John Tortorella had been named head coach of the Vancouver Canucks. He is the 17th head coach in club history.

Tortorella is a Boston, Massachusetts native who arrived in Vancouver with 13 years of NHL head coaching experience between the New York Rangers and Tampa Bay Lightning. He led the Lightning to the Stanley Cup in 2003-04 and was recognized with the Jack Adams Award as NHL coach of the year that season. Tortorella is currently the NHL's all-time win leader among American-born coaches and ranks fifth among active coaches for most games coached entering the 2013-14 season. In addition to his NHL head coaching experience, Tortorella has also acted as an assistant coach with the New York Rangers (1999-00), Phoenix Coyotes (1997 to 1999) and the Buffalo Sabres (1989 to 1995). He had success at the AHL and ACHL level, winning the league championships with the Rochester Americans (AHL) in the 1995-96 season and the Virginia Lancers (ACHL) in the 1986-87 campaign.

On the international stage, Tortorella served as an assistant coach for the silver medal-winning Team USA at the 2010 Winter Olympic Games in Vancouver. He also served as Team USA's head coach at the 2008 World Championship and assistant coach at the 2005 World Championship.

Prior to taking the helm behind the bench, Tortorella played right wing as a member of Salem State College and the University of Maine. He continued his playing career in Sweden before returning to North America where he joined the Hampton Road Gulls, Erie Golden Blades and Virginia Lancers of the ACHL.

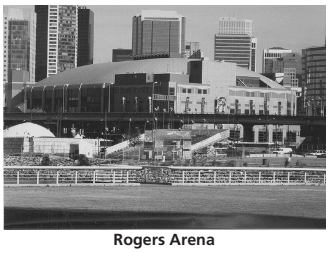
Mike Gillis



President and General Manager

Born: Sudbury, Ont., December 1, 1958.

The Vancouver Canucks announced on April 23, 2008, that Mike Gillis had been named the tenth general manager in club history. Gillis joined the Canucks organization after spending the previous 16 years as a player representative. In his first two seasons with the club, the Canucks won the Northwest Division title. In his third season of 2010-11, Gillis won the NHL's G.M of the Year Award after Vancouver set new club records with 54 wins and 117 points. The team won the Presidents' Trophy for the first time and reached the seventh game of the Stanley Cup Final. The Canucks won the Presidents' Trophy again in 2011-12.

Gillis began his NHL career in 1978 as a member of the Colorado Rockies. In 246 NHL regular season games, Gillis recorded 76 points (33 goals, 43 assists) and 186 penalty minutes with Colorado and Boston before a leg injury forced him to retire in 1985. He then returned to Kingston, Ontario, where he had grown up, to obtain his law degree from Queen's University in 1990. Gillis began his career as a NHL player representative in 1992 and became one of the most successful in his industry. His ability to evaluate players, negotiate contracts and his extensive knowledge of the Collective Bargaining Agreement, provided him the opportunity to work with a number of the NHL's most elite players.

Adam Oates

Head Coach

Born: Weston, Ont., August 27, 1962.

The Washington Capitals named Adam Oates the team's head coach on June 26, 2012 and he guided the team to a division title in 2012-13. Oates became the 16th head coach in Washington Capitals history with his first head coaching job after three seasons as an assistant coach. Oates was an assistant coach for the Tampa Bay Lightning during the 2009-10 season before moving to New Jersey in 2010-11. He was behind the bench as an assistant for the Devils during the team's 2012 run to the Stanley Cup final.

Elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2012, Oates played 19 seasons in the NHL from 1985 to 2004. He appeared in 1,337 games and collected 1,420 points (341 goals, 1,079 assists) with Detroit, St. Louis, Boston, Washington, Philadelphia, Anaheim and Edmonton. Only Wayne Gretzky, Bobby Orr and Mario Lemieux averaged more assists per game than Oates in NHL history. During the 1990s only Gretzky (662) recorded more assists than Oates (636). The Weston, Ontario, native ranks sixth all-time in assists and 16th all-time in points in NHL history. The former center led or was tied for the league lead in assists three times in his career (1992-93, 2000-01 and 2001-02) and ranked in the top-10 in assists in 12 of his 19 seasons. Oates was named an NHL All-Star five times (1991 to 1994 and 1997) and was a six-time Lady Bing finalist during his career (runner-up in four straight seasons).

Oates was originally signed as an undrafted free agent by the Detroit Red Wings on June 28, 1985, after spending four seasons with RPI of the NCAA. He played in 387 games for the Capitals from 1996 to 2002, compiling 363 points (73 goals, 290 assists) to rank 18th in scoring and 10th in assists among all players in the Capitals history. Wearing number 77 for the Capitals, Oates was an alternate captain during the 1997-98 season when the team advanced to the Stanley Cup final. He served as the team's captain from 1999 to 2001.

George McPhee

Vice President and General Manager

Born: Wallaceburg, Ont., July 2, 1958.

On June 9, 1997, George McPhee became the fifth general manager of the Washington Capitals. In his first year on the job, McPhee led the Caps to the Stanley Cup Final for the first time in franchise history. He has since rebuilt the Capitals with younger players and used the first overall choice at the 2004 NHL Entry Draft to select Alex Ovechkin. The Capitals finished first in the Southeast Division from 2007-08 to 2010-11 and also in 2012-13. They shattered club records with 54 wins and 121 points in 2009-10 and won the Presidents' Trophy for the first time in franchise history.

Prior to joining the Capitals, McPhee spent five years in the front office of the Vancouver Canucks where he served as vice president of hockey operations and alternate governor. He has earned degrees in both law and business and, while attending law school at Rutgers University, interned at the United States Court of International Trade in 1991.

A back injury forced McPhee to retire as an active player at the conclusion of the 1988-89 season, after a seven year playing career with the New York Rangers and New Jersey Devils. McPhee originally signed as a free agent with the Rangers in July, 1982, after graduating from Bowling Green State University with a business degree. McPhee did not waste any time in college, tallying 40 goals and 48 assists in his freshman season and easily winning CCHA rookie of the year honors. His outstanding collegiate hockey career was capped off when he was named the recipient of the Hobey Baker Award as the top U.S. collegiate player in his senior season. McPhee also earned All-America honors as a senior and finished his career at Bowling Green as the CCHA's all-time leading scorer with 114-153-267. He was the first player in CCHA history to make the Conference's all-academic team three straight seasons.

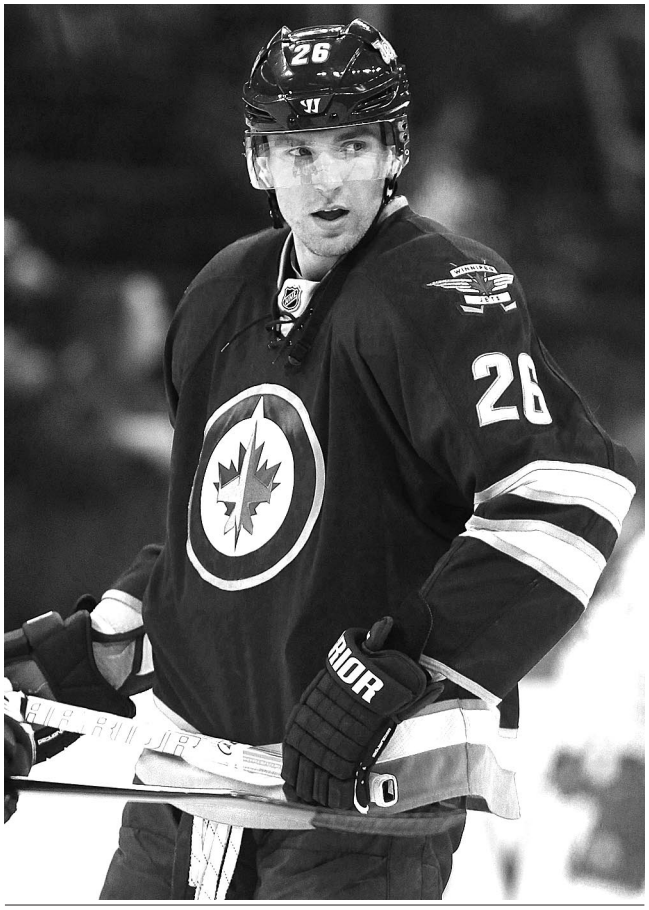
Claude Noel

Head Coach

Born: Kirkland Lake, Ont., October 31, 1955.

Claude Noel was hired on June 24, 2011, as the first head coach of the Winnipeg Jets and the sixth head coach in the history of the franchise dating back to the inception of the Atlanta Thrashers in 1999. Noel was the former coach of the American Hockey League's Manitoba Moose, where he spent the 2010-11 season. Previously, Noel had spent three seasons with the Columbus Blue Jackets from 2007 to 2010. He began the 2009-10 season as an assistant coach before taking over from Ken Hitchcock as interim head coach on February 3, 2010.



Before his time with the Blue Jackets, Noel spent four seasons as head coach of the Milwaukee Admirals, the AHL affiliate of the Nashville Predators. During that time he recorded three 100-point seasons, won two West Division titles and made two appearances in the Calder Cup Finals. During the 2003-04 season, the club compiled a 46-24-10 record and went 16-6 in the playoffs en route to capturing the organization's first Calder Cup championship. Noel was subsequently named the coach of the year when he was honored with the Louis A.R. Pieri Memorial Award.

Noel made his coaching debut in the ECHL with the Roanoke Valley Rebels in 1990-91 and served as head coach and director of hockey operations for the ECHL's Dayton Bombers from 1991 to 1993. In 1993 he joined the Kalamazoo Wings (later the Michigan K-Wings), the International Hockey League affiliate of the Dallas Stars, as an assistant coach. He succeeded then coach Ken Hitchcock behind the bench during the 1995-96 season and served in that capacity through the 1997-98 campaign. From 1998 to 2002 he was an assistant coach with the Milwaukee Admirals and in 2002-03 was named ECHL coach of the year with the Toledo Storm before returning to Milwaukee as head coach prior to the 2003-04 season.

As a player, Noel appeared in seven games with the Washington Capitals during the 1979-80 season. He spent most of his playing career in the AHL and IHL and was named the IHL's Most Valuable Player in 1982-83 after leading the Toledo Goaldiggers to the Turner Cup championship. He also won a Calder Cup as a member of the Hershey Bears in 1979-80. Noel wrapped up his playing career with Milwaukee in 1987-88. Noel was born in Kirkland Lake, Ontario and was raised in Virginiatown and North Bay, Ontario. He moved away from home at age 20 to play junior hockey for the Kitchener Rangers.

Kevin Cheveldayoff

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Born: Blaine Lake, Sask., February 4, 1970.

Kevin Cheveldayoff was given his first assignment as general manager of an NHL hockey club when he was named to the position by the Winnipeg Jets on June 8, 2011. Prior to joining the Jets, he had spent two seasons with the Chicago Blackhawks and served as the club's assistant general manager/senior director, hockey operations in 2010-11. During Cheveldayoff's tenure, the Blackhawks won the 2010 Stanley Cup championship, the team's first since 1961.

Before joining the Blackhawks on August 3, 2009, Cheveldayoff spent the previous 12 seasons as the general manager of the Chicago Wolves, guiding the franchise to four league championships, which included the 2002 and 2008 Calder Cup titles in the American Hockey League and the 1998 and 2000 International Hockey League's Turner Cup. Overall, Cheveldayoff was a part of seven league championships during his 15-year management career before being hired in Winnipeg, including two Turner Cup titles in three seasons as the assistant vice president of hockey operations and assistant coach for the Denver and Utah Grizzlies (1994 to 1997).

Cheveldayoff was the architect of 12 Wolves teams that compiled a .615 regular-season winning percentage (544-320-114) and 10 postseason berths from 1997 to 2009. Eight of those clubs reached the 100-point mark during the regular season while earning four division titles and six postseason conference championships.

Cheveldayoff was originally drafted by the New York Islanders with their first pick (16th overall) in the 1988 NHL Entry Draft. He began his career in the AHL with the Capital District Islanders, serving as the alternate captain from 1991 to 1993. He held the same role with the Salt Lake Golden Eagles in 1993-94, earning the team's "Unsung Hero Award" after racking up a career-high 216 penalty minutes in 73 games. Known as a defensive defenseman during his playing days, a knee injury cut his professional career short after five seasons.

Though his stay in Pittsburgh proved brief, Jarome Iginla arrived in a trade from Calgary in time to help the Penguins notch their 15th consecutive win on March 30, 2013. The streak is tied for the second longest in NHL history behind Pittsburgh's 17-gamer in 1992-93.

NHL Individual Scoring Records – History

Six individual scoring records stand as benchmarks in the history of the game: most goals, single-season and career; most assists, single-season and career; and most points, single-season and career. The evolution of these six records is traced here, beginning with 1917-18, the NHL's first season. New research has resulted in changes to scoring records in the NHL's first nine seasons.

Though pictured in the uniform of the Montreal Canadiens, Joe Malone was with the Quebec Bulldogs when he scored seven goals in a single game on January 31, 1920. Malone's mark is the oldest in the NHL record book.

Wayne Gretzky slips the puck past Buffalo's Don Edwards with just under seven minutes remaining in the third period on February 24, 1982. It was Gretzky's record-breaking 77th goal of the season, scored in his 64th game. Gretzky added two more later in the match and pushed his total to 92 by season's end. This single-season goal-scoring record still stands.

Mike Bossy (left) of the New York Islanders became the first rookie in NHL history to score 50 goals when he netted 53 back in 1977-78. Teemu Selanne (right) celebrates his record-breaking 54th with the Winnipeg Jets in 1992-93 en route to setting new rookie records with 76 goals and 132 points. Selanne's marks seem destined to stand the test of time, as does Bossy's record of nine-straight 50-goal seasons.

Steve Sullivan missed a full season and parts of two others between February of 2007 and the early stages of 2008-09 recovering from a serious back injury. He had played 723 games at that time and set a goal of making it to 1,000 when he came back. He reached that plateau on March 28, 2013.

Paul MacLean (left) won the Jack Adams Award as coach of the year in 2012-13. A finalist the year before, MacLean guided Ottawa to a playoff berth despite numerous injuries. Joel Quenneville (center) led Chicago to the best regular-season record in the NHL and a Stanley Cup championship. Bruce Boudreau (right) led Anaheim back into the playoffs in his first full season with the club.

Bernie Nicholls had the greatest scoring season of any player not in the Hockey Hall of Fame when he collected 70 goals and 80 assists for 150 points in 79 games with the Los Angeles Kings in 1988-89. His points-per-game average for the season was 1.90.

The dueling debut of rookies Alex Ovechkin and Sidney Crosby was one of the big stories of the 2005-06 season. Crosby became the youngest player in NHL history to reach 100 points that year while Ovechkin became just the third player to top 50 goals and 100 points in his rookie campaign.

Individual Awards

Hart Memorial Trophy

Art Ross Trophy

Calder Memorial Trophy

James Norris Memorial Trophy

HART MEMORIAL TROPHY

An annual award "to the player adjudged to be the most valuable to his team." Winner selected in a poll by the Professional Hockey Writers' Association in the 30 NHL cities at the end of the regular schedule.

History: The Hart Memorial Trophy was presented by the National Hockey League in 1960 after the original Hart Trophy was retired to the Hockey Hall of Fame. The original Hart Trophy was donated to the NHL in 1924 by Dr. David A. Hart, father of Cecil Hart, former manager-coach of the Montreal Canadiens.

2012-13 Winner: Alex Ovechkin, Washington Capitals
Runners-up: Sidney Crosby, Pittsburgh Penguins
John Tavares, New York Islanders

Right winger Alex Ovechkin of the Washington Capitals is the winner of the Hart Memorial Trophy for the third time in the past six seasons. He previously won the award in 2007-08 and 2008-09. Ovechkin edged Pittsburgh Penguins center Sidney Crosby 1,090 points to 1,058 - just a 32-points spread from a record-setting 179 ballots cast - in the closest Hart Trophy race since Montreal's Jose Theodore and Calgary's Jarome Iginla finished in a virtual tie in 2002. (Theodore took the award that year because he received more first-place votes.) Ovechkin received 50 first-place votes to Crosby's 46, while John Tavares of the New York Islanders received 38 first-place votes and 38 seconds for a total of 919 points to edge out Jonathan Toews of the Chicago Blackhawks who had 39 first-place votes and 886 points. Sergei Bobrovsky of the Columbus Blue Jackets had four first-place votes to finish fifth in balloting with 311 points. Patrick Kane of Chicago received two first-place votes and 157 points. Ryan Getzlaf of Anaheim (96 points), Steven Stamkos (28) and Martin St. Louis (20) of Tampa Bay and Pavel Datsyuk of Detroit (18) rounded out the top 10.

Ovechkin led the NHL with 32 goals in 48 games, including 23 in his final 23 contests. He also finished tied for third in the league in points (56), first in power-play goals (16), first in power-play points (27) and first in shots on goal (220), leading the Capitals to an 11-1-1 record in April and their fifth Southeast Division title in the last six years. Ovechkin became just the ninth player in NHL history to score 30 or more goals in each of his first eight seasons.

ART ROSS TROPHY

An annual award "to the player who leads the league in scoring points at the end of the regular season."

History: Arthur Howey Ross, former manager-coach of the Boston Bruins, presented the trophy to the National Hockey League in 1947. If two players finish the schedule with the same number of points, the trophy is awarded in the following manner: 1. Player with most goals. 2. Player with fewer games played. 3. Player scoring first goal of the season.

2012-13 Winner: Martin St. Louis, Tampa Bay Lightning
Runners-up: Steven Stamkos, Tampa Bay Lightning
Alex Ovechkin, Washington Capitals

Martin St. Louis of the Tampa Bay Lightning won the Art Ross Trophy for the second time in his career. St. Louis, who won the award previously in 2003-04, finished the 2012-13 season with 17 goals and an NHL-leading 43 assists for 60 points. He edged out teammate Steven Stamkos, who had 29 goals and 28 assists for 57 points. Washington's Alex Ovechkin was third in the scoring race with 56 points (32 goals, 24 assists). Pittsburgh's Sidney Crosby also had 56 points (15 goals, 41 assists) despite playing just 36 games. St. Louis registered points in 36 of the 48 games he played in and never went consecutive games without registering at least one point. He averaged 1.25 points per game, becoming one of only three players in NHL history to achieve that mark at age 37 or older (Mario Lemieux, 2002-03; Gordie Howe, 1968-69). St. Louis (37 years, 10 months) is the oldest scoring champion in NHL history, a distinction that had been held by Bill Cook of the New York Rangers who led the league in 1932-33 when he was 36. St. Louis' nine-year gap between Art Ross titles is the longest between wins by any player since the award was first presented in 1947-48.

CALDER MEMORIAL TROPHY

An annual award "to the player selected as the most proficient in his first year of competition in the National Hockey League." Winner selected in a poll by the Professional Hockey Writers' Association at the end of the regular schedule.

History: From 1936-37 until his death in 1943, Frank Calder, NHL President, bought a trophy each year to be given permanently to the outstanding rookie. After Calder's death, the NHL presented the Calder Memorial Trophy in his memory and the trophy is to be kept in perpetuity. To be eligible for the award, a player cannot have played more than 25 games in any single preceding season nor in six or more games in each of any two preceding seasons in any major professional league. Beginning in 1990-91, to be eligible for this award a player must not have attained his twenty-sixth birthday by September 15th of the season in which he is eligible.

2012-13 Winner: Jonathan Huberdeau, Florida Panthers
Runners-up: Brendan Gallagher, Montreal Canadiens
Brandon Saad, Chicago Blackhawks

Center Jonathan Huberdeau of the Florida Panthers won the Calder Memorial Trophy. Huberdeau received 54 first-place votes and 55 seconds among the 179 ballots cast and collected 1,141 points. He edged Montreal Canadiens left winger Brendan Gallagher, who also received 54 first-place ballots and polled 1,048 points. Huberdeau, who was selected third overall in the 2011 NHL Entry Draft behind 2012 Calder winner Gabriel Landeskog (second overall) and runner-up Ryan Nugent-Hopkins (first), becomes the first member of the Florida Panthers to be named the NHL's rookie of the year. Chicago's Brandon Saad received 30 first-place votes and was third in the balloting with 730 points. Minnesota's Jonas Brodin had 24 first-place votes and 621 points, followed by Edmonton's Nail Yakupov (11 and 521), Cory Conacher of Ottawa (four and 232) and Justin Schultz of Edmonton (two and 115).

Huberdeau played in all 48 games for Florida and ranked second on the team and tied for first among NHL rookies with 31 points (14 goals, 17 assists). Among first-year players, he finished third in goals, tied for fourth in assists and third in shots on goal (112). His 16:55 average time on ice led all rookie forwards. Huberdeau set two franchise records, becoming the first Panther to score on two penalty shots in one season and recording the most points by a teenager in team history (four more than Radek Dvorak in 1995-96).

JAMES NORRIS MEMORIAL TROPHY

An annual award "to the defense player who demonstrates throughout the season the greatest all-round ability in the position." Winner selected in a poll by the Professional Hockey Writers' Association at the end of the regular schedule.

History: The James Norris Memorial Trophy was presented in 1953 by the four children of the late James Norris in memory of the former owner-president of the Detroit Red Wings.

2012-13 Winner: P.K. Subban, Montreal Canadiens
Runners-up: Ryan Suter, Minnesota Wild
Kris Letang, Pittsburgh Penguins

P.K. Subban of the Montreal Canadiens won the James Norris Memorial Trophy for the first time in his first year as a finalist. It was the third year in a row that voting was tight for the NHL's best defenseman as Subban captured 66 first-place votes and 1,266 points to edge out Minnesota's Ryan Suter who received 65 first-place votes and 1,230 points. Kris Letang of Pittsburgh was named first on 31 ballots and collected 914 points. Boston's Zdeno Chara received 10 first-place votes but his 289 points ranked him fifth behind Anaheim's Francois Beauchemin who received just one first-place votes but 290 points in total. Chicago's Duncan Keith (one), Phoenix's Oliver Ekman-Larsson (three) and Montreal's Andrei Markov (one) also received first-place votes.

Subban tied for the lead among NHL defensemen in scoring, recording 38 points (11 goals, 27 assists) in 42 games as the Canadiens won the Northeast Division crown and posted the league's fourth-best record. The 24-year-old Toronto native also led defensemen in power-play scoring with 26 points (seven goals, 19 assists), helping Montreal post the league's fifth-best success rate with the man advantage (20.7%). Subban ranked second on the Canadiens in points, plus-minus (+12) and average ice time per game (23:14).

Vezina Trophy

Lady Byng Memorial Trophy

Frank J. Selke Trophy

Conn Smythe Trophy

VEZINA TROPHY

An annual award "to the goalkeeper adjudged to be the best at his position" as voted by the general managers of each of the 30 clubs.

History: Leo Dandurand, Louis Letourneau and Joe Cattarinich, former owners of the Montreal Canadiens, presented the trophy to the National Hockey League in 1926-27 in memory of Georges Vezina, outstanding goalkeeper of the Canadiens who collapsed during an NHL game on November 28, 1925, and died of tuberculosis a few months later. Before the 1981-82 season, the goalkeeper(s) of the team allowing the fewest number of goals during the regular season were awarded the Vezina Trophy.

2012-13 Winner: Sergei Bobrovsky, Columbus Blue Jackets
Runners-up: Henrik Lundqvist, New York Rangers
Antti Niemi, San Jose Sharks

Sergei Bobrovsky of the Columbus Blue Jackets captured the Vezina Trophy for the first time in his first year as a finalist. Bobrovsky was named on 26 of 30 ballots, capturing 17 first-place votes and 110 points. Henrik Lundqvist of the New York Rangers, who won the award in 2011-12, was named on 19 ballots, including three first-place votes, for 55 points. Antti Niemi of San Jose received six first-place votes and 46 points to finish third. Ottawa's Craig Anderson received three first-place votes and 22 points. Chicago's Ray Emery received the final first-place vote but finished seventh in balloting with six points behind Boston's Tuukka Rask (12 points) and Detroit's Jimmy Howard (nine points.) Jonas Hiller of Anaheim (three points), Minnesota's Nicklas Backstrom (one point) and Montreal's Carey Price (one point) rounded out the balloting.

Bobrovsky (21-11-6) backstopped Columbus' late-season surge that kept the club in contention for a playoff berth until the final moments of the season. He won eight of his last nine decisions from April 9 to 27, posting a 1.64 goals-against average and .945 save percentage in that span. For the entire season, Bobrovsky ranked second among NHL goaltenders in save percentage (.932) and tied for fifth in goals-against average (2.00).

LADY BYNG MEMORIAL TROPHY

An annual award "to the player adjudged to have exhibited the best type of sportsmanship and gentlemanly conduct combined with a high standard of playing ability." Winner selected in a poll by the Professional Hockey Writers' Association at the end of the regular schedule.

History: Lady Byng, wife of Canada's Governor-General at the time, presented the Lady Byng Trophy in the 1924-25 season. After Frank Boucher of the New York Rangers won the award seven times in eight seasons, he was given the trophy to keep and Lady Byng donated another trophy in 1936. After Lady Byng's death in 1949, the National Hockey League presented a new trophy, changing the name to Lady Byng Memorial Trophy.

2012-13 Winner: Martin St. Louis, Tampa Bay Lightning
Runners-up: Patrick Kane, Chicago Blackhawks
Matt Moulson, New York Islanders

Martin St. Louis of the Tampa Bay Lightning was the winner of the Lady Byng Memorial Trophy. The right winger has captured the award three times in the past four seasons, winning it previously in 2009-10 and 2010-11. He has been a finalist on four other occasions. St. Louis received 47 first-place votes and was named on 119 ballots among the 179 cast for a total of 824 points, winning a close three-way race. Chicago's Patrick Kane was second with 44 first-place votes and 785 points, while the New York Islanders' Matt Moulson finished in third for the second straight season with 35 first-place votes and 750 points. Four-time winner Pavel Datsyuk of Detroit finished fourth with 13 first-place votes and 536 points. San Jose's Logan Couture was fifth in voting (eight and 354).

The 37-year-old St. Louis became the oldest player in NHL history to lead the league in scoring in 2012-13, winning the Art Ross Trophy for the second time. He led the league with 43 assists and 60 points in 48 games and ranked second among all forwards in overall ice time (1,055:12) but was assessed just 14 penalty minutes.

FRANK J. SELKE TROPHY

An annual award "to the forward who best excels in the defensive aspects of the game." Winner selected in a poll by the Professional Hockey Writers' Association at the end of the regular schedule.

History: Presented to the National Hockey League in 1977 by the Board of Governors of the NHL in honor of Frank J. Selke, one of the great architects of Montreal and Toronto championship teams.

2012-13 Winner: Jonathan Toews, Chicago Blackhawks
Runners-up: Patrice Bergeron, Boston Bruins
Pavel Datsyuk, Detroit Red Wings

Center Jonathan Toews of the Chicago Blackhawks captured the Frank Selke Trophy for the first time, edging out 2011-12 recipient Patrice Bergeron of the Boston Bruins. Toews received 75 first-place votes among the 179 ballots cast and polled 1,260 points to finish just ahead of Bergeron who received 1,250 points, including 78 first-place votes. Detroit's Pavel Datsyuk was third in voting for the third year in a row after winning the trophy for three straight seasons. He finished with eight first-place votes and 737 points. Datsyuk has been a finalist for the award a record six times.

Toews played a leading role in helping the runaway Presidents' Trophy winners rank first overall in team defense (2.02 goals-against per game). He finished third in the NHL in plus-minus with a career-high +28 rating, including a league-leading +21 on the road; shared the overall lead in takeaways with Datsyuk (56); placed second in the NHL in face-off winning percentage (59.9%, 374 of 559); and played an average of 1:25 per game on the NHL's third-ranked penalty-killing unit (87.2%).

WILLIAM M. JENNINGS TROPHY

An annual award "to the goalkeeper(s) having played a minimum of 25 games (13 games in 2012-13) for the team with the fewest goals scored against it." Winners selected on regular-season play.

History: The Jennings Trophy was presented in 1981-82 by the National Hockey League's Board of Governors to honor the late William M. Jennings, longtime governor and president of the New York Rangers and one of the great builders of hockey in the United States.

2012-13 Winners: Corey Crawford/Ray Emery, Chicago Blackhawks
Runners-up: Craig Anderson, Ottawa Senators
Tuukka Rask/Anton Khudobin, Boston Bruins

Corey Crawford and Ray Emery combined to win the William M. Jennings Trophy. It was the first time either player won the award and the fourth Jennings Trophy win in Blackhawks history (1994-95, 1992-93, 1990-91 - all by Ed Belfour). Crawford and Emery split responsibilities between the pipes on a Chicago team that allowed a league-low 102 goals, two fewer than the Ottawa Senators and seven better than Boston. Crawford posted a 19-5-5 record, tied for third in the NHL with a 1.94 goals-against average and tied for sixth with a .926 save percentage. Emery set an NHL record by winning his first 12 decisions of the season and finished 17-1-0. He tied Crawford with a 1.94 goals-against average and registered a .922 save percentage. Crawford and Emery each recorded three shutouts and shared another, helping the Blackhawks total seven for the season, tied with St. Louis and Vancouver for the most shutouts in the NHL.

William M. Jennings Trophy

Jack Adams Award

Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy

Lester Patrick Trophy

JACK ADAMS AWARD

An annual award presented by the National Hockey League Broadcasters' Association to "the NHL coach adjudged to have contributed the most to his team's success." Winner selected by a poll among members of the NHL Broadcasters' Association at the end of the regular season.

History: The award was presented by the NHL Broadcasters' Association in 1974 to commemorate the late Jack Adams, coach and general manager of the Detroit Red Wings, whose lifetime dedication to hockey serves as an inspiration to all who aspire to further the game.

2012-13 Winner: Paul MacLean, Ottawa Senators
Runners-up: Joel Quenneville, Chicago Blackhawks
Bruce Boudreau, Anaheim Ducks

Ottawa Senators head coach Paul MacLean was the winner of the Jack Adams Award. MacLean was a top-three selection on 56 of the 83 ballots cast, including 28 first-place votes, for 206 points. Joel Quenneville of the Chicago Blackhawks was second with 22 first-place votes and 160 points. Anaheim's Bruce Boudreau finished third with 88 points, including six first-place votes. Michel Therrien of Montreal received 10 first-place votes, but was fourth overall with 78 points. Jack Capuano of the Islanders (five), Pittsburgh's Dan Bylsma (four), Randy Carlyle of Toronto (three), Todd Richards of Columbus (three) and Adam Oates of Washington (two) also received first-place votes.

MacLean, who finished third in balloting in 2011-12, won the award for the first time for guiding the Senators (25-17-6) to a berth in the Stanley Cup playoffs despite the extended absence of several key players due to injury. Defenseman Erik Karlsson, the reigning Norris Trophy winner, was limited to 17 games; defenseman Jared Cowen, the ninth overall pick in the 2009 NHL Draft, was sidelined for all but seven games; top forwards Jason Spezza and Milan Michalek played in just five and 23 contests, respectively; and starting goaltender Craig Anderson appeared in just 24 games. MacLean led a youthful Senators lineup, which included an NHL-high 14 rookies making at least one appearance, to the top defensive record in the Eastern Conference (2.08 goals-against per game).

LESTER PATRICK TROPHY

An annual award "for outstanding service to hockey in the United States." Eligible recipients are players, officials, coaches, executives and referees. Winners are selected by an award committee consisting of the commissioner of the NHL, an NHL governor, a representative of the New York Rangers, a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame builder's section, a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame player's section, a member of the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame, a member of the NHL Broadcasters' Association and a member of the Professional Hockey Writers' Association. Each except the League Commissioner is rotated annually. The winner receives a miniature of the trophy.

History: Presented by the New York Rangers in 1966 to honor the late Lester Patrick, longtime general manager and coach of the New York Rangers, whose teams finished out of the playoffs only once in his first 16 years with the club.

Bob Chase-Wallenstein

Dick Patrick has been president of the Washington Capitals since the 1982-83 season. In the eight seasons prior to his arrival in Washington, the Capitals never reached the Stanley Cup playoffs. In the next 29 seasons, they reached the playoffs 23 times. Patrick has played an integral role in the growth of the Capitals organization and of amateur hockey in the D.C. area. He is a grandson of the trophy's namesake, Lester Patrick.

Bob Chase-Wallenstein marked his 60th season broadcasting Fort Wayne Komets hockey games in 2012-13. A native of Negaunee, Michigan, Chase-Wallenstein arrived in Fort Wayne, Indiana in 1953 and began calling games for the Comets in what was their second season. In addition to his play-by-play work in hockey, he was the broadcaster for the famed 1954 Milan High School run to the Indiana state boys' basketball championship that was immortalized in the film Hoosiers.

BILL MASTERTON MEMORIAL TROPHY

An annual award under the trusteeship of the Professional Hockey Writers' Association to "the National Hockey League player who best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey." Winner selected by a poll among the 30 chapters of the PHWA at the end of the regular season. A $2,500 grant from the PHWA is awarded annually to the Bill Masterton Scholarship Fund, based in Bloomington, MN, in the name of the Masterton Trophy winner.

History: The trophy was presented by the NHL Writers' Association in 1968 to commemorate the late Bill Masterton, a player with the Minnesota North Stars, who exhibited to a high degree the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey, and who died January 15, 1968.

2012-13 Winner: Josh Harding, Minnesota Wild
Runners-up: Sidney Crosby, Pittsburgh Penguins
Adam McQuaid, Boston Bruins

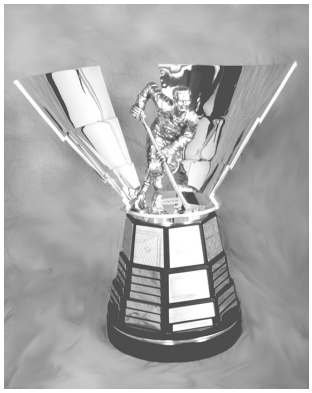
Minnesota Wild goaltender Josh Harding is the recipient of the Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy. Harding went 1-1-0 with a 3.24 goals-against average, a .863 save percentage and one shutout in five regular-season games with Minnesota this year and 1-4 with a 2.94 average and a .911 save percentage in five playoff starts for the Wild. He stopped all 24 shots faced in his first start of the 2012-13 season in a 1-0 victory against the Dallas Stars on January 20, 2013. Harding was placed on Injured Reserve on February 12 and missed 33 games with the Wild while battling multiple sclerosis, which was diagnosed in the fall of 2012. He was assigned to the Houston Aeros of the American Hockey League on a conditioning assignment April 16 and went 1-1-0, stopping 56 of 61 shots for a 3.00 goals-against average and .918 save percentage in two starts and helped Houston clinch a spot in the Calder Cup playoffs before being recalled by Minnesota on April 22.

CONN SMYTHE TROPHY

An annual award "to the most valuable player for his team in the playoffs." Winner selected by the Professional Hockey Writers' Association at the conclusion of the final game in the Stanley Cup Finals.

History: Presented by Maple Leaf Gardens Limited in 1964 to honor Conn Smythe, the former coach, manager, president and owner-governor of the Toronto Maple Leafs.

2012-13 Winner: Patrick Kane, Chicago Blackhawks



Chicago Blackhawks right winger Patrick Kane is the winner of the Conn Smythe Trophy. Kane was at his best down the stretch, tallying seven goals, including two game-winners, in his last eight games of the 2013 playoffs. He recorded his second career playoff hat trick in Game 5 of the Western Conference Final against Los Angeles, including the series-clinching goal in double-overtime, and netted a pair of goals, including the game-winner, in Game 5 of the Stanley Cup Final. Kane's nine goals in 23 playoff games tied him for second among all scorers behind teammate Patrick Sharp, while his 19 postseason points tied for second behind Boston's David Krejci (26). Kane tied Dave Bolland for the team lead in scoring in the Stanley Cup Final with three goals and two assists for five points in six games. The 24-year-old Buffalo, New York, native is the third consecutive U.S.-born player and fourth overall to win the Conn Smythe, joining New York Rangers defenseman Brian Leetch in 1994, Boston Bruins goaltender Tim Thomas in 2011 and Los Angeles Kings goaltender Jonathan Quick in 2012.

King Clancy Memorial Trophy

Presidents' Trophy

Maurice "Rocket" Richard Trophy

Ted Lindsay Award

KING CLANCY MEMORIAL TROPHY

An annual award "to the player who best exemplifies leadership qualities on and off the ice and has made a noteworthy humanitarian contribution in his community."

History: The King Clancy Memorial Trophy was presented to the National Hockey League by the Board of Governors in 1988 to honor the late Frank "King" Clancy.

2012-13 Winner: Patrice Bergeron, Boston Bruins

Center Patrice Bergeron of the Boston Bruins is the recipient of the King Clancy Memorial Trophy. Bergeron has demonstrated leadership qualities on and off the ice and made noteworthy humanitarian contributions to his community during his nine seasons with the Bruins by serving as an alternate captain, spending time in the community and working with charitable organizations. Bergeron's Patrice's Pals program brings local hospital patients and children's organizations who may not otherwise have the opportunity to experience a game to TD Garden to watch the Bruins play from the view of a luxury suite and meet and take photographs with Patrice. Among the many organizations he has hosted are: the Make-A-Wish Foundation, Children's Hospital Boston, Franciscan Hospital for Children, Massachusetts General Hospital for Children and numerous special needs hockey teams. One notable guest whom Bergeron has hosted in his Patrice's Pals suite is Matt Brown, a local high school athlete who was paralyzed from the chest down due to a hockey accident in 2010. Bergeron has maintained contact with Brown and his family, hosting them in his suite twice a year since the accident. Bergeron also represents his club at numerous community events throughout the year. He is heavily involved in the Bruins' Annual Holiday Toy Delivery, during which players and other members of the Bruins organization shop for toys to deliver to children in area hospitals who cannot be home for the holidays. Bergeron has spearheaded the shopping and delivery for a number of years, demonstrating his passion for working with children in need.

MAURICE "ROCKET" RICHARD TROPHY

An annual award "presented to the player finishing the regular season as the League's goal-scoring leader."

History: A gift to the NHL from the Montreal Canadiens in 1999, the Maurice "Rocket" Richard Trophy honors one of the game's greatest stars. During his 18-year career with the Canadiens from 1942-43 through 1959-60, Richard was the first player in NHL history to score 50 goals in a season and 500 in his career. He played on eight Stanley Cup champions and led the League in goal scoring five times.

2012-13 Winner: Alex Ovechkin, Washington Capitals
Runners-up Steven Stamkos, Tampa Bay Lightning
John Tavares, New York Islanders

Right winger Alex Ovechkin of the Washington Capitals became the first three-time winner of the Maurice Richard Trophy. After a slow start in which he tallied just twice in his first 10 games, Ovechkin notched 23 goals in his final 23 contests to finish the season with 32 goals and beat Steven Stamkos (29) and John Tavares (28). Ovechkin recorded his 30th goal of the season on April 20, becoming the ninth player in NHL history to score 30 or more goals in each of his first eight seasons. Ovechkin recorded points in nine straight games from March 17 to April 2 (10 goals, five assists), including a five-game goal streak from March 17 to 24.

NHL GENERAL MANAGER OF THE YEAR AWARD

An annual award presented to recognize the work of the league's general managers, voting for this new award is conducted among the 30 club general managers and a panel of NHL executives, print and broadcast media at the conclusion of the regular season.

History: This award was first presented in 2010.

2012-13 Winner: Ray Shero, Pittsburgh Penguins
Runners-up: Bob Murray, Anaheim Ducks
Marc Bergevin, Montreal Canadiens

Ray Shero of the Pittsburgh Penguins is the winner of the NHL General Manager of the Year Award. Shero received 14 first-place votes among the 39 ballots cast, was named on 26 ballots and had a total of 94 points. Anaheim's Bob Murray had 11 first-place votes and 88 points. Marc Bergevin of Montreal was third in voting with seven first-place votes and 75 points. Chicago's Stan Bowman received three first-place votes and had 36 points, while Bryan Murray of Ottawa had two and 23.

Shero made key additions throughout the year to a roster that was already strong, helping to propel the Penguins (36-12-0) to a playoff berth for the seventh consecutive season, their first Atlantic Division title since 2008 and the number-one seed in the Eastern Conference. He obtained center Brandon Sutter and goalie Tomas Vokoun in offseason trades and later brought forwards Jarome Iginla, Brenden Morrow, Jussi Jokinen and defenseman Douglas Murray to Pittsburgh in deals leading up to the trade deadline. Pittsburgh reeled off 15 consecutive victories from March 2 to 30, the second-longest winning streak in NHL history and the league's longest winning streak in 20 years.

TED LINDSAY AWARD

The Ted Lindsay Award is presented annually to the "most outstanding player" in the NHL as voted by fellow members of the National Hockey League Players' Association. The winner receives $20,000, and the two finalists receive $10,000 each to donate to the grassroots hockey program of their choice, through the NHLPA's Goals & Dreams Fund.

History: On April 29, 2010, the Ted Lindsay Award was introduced to recognize Lindsay's pioneering efforts in the establishment of the NHL Players' Association. Carrying on the tradition established by the Lester B. Pearson Award, it remains the only award voted on by the players themselves. The award was originally created in 1971 in honor of the late Lester B. Pearson, former Prime Minister of Canada.

2012-13 Winner: Sidney Crosby, Pittsburgh Penguins
Runners-up: Alex Ovechkin, Washington Capitals
Martin St. Louis, Tampa Bay Lightning

Center Sidney Crosby is the winner of the Ted Lindsay Award for the second time. Crosby previously won the Award in 2006-07 and was also nominated as a finalist in 2009-10. Four Penguins have won the NHL's "Most Outstanding Player" award over the years, including four-time winner Mario Lemieux, three-time winner Jaromir Jagr (twice as a Penguin) and teammate Evgeni Malkin, who won the award in 2011-12.

After missing the majority of the previous two seasons, Crosby returned to star form in 2012-13 and helped lead the Penguins to the best record in the Eastern Conference. Before a broken jaw sidelined him for the final quarter of the regular season, Crosby had amassed a large lead in the race for the NHL scoring title. Despite playing only 36 games during the 48-game season, he still tied for third in the NHL with 56 points, second with 41 assists and fourth in plus-minus at +26 while averaging a league-best 1.56 points per game.

MARK MESSIER NHL LEADERSHIP AWARD
presented by Bridgestone

An annual award presented "to the player who exemplifies great leadership qualitites to his team, on and off the ice during the regular season." Suggestions for nominees are solicited from fans, clubs and NHL personnel, but the selection of the three finalists and the ultimate winner is made by Mark Messier himself.

History: Presented by Bridgestone in honor of one of hockey's great leaders, this award was first handed out in 2007.

2012-13 Winner: Daniel Alfredsson, Ottawa Senators
Runners-up: Dustin Brown, Los Angeles Kings
Jonathan Toews, Chicago Blackhawks

Ottawa Senators captain Daniel Alfredsson is the recipient of the Mark Messier NHL Leadership Award. When he received the award, Alfredsson was the NHL's longest-serving active captain and led the Senators in numerous categories, including career games played, goals, assists and points. He also took a leadership role off the ice, working with the Boys and Girls Club of Ottawa, the Royal Ottawa Foundation for Mental Health and the Sens Foundation. Alfredsson has supported the Boys and Girls Club of Ottawa for the past 10 seasons, purchasing tickets and suites for club members to attend Senators games and serving as title sponsor of Ringside for Youth, the club's primary fundraising event during the season. Since 2008, he was also the spokesperson and champion for the Royal's "You Know Who I Am" campaign, leading the way to help reduce the stigma surrounding mental health issues. Alfredsson has supported the Royal's "Do It for Daron" campaign to assist in raising the profile of youth mental health issues.

PRESIDENTS' TROPHY

An annual award to the club finishing the regular-season with the best overall record.

History: Presented to the National Hockey League in 1985-86 by the NHL Board of Governors to recognize the team compiling the top regular-season record.

2012-13 Winner: Chicago Blackhawks
Runners-up: Pittsburgh Penguins
Anaheim Ducks

The Chicago Blackhawks captured the Presidents' Trophy for the second time in franchise history, leading the NHL with 77 points during the 48-game season by posting a record of 36-7-5. Chicago had previously won the Presidents' Trophy in 1990-91 and topped the NHL standings two other times before the presentation of the award (1966-67 and 1969-70). The Blackhawks enjoyed the best start in NHL history in 2012-13, earning points in 24 straight games by posting a record of 21-0-3, and went on to become the first Presidents' Trophy winner to also capture the Stanley Cup since the Detroit Red Wings in 2007-08. The Pittsburgh Penguins won their first Atlantic Division title since 2008 and posted the best record in the Eastern Conference with a mark of 36-12-0 for 72 points. The Anaheim Ducks won their first Pacific Division title since their Stanley Cup season of 2006-07 with a record of 30-12-6 for 66 points.

NHL FOUNDATION PLAYER AWARD

An annual award presented to "an NHL player who applies the core values of hockey – commitment, perseverance and teamwork – to enrich the lives of people in his community." In recognition of this dedication, the NHL Foundation annually awards $25,000 to a current player's charity.

History: NHL players have a long-standing tradition of supporting charities and other important causes in their communities. NHL member clubs are constant in their quest to help local schools, hospitals and charitable organizations. Clubs submit nominations for the NHL Foundation Player Award and the finalists are selected by a judging panel. This award was first presented in 1998.

2012-13 Winner: Henrik Zetterberg, Detroit Red Wings

Detroit Red Wings captain Henrik Zetterberg is the recipient of the NHL Foundation Player Award. The NHL Foundation will present $25,000 to the Zetterberg Foundation, to help fund the creation of three water stations in Kemba, Ethiopia, and provide 1,900 people with clean water for a lifetime. This donation will enable more children in the village to attend school as opposed to spending their days walking hours to get water for their families.

Zetterberg and his wife, Emma, give back to the Metro Detroit community through numerous initiatives as well as international causes in Ethiopia, Guatemala and Nepal. Zetterberg hosts children's charities, including Metro Detroit area children's hospitals and mentoring nonprofits, at each Red Wings home game during the regular season in the Zetterberg Foundation Suite. Zetterberg also funds a high school hockey scholarship each year and underwrites the Hockey Weekly High School All-Star Banquet.

As the team spokesman for the Red Wings annual Smoke Detector Collection, Zetterberg personally matches all donations. Working with area fire departments, more than 23,000 smoke detectors have been distributed to low-income and physically disabled residents who could not otherwise afford one or be able to install one in their home. When a local firefighter passed away in the line of duty in May of 2013, Zetterberg contributed to the team fundraiser, helping the Wings raise more than $15,000 for the firefighter's family.

Zetterberg and his wife built the Chige Primary School in Kemba, Ethiopia, in cooperation with Action Aid Ethiopia. The school consists of four classrooms and gives 225 children in Kemba access to a primary school education. The Belta Telo Middle School currently has 780 kids sharing four small classrooms; however, thanks to a donation from the Zetterberg Foundation, construction to add a block of four new classrooms to the school has begun. He also supports microloan programs in Ethiopia and Guatemala to provide women with the opportunity to start their own businesses and work themselves out of poverty. In addition, the Zetterberg Foundation has financed and built six houses for former debt slaves in Nepal.

Total Players Drafted (1969-2013): 10,178

Defenseman Seth Jones (left) of the Portland Winterhawks was the top-rated prospect going into the 2013 NHL Entry Draft, but the Colorado Avalanche wanted a forward and selected Nathan MacKinnon (right) of the Halifax Mooseheads with the number-one pick.

2013 NHL Entry Draft Order of Selection

The first 14 picks of the 2013 Entry Draft were determined by the NHL's annual Draft Drawing, a weighted lottery system used to determine the order of selection.

The 14 teams that did not qualify for the 2013 Stanley Cup Playoffs, or clubs that acquired those clubs' 2013 first-round draft picks, participated in the drawing.

No club can move down more than one position as a result of the Draft Drawing. For 2013, the Colorado Avalanche won the right to the first overall pick, moving up from second overall.

(Note that transferred draft choices are indicated as "N.J. – Van" with the team that selected the player listed at right.)

In the first round of the 2013 Entry Draft, the order of selection was as follows:

a) The winner of the Draft Drawing followed by the remaining non-playoff teams, in inverse order of points. (Note that the original holder of each selection is listed followed by the club that acquired and used that selection in the first round of the 2013 Entry Draft.)

1. Colorado
2. Florida
3. Tampa Bay
4. Nashville
5. Carolina
6. Calgary
7. Edmonton
8. Buffalo
9. N.J. – Van.
10. Dallas
11. Philadelphia
12. Phoenix
13. Winnipeg
14. Columbus

b) Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2013 Stanley Cup Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points;

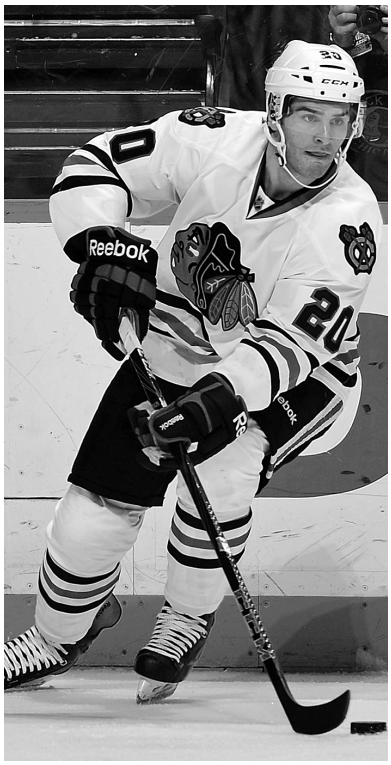
15. NY Islanders
16. Min. – Buf.
17. Ottawa
18. Det. – S.J.
19. NYR – CBJ
20. S.J. – Det.
21. Toronto
22. St.L. – Cgy.

c) Regular-season division winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2013 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points;

23. Washington
24. Vancouver
25. Montreal
26. Anaheim

d) Clubs eliminated in the 2013 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points;

27. L.A. – CBJ
28. Pit. – Cgy.



e) Loser of Stanley Cup Final

29. Bos. – Dal.

f) Stanley Cup champion

30. Chicago

In the second and subsequent rounds Florida Panthers – the club with the fewest regular-season points – picked first. Colorado Avalanche – the club with the second fewest regular-season points – picked second. Winnipeg Jets received an additional compensatory pick, 59th overall in the second round.

Chicago selected Brandon Saad (top) from the Saginaw Spirit of the OHL with the 43rd pick in 2011. The Blackhawks got Corey Crawford from the Moncton Wildcats of the QMJHL 52nd overall in 2003. Both contributed to the Blackhawks' Stanley Cup victory in 2013.

Teams with two players selected: KooKoo Kouvola, K-Vantaa, Sapko Savonlinna, Sport Vaasa, TuTo.
Teams with one player selected: Ahmat Hyvinkaa, Hermes Kokkola, Junkkarit Kalajoki, GrIFK Kauniainen, LeKi, S-Kiekko Seinajoki.

Chosen 147th overall from the WHL's Vancouver Giants in 2010, Montreal's Brendan Gallagher (top) was runner-up to Jonathan Huberdeau for the Calder Trophy in 2012-13. Sweden's Jakob Silfverberg (right) was selected 39th in 2009. He made a strong debut in Ottawa in 2012-13 but was traded to Anaheim in the Bobby Ryan deal after the season.

Note: International draft selections played outside North America in their draft year.

European-born players drafted from the OHL, QMJHL, WHL, U.S. colleges or other North American leagues are not counted as International players.

Notes on 2013 First-Round Selections

1. COLORADO • NATHAN MacKINNON (NAY-thuhn muh-KIHN-uhn), C. With a great combination of skill and determination, Nathan MacKinnon led Halifax to the 2013 Memorial Cup championship with a tournament-leading 13 points (seven goals, six assists), including a hat trick in the final game. A great skater with great vision and a great hockey sense, MacKinnon represented Canada at the 2013 World Junior Championship and won a gold medal at the 2012 Ivan Hlinka tournament. MacKinnon is from Cole Harbour, Nova Scotia; the same home town as Sidney Crosby.

2. FLORIDA • ALEKSANDER BARKOV (al-ehx-AN-duhr BAHR-kawv), C. Finnish-born but of Russian heritage, Aleksander Barkov is a great all-around player with a high hockey IQ. Barkov is a smart, two-way center who finished among the top 10 in scoring in the Finnish elite league as a 17-year-old in 2012-13. He became the youngest Finnish player to score at the World Junior Championship in 2012 and played at the tournament again in 2013. His father, Alexander, played hockey for Russia and his mother played basketball.

3. TAMPA BAY • JONATHAN DROUIN (JAWN-ah-thuhn DROO-ehn), LW. A hard worker with plenty of offensive skill, Jonathan Drouin had 105 points (41 goals, 64 assists) in just 49 games for Halifax in 2012-13 and helped the Mooseheads win the Memorial Cup for the first time. Drouin was named the Canadian Hockey League's Player of the Year, becoming the first player to claim the award in his first year of draft eligibility since Sidney Crosby in 2004-05.

4. NASHVILLE • SETH JONES (SEHTH JOHNZ), D. A big, rangy, two-way defenseman, Seth Jones has an excellent hockey sense and strong skating and shooting skills. The youngest member of Team USA's gold medal-winning team at the 2013 World Junior Championship, he also helped Portland reach the Memorial Cup final in 2012-13. Jones previously captained Team USA to gold at the 2012 U-18 World Championship. He is the son of NBA player Popeye Jones.

5. CAROLINA • ELIAS LINDHOLM (eh-LIGH-us LIHND-hohlm), C. A gritty, hard-working, two-way player, Elias Lindholm is an excellent skater who finishes his checks very well. Lindholm's father, Mikael, was selected 237th overall by Los Angeles in 1987 and played 18 games for the Kings during the 1989-90 season. His cousin Calle Jarnkrok was drafted 51st by Detroit in 2010. Lindholm won silver medals at the 2013 World Junior Championship and 2012 U-18 Worlds.

6. CALGARY • SEAN MONAHAN (SHAWN MAWN-ah-han), C. A good offensive player who sees the ice well, Sean Monahan was voted among the top three in four separate categories – Smartest Player, Best Playmaker, Best Stickhandler and Best on Face-Offs – despite playing with a weak Ottawa team in the OHL in 2012-13. Monahan was the youngest member of Team Canada at the 2012 Canada-Russia Challenge and won gold for Canada at the 2011 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament.

7. EDMONTON • DARNELL NURSE (dahr-NEHL NUHRS), D. A strong skater who stands 6'4", Darnell Nurse is a ferocious defender who excels physically. He was also the Ontario Hockey League's Scholastic Player of the Year for 2012-13. Previously, Nurse won gold with Team Canada at the 2012 Ivan Hlinka Tournament and bronze at the 2012 U-18 World Championship. He is the son of former CFL player Richard Nurse and the nephew of former NFL star Donovan McNabb.

8. BUFFALO • RASMUS RISTOLAINEN (RAZ-muhs rihs-toh-LIGH-nehn), D. Standing 6'4" and weighing 224 pounds, Rasmus Ristolainen is a mature, reliable, well-rounded defenseman. He has played against men for two seasons in the Finnish elite league and also represented his country at the World Junior Championship in 2012 and 2013. Ristolainen knows how to use his size and strength and also has good puck-handling and passing skills.

9. VANCOUVER • BO HORVAT (BOH HOHR-vat), C. A great competitor with a dynamic power game, Bo Horvat is strong on face-offs. He also scored a league-leading 16 goals in 21 games during the 2013 OHL playoffs, including the game-winning goal in Game 7 of the championship series with 0.1 seconds left in regulation. Horvat represented Canada at the 2012 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament alongside London teammate and fellow first-round draft pick Max Domi.

10. DALLAS • VALERI NICHUSHKIN (VAL-uhr-ee nih-KOOSH-kihn), RW. At 6'4" and 202 pounds, Valeri Nichushkin is an elite offensive playmaker who can dominate games. He's an excellent skater with excellent vision. Nichushkin scored the winning goal against Canada in overtime of the bronze medal game at the 2013 World Junior Championship and also played for Russia at the U-18 World Championship. In 2012 he won gold at the U-17 World Hockey Challenge.

11. PHILADELPHIA • SAMUEL MORIN (sam-YUHL moh-REHN), D. A mobile defenseman with above average offensive skills, Samuel Morin stands 6'6" and brings a physical presence to his game. Named to the QMJHL all-rookie team in 2011-12, Morin missed time due to an injury in 2012-13 but returned in time for the playoffs and had seven points (one goal, six assists) in six games. He then helped Canada win a gold medal at the U-18 World Championship.

12. PHOENIX • MAX DOMI (MAX DOH-mee), C/LW. The son of NHL tough guy Tie Domi, Max Domi is a skilled offensive player who stands just 5'9" but weighs 195 pounds and plays with strength and grit. Domi finished second in OHL playoff scoring with 32 points (11 goals, 21 assists) in 21 games for London in 2013 after finishing eighth in the regular season with 87 points (39, 48) in 64 games. Domi was captain of Team Ontario at the 2012 U-17 World Hockey Challenge and won gold for Canada at the 2012 Ivan Hlinka tournament.

13. WINNIPEG • JOSHUA MORRISSEY (JAW-shoo-wuh MOHR-ih-see), D. An offensive-minded defenseman who loves to rush the puck, Joshua Morrissey reaches top speed quickly and has a good hockey sense. Playing for Prince Albert in the WHL, he was named the Canadian Hockey League's Scholastic Player of the Year in 2013. Morrissey represented Canada at the U-18 World Championship for the second straight time in 2013 and was the top-scoring defensemen at the tournament as Canada won a gold medal.

14. COLUMBUS • ALEXANDER WENNBERG (al-ehx-AN-duhr WEHN-burgh), C. A slick offensive talent who plays the game with speed, Alexander Wennberg is not flashy but plays a skilled, smart game. He goes straight for the net and has a quick release on his shot. Wennberg ranked fourth in scoring as a teenager playing against men for Djurgarden in the Swedish second division in 2012-13. He won silver medals for Sweden at the 2013 World Junior Championship and at the 2012 U-18 World Championship.

15. NY ISLANDERS • RYAN PULOCK (RIGH-uhn POO-lawk), D. A well-rounded defenseman with a hard, heavy shot, Ryan Pulock tied for the team lead with 45 points (14 goals, 31 points) in 61 games as captain of the Brandon Wheat Kings in 2012-13 and reached 101 mph on a slap shot at a team skills competition. He had 60 points (19, 41) in 71 games in 2011-12 and broke Wade Redden's franchise record for 16-year-old defensemen with 42 points (8, 34) as a rookie in 2010-11.

16. BUFFALO • NIKITA ZADOROV (nih-KEE-tuh za-DOHR-awv), D. A mobile defenseman who uses his size (6'5", 219 lbs,) and stick extremely well, Nikita Zadorov takes the body and battles hard along the boards. With London in the OHL in 2012-13, Zadorov led all rookies in plus-minus at +33. He won gold for Russia at the 2012 U-17 World Hockey Challenge and also played at the 2012 U-18 World Championship, but was a late cut before the 2013 World Junior Championship.

17. OTTAWA • CURTIS LAZAR (KUHR-tihs lah-ZAHR), C/RW. A very good two-way player, Curtis Lazar has good puck-handling ability and skates well. As captain of Team British Columbia at the 2011 Canada Winter Games, Lazar had 12 goals and 17 points in six games to break previous tournament records held by Steven Stamkos and Sidney Crosby. He won a gold medal for Canada at the 2012 Ivan Hlinka tournament and helped Edmonton reach the WHL Final in 2013.

18. SAN JOSE • MIRCO MUELLER (MIHR-koh MEW-luhr), D. A big (6'3"), explosive puck-moving defenseman, Mirco Mueller plays well in all game situations. He's quick, with a good hockey sense. Mueller played in the Swiss elite league as a 16-year-old in 2011-12 before joining Everett of the WHL in 2012-13 and finishing second among rookie defensemen in scoring. He also represented Switzerland at the World Junior Championship and U-18 World Championship in 2013.

19. COLUMBUS • KERBY RYCHEL (KUHR-bee RIGH-kuhl), LW. A solid goal scorer who can also compete hard physically, Kerby Rychel has scored at least 40 goals in two straight OHL seasons for the Windsor Spitfires, where his father – former NHL player Warren Rychel – is general manager and part owner. Rychel scored the winning goal in the gold medal game for Canada at the 2011 U-17 World Hockey Challenge and won bronze at the 2012 U-18 World Championship.

20. DETROIT • ANTHONY MANTHA (AN-thuh-nee MAN-tha), RW. A big (6'4", 190 lbs) player who plays a finesse game, Anthony Mantha was the only one of three 50-goal scorers in Major Junior hockey in 2012-13 that was still eligible for the NHL Entry Draft. Mantha's 50 goals in 67 games included five hat tricks and a four-goal game. In 2012, he won bronze with Canada at the U-18 World Championship. Mantha's grandfather, Andre Pronovost, won the Stanley Cup four times with Montreal in the 1950s.

21. TORONTO • FREDERIK GAUTHIER (FREHD-RIHK goh-T'YAY), C. A solid two-way player who's always around the puck in his own end, Frederik Gauthier is strong on face-offs. At 6'5" and 214 pounds, he has good size and reach. Though recruited by Harvard, Gauthier joined Rimouski in the QMJHL and led all rookies in face-off winning percentage in 2012-13. He helped Team Canada win gold at the 2013 U-18 World Championship with three assists in seven playoff games. In 2011-12, he was MVP of the Quebec midget AAA league.

22. CALGARY • EMILE POIRIER (eh-MEEL p'wah-REE-ay), LW. A quick skater with good two-way instincts, Emile Poirier has a competitive nature and the ability to find open areas on the ice. Poirier led Gatineau with 32 goals in 2012-13 (more than doubling the 15 he scored as a QMJHL rookie in 2011-12), 38 assists and 70 points. His strong play in the playoffs sparked Gatineau's upset of Rimouski in the first round and he finished the playoffs with 10 points (six goals, four assists) in 10 games.

23. WASHINGTON • ANDRE BURAKOVSKY (ahn-DRAY buhr-a-KAWV-skee), LW. Though he struggled playing against men in the Swedish elite league, Andre Burakovsky is a dynamic and creative offensive forward. He failed to make Sweden's team for the 2013 World Junior Championship, but starred at the Five Nations tournament. Burakovsky did represent Sweden at the U-18 World Championship in 2012. His father, Robert, was selected 217th overall in 1985 by the Rangers and played 23 games for Ottawa in 1993-94.

24. VANCOUVER • HUNTER SHINKARUK (HUHN-tuhr shihn-KA-ruhk), C/LW. A hard worker with passion in his game, Hunter Shinkaruk is an exciting player to watch. He missed his entire midget season with a broken leg, but became rookie of the year in Medicine Hat in 2010-11 and has become a top scorer in the WHL and captain of the Tigers. Shinkaruk had a hat trick, including the overtime winner, in the bronze medal game of the 2012 U-18 World championship.

25. MONTREAL • MICHAEL McCARRON (MIGH-kuhl muh-KAIR-uhn), RW. A massive player at 6'5" and 237 pounds, Michael McCarron creates space and causes havoc. He has a strong game down low, soft hands, and a good shot. A product of the U.S. National Team Development Program, McCarron led the team with 182 penalty minutes in 59 games in 2012-13. He played a big role on the U.S. team that won a silver medal at the 2013 U-18 World Championship.

26. ANAHEIM • SHEA THEODORE (SHAY THEE-oh-dohr), D. An offensive-minded defenseman with technical skill, Shea Theodore is a smart player with good size (6'1") and good movement. Theodore finished eighth among WHL defensemen in scoring (19 goals, 31 assists, 50 points) with Seattle in 2012-13. He had five assists to help Team Canada win gold at the 2013 U-18 World Championship and was also a gold medalist at the Ivan Hlinka tournament in 2012.

27. COLUMBUS • MARKO DANO (MAHR-koh DA-NOH), C. A skilled and opportunistic forward, Marko Dano plays an exciting game. He played as an 18-year-old with Bratislava in the KHL in 2012-13, but his season was shortened due to an injury. Dano had nine points (four goals, five assists) for Slovakia at the 2013 World Junior Championship. He has good instincts around the net and knows how to get open. Dano can also create time and space for his linemates.

28. CALGARY • MORGAN KLIMCHUK (MOHR-guhn KLIHM-chuhk), LW. A dangerous offensive player, Morgan Klimchuk is also a smart two-way forward. His 36 goals for Regina in 2012-13 doubled the 18 he'd scored the year before as a WHL rookie. Klimchuk played on the top line with future prospects Connor McDavid and Sam Reinhart on Canada's gold medal team at the 2013 U-18 World Championship and also won gold in 2012 at the Ivan Hlinka tournament.

29. DALLAS • JASON DICKINSON (JAY-suhn DIH-kihn-suhn), C. A good offensive player with slick hands, Jason Dickinson can play in all situations. He led Guelph in plus-minus with a +19 in 66 games during the 2012-13 OHL season after being named to the Second All-Rookie team in 2011-12. Dickinson played for Canada's gold medal-winning team at the 2013 Under-18 World Championship, but his tournament was cut short due to an injury.

30. CHICAGO • RYAN HARTMAN (RIGH-uhn HAHRT-man), RW. An agitating two-way forward, Ryan Hartman shows no fear in battling for the puck. He sees the ice well and has a good, quick shot. Hartman is a product of the U.S. National Team Development Program who passed on the NCAA to play with Plymouth in the OHL in 2012-13. He won gold with Team USA at the 2012 Under-18 World Championship and the 2013 World Junior Championship.

Alex Galchenyuk was born in the United States while his Russian father played minor pro hockey in Milwaukee. Chosen third overall in the 2012 NHL Entry Draft despite missing all but two games of the 2011-12 season with a knee injury, Galchenyuk played the full 48 games for Montreal in 2012-13, scoring nine goals and adding 18 assists. He had 61 points in 33 games for Sarnia of the OHL before the NHL season began.

There was no All-Star contest during the calendar year of 1966 because the game was moved from the start of season to mid-season. In 1979, the Challenge Cup series between the Soviet Union and Team NHL replaced the All-Star Game. In 1987, Rendez-Vous '87, two games between the Soviet Union and Team NHL replaced the All-Star Game. In 1995, 2005 and 2013 the All-Star Game was not played due to a labour disruption affecting the NHL. In both 2006 and 2010 the All-Star Game was not played because of NHL players' participation in the Olympics.

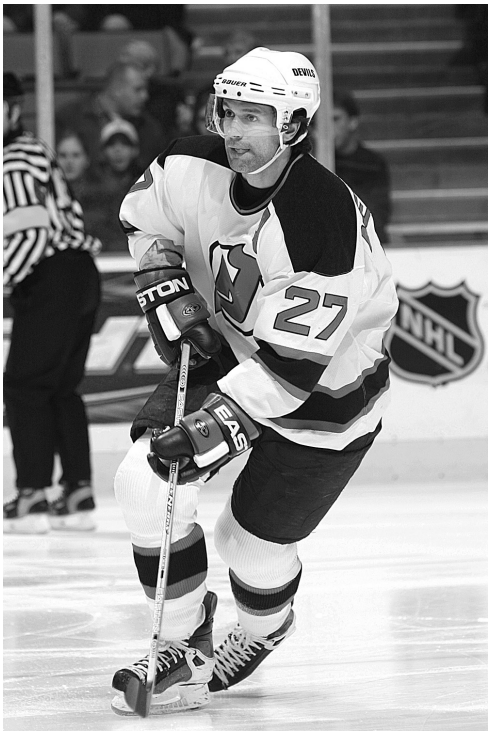
Telephone: administration (416) 360-7735; information (416) 360-7765.

Public Hours of Operation: Open every day except Christmas Day, New Year's Day and Induction Day (November 11, 2013). Please call our information number (above) or visit our website (below) for times.



The Hockey Hall of Fame can be booked for private functions after hours.

Website address: www.hhof.com

History: The Hockey Hall of Fame was established in 1943. Members were first honoured in 1945. On August 26, 1961, the Hockey Hall of Fame opened its doors to the public in a building located on the grounds of the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto. The Hockey Hall of Fame relocated to its current location and welcomed the hockey world on June 18, 1993.

Honour Roll: There are 375 Honoured Members in the Hockey Hall of Fame. 259 have been inducted as players including three women, 101 as builders and 15 as Referees/Linesmen. In addition, there are 90 media honourees.

Founding/Premier Sponsors: Imperial Oil, International Ice Hockey Federation, National Hockey League, National Hockey League Players' Association, Pepsi-Cola Canada, The Toronto Sun, Tim Hortons, The Sports Network (TSN/RDS).

In addition to his three Stanley Cup titles with New Jersey and one with Anaheim, Scott Niedermayer also won the Memorial Cup, a World Junior Championship, a World Championship, the 2004 World Cup and two Olympic gold medals during his career.

In 1,238 career games over 19 NHL seasons, Doug Weight scored 278 goals and racked up 755 assists. Weight put on the U.S. sweater at nine major international competitions, including the Olympic Winter Games in 1998, 2002 and 2006.

United States Hockey Hall of Fame

On May 11, 2007, the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame and USA Hockey came to a historic agreement that transferred rights to the selection process and induction event associated with the Hall, including the Wayne Gretzky International Award, to USA Hockey. As part of the agreement, the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame Museum, located in Eveleth, Minn., formed a separate Board of Directors to govern the national shrine for American Hockey.

There are 161 enshrined members in the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame (www.ushockeyhalloffame.com). New members are inducted annually and must have made a significant contribution to hockey in the United States during the course of their career. A special Wayne Gretzky International Award pays tribute to international individuals who have made major contributions to hockey in the USA.

The United States Hockey Hall of Fame Museum was opened on June 21, 1973. It is dedicated to honoring the sport of ice hockey in the United States by preserving those previous memories and legends of the game. It is located in Eveleth, Minn., 60 miles north of Duluth on Highway 53. The facility is open Memorial Day through Labor Day, Monday to Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sundays from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. After Labor Day, it is open Friday through Sunday. Admission is $8.00 for adults, $7.00 for seniors and youths (13-17) and $6.00 for children (6-12). Children under 6 are free. For further information, call 800-443-7825 or 218-744-5167, or visit www.ushockeyhall.com.

International Ice Hockey Federation Hall of Fame

The IIHF Hall of Fame was founded in 1997. It now boasts 189 greats from 22 countries.

Candidates for election as Honoured Members in the player category shall be chosen on the basis of their playing ability, sportsmanship, character and their contribution to their team or teams and to the game of ice hockey in general.

Candidates for election as Honoured Members in the builder category shall be chosen on the basis of their coaching, managerial or executive ability, where applicable, their sportsmanship and character, and their contribution to their organization or organizations and to the game of ice hockey in general.

Candidates for election as Honoured Members in the referee or linesman category shall be chosen on the basis of their officiating ability, sportsmanship, character and their contribution to the game of ice hockey in general. The Paul Loicq Award, named for the longtime former IIHF president, is presented to honor a person for his service to the international hockey community.

Inductees' names are followed by their country and year of induction.

After scoring nine goals in 48 games during the regular season, Brian Bickell scored nine times in 23 playoff games, including the tying goal in the dying seconds of game six when Chicago staged a late rally to win the Stanley Cup.

Stanley Cup Record Book

History: The Stanley Cup, the oldest trophy competed for by professional athletes in North America, was donated by Frederick Arthur, Lord Stanley of Preston and son of the Earl of Derby, in 1893. Lord Stanley purchased the trophy for 10 guineas ($50 at that time) for presentation to the amateur hockey champions of Canada. Since 1906, when Canadian teams began to pay their players openly, the Stanley Cup has been the symbol of professional hockey supremacy. It has been contested only by NHL teams since 1926-27 and has been under the exclusive control of the NHL since 1947.

Championship Trophies

PRINCE OF WALES TROPHY

Beginning with the 1993-94 season, the club which advances to the Stanley Cup Finals as the winner of the Eastern Conference Championship is presented with the Prince of Wales Trophy.

History: His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, donated the trophy to the National Hockey League in 1925. It was originally awarded to the winner of the first game played in Madison Square Garden, December 15, 1925 (Montreal Canadiens 3 at NY Americans 1). It was then awarded to the NHL playoff champion in 1925-26 and 1926-27. From 1927-28 through 1937-38, the award was presented to the regular-season champion of the American Division of the NHL. (The team finishing first in the Canadian Division received the O'Brien Trophy during these years.) From 1938-39, when the NHL reverted to one section, to 1966-67, it was presented to the team winning the NHL regular-season championship. With expansion in 1967-68, it again became a divisional trophy, awarded to the regular-season champions of the East Division through to the end of the 1973-74 season. Beginning in 1974-75, it was awarded to the regular-season winner of the conference bearing the name of the trophy. From 1981-82 to 1992-93 the trophy was presented to the playoff champion in the Wales Conference. Since 1993-94, the trophy has been presented to the playoff champion in the Eastern Conference.

2012-13 Winner: Boston Bruins

The Boston Bruins won the Prince of Wales Trophy on June 7, 2013 after defeating the Pittsburgh Penguins 1-0 in game 4 of the Eastern Conference Finals. Before defeating the Penguins, Boston had series wins over the Toronto Maple Leafs and the New York Rangers.

CLARENCE S. CAMPBELL BOWL

Beginning with the 1993-94 season, the club which advances to the Stanley Cup Finals as the winner of the Western Conference Championship is presented with the Clarence S. Campbell Bowl.

History: Presented by the member clubs in 1968 for perpetual competition by the National Hockey League in recognition of the services of Clarence S. Campbell, President of the NHL from 1946 to 1977. From 1967-68 through 1973-74, the trophy was awarded to the regular-season champions of the West Division. Beginning in 1974-75, it was awarded to the regular-season winner of the conference bearing the name of the trophy. From 1981-82 to 1992-93 the trophy was presented to the playoff champion in the Campbell Conference. Since 1993-94, the trophy has been presented to the playoff champion in the Western Conference. The trophy itself is a hallmark piece made of sterling silver and was crafted by a British silversmith in 1878.

2012-13 Winner: Chicago Blackhawks

The Chicago Blackhawks won the Clarence S. Campbell Bowl on June 8, 2013 after defeating the Los Angeles Kings 4-3 in game 5 of the Western Conference Finals. Before defeating the Kings, Chicago had series wins over the Minnesota Wild and the Detroit Red Wings.
