GAME STORY

SPECIAL TEAMS HELP RUSSIA TOP SWEDEN AT U17S

JASON LA ROSE

FORT ST. JOHN, B.C. – Oleg Zaitsev scored the winner on a shorthanded breakaway late in the first period, one of three special-teams scored by Russia in its 4-1 win over Sweden to open the 2017 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge on Sunday.

The Russians made it four wins in a row over the defending gold medallists, getting points from eight different players in the win. Only Vasily Podkolzin, with a pair of assists, had more than one.

Daniil Gutik took advantage of an early power play to open the scoring, getting his shot through traffic and past Swedish netminder Hugo Alnefelt for a 1-0 lead at 9:35.

Zaitsev doubled the advantage with less than two minutes to go in the opening frame, gathering in a turnover
