ED SNIDER COMCAST-SPECTACOR CHAIRMAN

Ed Snider is an iconic entrepreneur and true visionary in the sports and entertainment industry. His emergence as a leader in the Philadelphia sports market began in 1966 when he brought a National Hockey League franchise to the city as the founder of the Philadelphia Flyers. He became the driving force behind the construction of the Spectrum and assumed control of the building in 1971, In 1974, Snider created Spectacor as the management company to oversee the Flyers and Spectrum. Over the next 20 years, Spectacor experienced unprecedented growth, earning national acclaim for its impact in the sports and entertainment business. Under Snider's guidance, Spectacor developed and acquired nearly a dozen related companies.

In 1996, Snider merged Spectacor with the Comcast Corporation to form Comcast-Spectacor. The new venture initially consisted of the Philadelphia Flyers, Philadelphia 76ers, Wells Fargo Center, The Spectrum, and the Philadelphia Phantoms. Comcast-Spectacor then joined with the Philadelphia Phillies to form Comcast SportsNet, one of the highest-rated regional sports cable networks in the country.

Most recently, Comcast-Spectacor developed Global Spectrum, an international facilities management company; Ovations Food Services, an international concessions company; New Era Tickets, a full-service ticket provider; and the Flyers Skate Zones, a series of community ice rinks. In addition, Comcast-Spectacor acquired Paicolan, a ticketing technology software company, in 2010. These entities all represent components of Snider's vision: "Take what you do well and grow it."

Snider's success and business acumen have been widely recognized by his peers. He was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1988 and serves on the NHL's Executive Committee. He is a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award for outstanding service to hockey in the United States and has been elected to the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame, the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame, the Philadelphia Sports Hall of Fame, the Philadelphia and Washington Jewish Sports Hall of Fames, and the Flyers Hall of Fame. In 2005, he received the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce's William Penn Award, the most prestigious business honor in the region, and the Ellis Island Medal of Honor awarded to Americans of all ethnic backgrounds who have made significant contributions to our society.

One of Snider's proudest accomplishments is the creation of the Ed Snider Youth Hockey Foundation, which provides underserved children from urban neighborhoods in Philadelphia and Camden with the opportunity to learn to play ice hockey. The program features comprehensive educational services that are specifically designed to keep boys and girls on-track for on-time graduation. Hockey is simply the hook that is used to gain and hold the attention of these youngsters so that greater life lessons can be imparted. All services, including equipment and travel are delivered at no cost to city residents. The Foundation recently partnered with the City and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to complete a $14 million construction project in which four public rinks were completely refurbished for year round use. This project included new classrooms, learning labs, and public meeting space, as well as upgrading these rinks to NHL standards. Snider Hockey now funds and administers programming for over 3,000 youngsters at nine inner-city sites.

Snider has received honorary degrees from Hahnemann University and Thomas Jefferson Hospital. He is also a Benefactor of the Sol C. Snider Entrepreneurial Center of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and Vice Chairman of the Simon Wiesenthal Center.

Snider's philanthropic generosity has benefitted numerous organizations and agencies throughout the greater Philadelphia region.

In May 1999, readers of the Philadelphia Daily News selected him as Philly's greatest mover and shaker of the millennium.

Snider and his wife, Lin, reside in suburban Philadelphia. His children are daughters Lindy, Tina, and Sarena and sons Craig, Jay, and Samuel, as well as 15 grandchildren.

PETER A. LUUKKO PRESIDENT / COO, COMCAST-SPECTACOR CHAIRMAN, GLOBAL SPECTRUM

Peter A. Luukko is President and Chief Operating Officer of Comcast-Spectacor. He works closely with Comcast-Spectacor Chairman Ed Snider in overseeing the day-to-day operations of all of the company's interests. He is also the President of the Philadelphia Flyers of the National Hockey League.

Additionally, Luukko, who is also Chairman of Global Spectrum, is responsible for creating new business opportunities for Comcast-Spectacor in the fields of facility management, sports ownership and operation, food and concessions, as well as consulting in those same fields.

Luukko's extensive sports management career began in 1981 after parlaying an internship at the New Haven Coliseum into a position as the director of marketing for the facility. He later joined the Providence Civic Center as the facility's assistant general manager. In 1985, Luukko joined Spectacor

Management Group (SMG), at the time owned in part by Snider, and soon became Vice President of SMG's Western Region and facility manager for SMG's Los Angeles Coliseum and Sports Arena. During that time, he was credited for greatly improving the facilities' reputation. In addition, he had spent time overseeing other SMG facilities.

In 1993, Luukko left SMG to become President of the Spectrum. In the following years he became responsible for managing Comcast-Spectacor's growing interests, and helped the company become a nationally recognized leader in sports and entertainment with the acquisition of Globe Facility Services in 2000. After renaming the company Global Spectrum, the public assembly management firm grew from seven facilities in 2000 to just over 105 facilities in 2011. Additionally in 2000, Comcast-Spectacor acquired Leisure Food Services and renamed the company Ovations Food Services. Comcast-Spectacor made a significant investment into a ticketing technology company, Paciolan, and employed its technology to create a full-service ticketing company, New Era Tickets, in 2004. Comcast-Spectacor acquired 100 percent of Paciolan from Live Nation in 2010.

Under Luukko's leadership, Comcast-Spectacor helped Philadelphia garner national attention and awareness by attracting several high-profile events to the city of Philadelphia, including the 2000 Republican National Convention, the 2000 NCAA Women's Final Four, the 2001 NCAA Men's East Regionals, the 2001 and 2002 X-Games, the 2002 NBA All-Star Weekend, the 2008 U.S. Olympic Team Trials for Gymnastics, the 2011 NCAA Wrestling Championships, the 2014 NCAA Frozen Four, and numerous other sports and entertainment events.

As President of the Flyers, Luukko was responsible for the team participating in two Winter Classics (2010 and 2012), as well as hosting the 2014 National Hockey League Entry Draft.

A recognized leader in the facility management industry, Luukko was the 2000 recipient of the City of Hope's Tri-State Labor Award. He also received the 2002 prestigious Harold J. VanderZwaag Distinguished Alumnus Award from the Sports Management Program of the University of Massachusetts for his accomplishments in the field of sports management. He received the 2013 Police Athletic League PAL Award for his contributions to the Philadelphia community.

Luukko and Snider rank 43rd on Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal's prestigious list of the Top 50 Most Influential Leaders in Sports Business. The two are also two-time winners of Venues Today's Hall of Headlines.

He is also one of Billboard Magazine's Power 100 (2012 and 2013).

Luukko actively serves on the Board of Directors for the Philadelphia Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Philadelphia Sports Congress, and the Ed Snider Youth Hockey Foundation. He also serves on the National Hockey League's Board of Governors.

Luukko is a hockey player, hockey coach, and hockey parent. He is a graduate of the University of Massachusetts. He and his wife, Casey, along with their children Nick, Dana, and Max, reside in West Chester, Pennsylvania. His son Nick was drafted by the Flyers in the sixth round of the 2010 NHL Entry Draft.

FRED SHABEL VICE CHAIRMAN OF COMCAST-SPECTACOR

Fred A. Shabel is Vice-Chairman of Comcast-Spectacor. He has been with Comcast-Spectacor for 30 years. During that time, Shabel has guided the company's transition from being a local sports team in an arena, to being a moving force in the Philadelphia community.

Shabel is an active participant in numerous community organizations. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce; the Honorary Board of Directors of Police Athletic League, the Board of Directors of the Ed Snider Youth Hockey Foundation, as well as a member of the Advisory Board for Arthur Ashe Youth Tennis and Education.

In that time, his teams achieved 28 lvy League titles and numerous national rankings. In 1972-73, Intercollegiate Athletics at Penn accomplished a benchmark season, topping all previous victory records during the school's 26 years in the lvy League.

During his tenure at the University of Pennsylvania Shabel served as Chairman of the Ivy League Athletic Directors and the Eastern Collegiate Television Committee, and was Director of the Penn Relays.

PAUL HOLMGREN GENERAL MANAGER

Paul Holmgren enters his eighth season as the general manager of the Flyers and his 35th as a member of the Flyers organization. He was named interim general manager of the Flyers on October 22, 2006 following the resignation of Bob Clarke. The interim tag was lifted on November 11, 2006 when he was named to the position on a permanent basis.

Since leading the franchise through a turnaround following the 2006-07 season, Holmgren has guided the Flyers through one of the most successful stretches in franchise history. The team made the playoffs in five consecutive seasons from 2008-2012, advancing to the Eastern Conference Finals twice and making the eighth Stanley Cup Final appearance in franchise history in 2009-10. The Flyers enjoyed back-to-back 47-win seasons in 2010-11 and 2011-12, their most in a two-year period since 1985-87, and were the only team in the NHL to reach the second round of the playoffs (or further) in each of the three seasons from 2009-10 to 2012-13.

In 2007-08, his first full season as general manager, Holmgren guided the Flyers to the best single-season rebound in the NHL that season. The club improved 39 points in the standings, posting a 42-29-11 record for 95 points after collecting just 56 points the year before. The Flyers returned to the Stanley Cup Playoffs and made an impressive run to the Eastern Conference Finals. Since the NHL expanded the playoffs to four rounds in 1980, the 2007-08 Flyers were only the second team to finish with the worst record in the NHL one season and reach the third round of the playoffs the next season (Detroit Red Wings in 1987). The 2007-08 Flyers were also the first team in 13 years to advance to the second round of the playoffs after finishing the previous season with the worst record in the league (San Jose Sharks in 1994).

Holmgren's 2009-10 team made one of the most remarkable runs in Flyers history. The Flyers compiled a regular season record of 41-35-6 for 88 points and qualified for the playoffs on the last day of the season. They then went on to dispatch New Jersey (ΕCΩF, 4 games to 1), Boston (ΕCSF, 4 games to 3), and Montreal (ECF, 4 games to 1) to reach the Final against the Chicago Blackhawks. The Flyers followed up that Finals run with a 47-win season and a division title in 2010-11, and again posted a 47-win season in 2011-12 after Holmgren dramatically reshaped the team's roster during the offseason.

At the time of his promotion, Holmgren had served in various capacities in the Flyers front office for the previous 11 years. He re-joined the organization as a scout after he was replaced as the head coach of the Hartford Whalers on November 6, 1995, and was named director of pro scouting on December 30, 1995 when Bill Barber became the head coach of the Hershey Bears. Holmgren was named the director of player personnel on August 6, 1997 and was promoted to assistant general manager on June 14, 1999, a position he held for the next seven seasons.

Holmgren spent parts of four seasons (1992-93 through 1995-96) with the Hartford organization. He was named head coach of the Whalers on June 15, 1992 and added the general manager's duties prior to the 1993-94 season. He stepped down as head coach 17 games into the 1993-94 season to concentrate on his GM duties, but was re-appointed to the position on June 28, 1994 when Jim Rutherford was named the club's general manager. He compiled a record of 59-93-14 as Hartford's head coach.

Upon his retirement following the 1984-85 season, Holmgren was named an assistant coach with the Flyers and helped Mike Keenan guide the team to three playoff appearances, including a trip to the Stanley Cup Final in 1987. He was named head coach of the Flyers on June 1, 1988, becoming the first former Flyer to be named head coach of the team. Over four seasons as head coach, Holmgren compiled a record of 107-126-31.

Internationally, Holmgren has served as the assistant general manager of the 2006 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team and the general manager for the 2006 U.S. National Team at the IIHF World Championships. He also served as an assistant coach for Team USA at the 1998 Winter Olympic Games and at the 1996 World Cup of Hockey Tournament.

Holmgren played 527 games in the National Hockey League over 10 seasons with the Flyers and the Minnesota North Stars. He recorded 144 goals and 179 assists for 323 points while racking up 1,584 career penalty minutes. Holmgren was drafted from the University of Minnesota by the Flyers in the sixth round (108th overall) of the 1975 NHL Entry Draft and spent parts of eight seasons with the team. He helped the Flyers to the Stanley Cup Final in 1976 and was part of the club's historic 35-game undefeated streak and Stanley Cup Final appearance during the 1979-80 season. He was traded to the North Stars in exchange for Paul Guay and a third round pick in the 1985 NHL Entry Draft (Darryl Gilmour) on February 23, 1984. His Flyers totals include 138 goals and 171 assists for 309 points and 1,600 penalty minutes in 500 games over parts of nine seasons (1975-76 to 1983-84). His 1,600 penalty minutes with the Flyers are second all-time in club history.

Paul and his wife, Doreen, reside in Somerdale, New Jersey. He has four children: Jason, Kirsten, Wes, and Greta, and two grandchildren, Hannah and Noah. Holmgren was born on December 2, 1955.

PETER LAVIOLETTE HEAD COACH

Peter Laviolette enters his fifth season as the head coach of the Flyers. He was named the 17th head coach in Flyers history on Dec. 4, 2009.

Since joining the club, Laviolette has had one of the most successful runs of any Flyers head coach in the last 25 years. He has posted a regular season record of 145-95-29 since his hiring, including back-to-back 47-win seasons in 2011-12 and 2010-11 – the most wins the Flyers have had in a two-season period since 1985-87. In the period since Laviolette's hiring through the end of the 2011-12 season, the Flyers had the third-most wins in the Eastern Conference (122), behind only Pittsburgh and Washington (127 each). Over the past two full seasons, the Flyers were second in the Eastern Conference and third overall in the NHL in standings points (209) and in points percentage (.637). The Flyers have also enjoyed unprecedented success on the road over the past two complete NHL seasons under Laviolette, winning a franchise-record 25 games in 2010-11 and matching that total in 2012-13.

Laviolette's overall record in the playoffs with the Flyers has also been among the league's best. Under his watch, the Flyers were the only team in the league to reach the second round of the playoffs (or further) in three consecutive seasons from 2009-10 to 2011-12. The Flyers participated in eight playoff series in that time, more than any other team.

Laviolette coached the Flyers for the final 57 games of the 2009-10 season, recording a 28-24-5 record. He then led the club on a remarkable playoff run, picking up series wins over New Jersey (4-1), Boston (4-3) and Montreal (4-1) as the Flyers won the Eastern Conference championship and made the eighth Stanley Cup Final appearance in franchise history.

Prior to joining the Flyers, Laviolette spent parts of five seasons as head coach of the Carolina Hurricanes (2003-04 to 2008-09), where he compiled a 167-122-34 record in 323 games. In 2005-06, Laviolette led Carolina to the only Stanley Cup championship in franchise history, which culminated with a 3-1 win over Edmonton in Game 7 of the Stanley Cup Final on June 19, 2006. The Hurricanes won the Southeast Division that year with a record of 52-22-8, and set franchise records for wins and points (112) in a single season. Laviolette was named a finalist for the Jack Adams Trophy as NHL Coach of the Year that season.

Laviolette previously served as head coach of the New York Islanders for two seasons (2001-02 to 2002-03). He registered a 77-62-25 regular season record and led his teams to the playoffs in both seasons, returning the Islanders to postseason play after a seven-season absence.

In parts of 11 seasons as a head coach (2001-02 to 2012-13), Leviolette has an overall record of 389-279-25-63 in 756 games coached with the Flyers, Hurricanes and Islanders. He begins the season ranked second in all-time wins among US-born head coaches. He also has a record of 43-39 in 82 career Stanley Cup Playoff games as a head coach.

Laviolette was selected to serve as an assistant coach for Team USA at the 2014 Winter Olympics in Sochi, Russia. It will be Laviolette's fourth Olympic Games and second as a coach. He took part as a player for Team USA in 1988 at Calgary, Alberta and 1994 at Lillehammer, Norway, and was the head coach of the US squad at the 2006 Games in Torino, Italy. Laviolette was also the head coach for Team USA at the 2004 and 2005 IHF World Championships, guiding the squad to a bronze medal in 2004.

Laviolette began his coaching career with the ECHL's Wheeling Nailers in 1997. A 37-win season and trip to the conference finals earned him the head job with the American Hockey League's Providence Bruins, where Laviolette spent the last three seasons of his playing career.

In his first of two seasons at the helm, Laviolette led Providence to an incredible turnaround – after the team won just 19 games the year before, the P-Bruins posted an AHL-best 56-16-4-4 regular season record and won their first Calder Cup championship. The season earned Laviolette the AHL's Coach of the Year honors. He was promoted to assistant coach of the Boston Bruins in 2000, a position he held for one season before joining the Islanders.

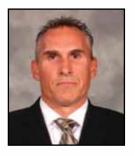

Laviolette's playing career spanned 11 seasons, mostly in the AHL and IHL. He appeared in 12 games with the New York Rangers during the 1988-89 season.

A native of Franklin, Mass., Laviolette was born on Dec. 7, 1964. He and his wife, Kristen, have three children – sons Peter and Jack, and daughter Elisabeth.

Eric Deardins and Behn Wilson are the only Flyers defensemen ever to attempt a penalty shot... Ilkka Sinisalo became only the third player in NHL history to score his first goal on a penalty shot. The others were Ralph Bowman of the St. Louis Eagles, when in 1934-35 he recorded the first-ever successful penalty shot in the NHL, and Phil Hoene of the Los Angeles Kings in 1973-74... With his goal vs. Washington on April 15, 2008, Michael Richards' became only the second player in NHL history to record their first career NHL playoff goal on a penalty shot (Minnesota's Wayne Connolly in 1968).

MARCH 6, 2012: The Flyers retire Mark Howe's #2 in a pregame ceremony before a 3-2 win over Detroit. Howe becomes just the fifth Flyer so honored and the first since Bill Barber in 1990.

MARCH 2012: Ilya Bryzgalov is named the NHL's First Star for the month of March after he went 10-2-1 on the month with 1.43 GAA and .974 save percentage. He was named the first star of the game six times and was named the NHL's First Star of the Week twice in the month, becoming the first Flyer ever to earn the award in consecutive weeks. Bryzgalov amassed a franchise-record scoreless streak of 249.43 from March 1-15, and became the first Flyers goaltender to record four shutouts in the span of five games. The streak also was the second-longest in the NHL's expansion era, trailing only Brian Boucher's run of 332:01 in 2003-04 with Phoenix.

APRIL 11, 2012: The Flyers come back from a 3-0 hole to defeat Pittsburgh 4-3 in overtime Game 1 of the Eastern Conference Quarterfinals. It's the sixth time in their history the Flyers had erased a 3-0 deficit to win a playoff game. Brayden Schenn posted a goal and two assists, becoming just the eighth Flyers rookie ever to record a three-point playoff game.

APRIL 13, 2012: Claude Giroux sets a franchise record with six points as the Flyers beat Pittsburgh 8-5 in Game 2. Sean Couturier posted a four-point night, tying the franchise record for most points by a rookie in a playoff game. Both Giroux and Couturier had hat tricks, marking the first time in team history that two Flyers have had a hat trick in the same playoff game, and it was the first time since 1989 that the Flyers had scored eight goals in a playoff game.

APRIL 15, 2012: The Flyers beat Pittsburgh 8-4 in Game 3, setting a franchise record for most goals in two consecutive playoff games. The closest previous occasion was the 1981 preliminary round, when they beat Quebec 6-4 in Game 1 and 8-5 in Game 2. The Flyers set a new franchise record for most goals scored in the first three games of a playoff series (20). Danny Briere picked up his 100th career playoff point today in his 100th career playoff game.

APRIL 22, 2012: The Flyers beat Pittsburgh 5-1 in Game 6 to advance to the second round of the playoffs for the 22nd time, and third year in a row. Claude Giroux finished the series with 14 points, becoming just the second Flyer ever to reach that total in a single playoff series (Tim Kerr, 15, 1989 PDSF). The Flyers set a franchise record with 12 power play goals in the series.

APRIL 29, 2012: Danny Briere scores his 48th and 49th career playoff goals, including his ninth career playoff game-winner as the Flyers beat New Jersey in Game 1 of the Eastern Conference Semifinals. Briere moved into second place all-time in Flyers history in that category behind only Rick MacLeish.

MAY 3, 2012: Danny Briere records his 50th career playoff goal in the third period of a 4-3 overtime loss in Game 3. His two points in the game give him 71 playoff points as a Flyer and move him past both Reggie Leach and Tim Kerr into sixth place on the Flyers' all-time playoff scoring list

JANUARY 6, 2013: The NHL and NHLPA announce they have reached an agreement on the framework of a new Collective Bargaining Agreement.

JANUARY 12, 2013: The NHL and NHLPA sign a Memorandum of Understanding on a new 10-year Collective Bargaining Agreement that expires in 2022, ending a 119-day work stoppage. Training camps open the following day.

MARCH 18, 2013: Kimmo Timonen plays his 1000th career game in a 4-2 loss at Tampa Bay. The Flyers honored Timonen prior to their next home game on March 26.

APRIL 19, 2013: On an off-night, the Flyers were mathematically eliminated from playoff contention when the New York Rangers defeated Buffalo 8-4. It marked just the ninth time in franchise history and second time in the last 18 years that the Flyers did not make the playoffs.

KATE SMITH SINGS "GOD BLESS AMERICA"

41 years ago, on December 11, 1969, Kate Smith's recording of "God Bless America" was first played at a Flyers game. The Flyers beat the Toronto Maple Leafs, 6-3, at the Spectrum that night. That's where it all began, and "God Bless America" became "our song." Smith was enchanted by this flamboyant hockey team that found her rendition of the American folk classic to be a good luck charm. So much so that she performed the song live at the Spectrum on four occasions:

LIVE PERFORMANCES AT THE SPECTRUM

October 11, 1973 vs. Toronto Flyers 2, Toronto 0 May 19, 1974 vs. Boston-Flyers 1, Boston 0

Stanley Cup-Winning Game May 13, 1975 vs. NY Islanders-Flyers 4, Islanders 1

Game 7 of Stanley Cup Semifinals May 16, 1976 vs. Montreal-Canadiens 5, Flyers 3

Game 4 of Stanley Cup Finals
Though Smith's record with the Flyers is impressive, there were a few losses along the way. The first was a 1-0 defeat at the hands of the Minnesota North Stars on April 4, 1970. Wins and losses aside, to the Flyers organization, Ms. Smith and her song are really something special.

The League went to a realigned format for geographic purposes and has decided to stick with geographic names for the four new divisions. Three of the four names are carryovers from the old six-division alignment, but the League added a new name to the mix.

The four division names are Atlantic, Metropolitan, Central and Pacific. The Atlantic and Metropolitan divisions make up the Eastern Conference and each division has eight teams. The Central and Pacific divisions make up the Western Conference and have seven teams in each division.

The Atlantic Division teams are: Boston Bruins, Buffalo Sabres, Detroit Red Wings, Florida Panthers, Montreal Canadiens, Ottawa Senators, Tampa Bay Lightning and Toronto Maple Leafs.

The Red Wings have moved from the Western Conference to the Eastern.

The Metropolitan Division includes the three New York-area teams -- New York Rangers, New York Islanders and New Jersey Devils -- along with the Washington Capitals, Pittsburgh Penguins, Philadelphia Flyers, Carolina Hurricanes and Columbus Blue Jackets, who are joining the Red Wings in the move east.

The new Central Division in the Western Conference includes the Chicago Blackhawks, St. Louis Blues, Nashville Predators, Minnesota Wild, Colorado Avalanche, Dallas Stars and Winnipeg Jets, who are moving from the Eastern Conference to the Western.

The new Pacific Division includes the Los Angeles Kings, Anaheim Ducks, Phoenix Coyotes, San Jose Sharks, Vancouver Canucks, Calgary Flames and Edmonton Oilers.

The 2013-14 schedule ensures that all 30 teams play in all 30 arenas at least once during the season.

THE STANLEY CUP PLAYOFFS will still consist of 16 teams, eight from each conference, but it will be division-based and a wild-card system has been added.

The top three teams in each division will make up the first 12 teams in the playoffs. The remaining four spots will be filled by the next two highest-placed finishers in each conference -- regardless of division -- based on regular-season points. It will be possible for one division to send five teams to the postseason while the other sends three.

The seeding of the wild-card teams within each divisional playoff will be determined by regular-season points. The division winner with the most points in the conference will be matched against the wild-card team with the fewest points; the division winner with the second-most points in the conference will play the wild-card team with the second-fewest points.

The teams finishing second and third in each division will play in the first round of the playoffs. The winners of each series will play for berths in the conference championship series.

The winners of the conference championships advance to the Stanley Cup Final.
