8 p.m.	2019 NHL Global Series Chicago Blackhawks at Philadelphia Flyers O2 Arena (TV NOVA, NOVA Sport1, NHLN, SN, NBCSCH, NBCSP)

DID YOU KNOW?

* Since 1997, the NHL has staged 31 regular-season games at venues outside North America, with three more scheduled for 2019-20 as part of the 2019 NHL Global Series.

* A total of 24 franchises have played those games overseas in six different countries and eight different cities. The Philadelphia Flyers will become the 25th team to participate in such a contest.

* The Chicago Blackhawks won the Stanley Cup the last time they started their season outside North America (2009-10), defeating their 2019 Czech Republic opponent – the Flyers – in six games in the 2010 Stanley Cup Final. Only six players who skated in the last game of the 2010 Stanley Cup Final are currently on the same team: Chicago's Patrick Kane, Duncan Keith, Brent Seabrook and Jonathan Toews, and Philadelphia's Claude Giroux and James van Riemsdyk.

* The Blackhawks played two regular-season games at Hartwall Arena in Helsinki, Finland, to open the 2009-10 season – both against the Florida Panthers. Florida won the first game, 4-3, courtesy of a shootout-deciding goal by Oulu, Finland, native Ville Koistinen. Chicago bounced back with a 4-0 victory in the second game, aided by 23 saves from Vantaa, Finland, native Antti Niemi.

* Overall, the Blackhawks' quartet of Kane (2-2—4), Keith (0-1—1), Seabrook (0-3—3) and Toews (0-0—0) combined for 2-6—8 in the two-game series.

* The Blackhawks also are playing their fifth preseason game outside North America (Sept. 29 vs. Eisbären Berlin at Mercedes-Benz Arena in Berlin, Germany), while the Flyers are contesting their first such contest (Sept. 30 vs. Lausanne HC at Vaudoise Arena in Lausanne, Switzerland). Two of Chicago's four prior preseason games overseas have come against a European opponent:

Date	Opponent	Result	Arena (City, Country)
Sept. 12, 1992	Montreal Canadiens	3-2 L	Wembley Arena (London, UK)
Sept. 13, 1992	Montreal Canadiens	5-4 W (SO)	Wembley Arena (London, UK)
Sept. 28, 2009	HC Davos	9-2 W	Hallenstadion (Zurich, SUI)
Sept. 29, 2009	ZSC Lions	2-1 L	Hallenstadion (Zurich, SUI)

* Chicago's overseas preseason game will come exactly 10 years after its last such contest. On Sept. 29, 2009, Kane, Keith, Seabrook and Toews were among the Blackhawks players who skated in a 2-1 loss to the ZSC Lions in Zurich, Switzerland. Forward Patrick Sharp assisted on Chicago's only goal (scored by Cam Barker).

* In the 10 years since that game: Toews has captained the Blackhawks to three Stanley Cups; three of those four Blackhawks have won the Conn Smythe Trophy (Kane, Keith and Toews); and Kane ended the 2009-10 campaign by scoring the Stanley Cup-clinching goal in overtime against the Flyers.

* Forward Alex DeBrincat, who was 11 years old when the Blackhawks last played overseas, now has two NHL seasons to his credit – the same as Kane and Toews when they first ventured to Europe with Chicago. DeBrincat (69-59—128 in 164 GP) has more goals than Kane (46-96—142 in 162 GP) and Toews (58-65—123 in 146 GP) had at the time.

* The Flyers are set for their first regular-season game outside North America in the home country of forward Jakub Voracek (Kladno, Czech Republic). It will be the fifth regular-season NHL game contested in the Czech Republic – and first since 2010:

Date	Teams	Result	Arena (City)
Oct. 4, 2008	New York Rangers at Tampa Bay Lightning	2-1, NYR	O2 Arena (Prague)
Oct. 5, 2008	Tampa Bay Lightning at New York Rangers	2-1, NYR	O2 Arena (Prague)
Oct. 9, 2010	Phoenix Coyotes at Boston Bruins	5-2, PHX	O2 Arena (Prague)
Oct. 10, 2010	Boston Bruins at Phoenix Coyotes	3-0, BOS	O2 Arena (Prague)

* Voracek will look to join Radim Vrbata (Mlada Boleslav; 2-0—2) and David Krejci (Sternberk; 0-3—3) as the third Czech Republic native to register a point during a regular-season NHL game in his home country. Vrbata scored twice for the Coyotes in their 5-2 win at O2 Arena on Oct. 9, 2010, while Krejci had an assist for the Bruins in that game and two more in a 3-0 victory the next night.

* The 2007 NHL Draft will be well-represented in Prague as three of the top 10 picks from that year are expected to play: Kane (No. 1, CHI), van Riemsdyk (No. 2, PHI) and Voracek (No. 7, CBJ). Voracek ranks fourth in career points among Czech nationals selected in the top 10 of the NHL Draft, behind only Jaromir Jagr, Bobby Holik and Petr Nedved.

* In addition to Voracek, forwards David Kampf (Chomutov) and Dominik Kubalik (Plzen) will accompany Chicago overseas. Overall, 234 players of Czech Republic nationality (216 skaters, 18 goaltenders) have appeared in a regular-season or playoff NHL game, including 40 (36 skaters, 4 goaltenders) in 2018-19.

* Jagr (Kladno) has compiled 766-1,155—1,921 in 1,733 career games across 24 NHL campaigns, placing him among the top five in League history for regular-season points (2nd), goals (3rd), games played (3rd) and assists (5th). His 135 game-winning goals in the regular season also are the most in NHL annals – 14 more than the next-closest player (Gordie Howe: 121).

* Just months after leading the Czech Republic to a gold medal at the 1998 Olympic Winter Games, goaltender Dominik Hasek (Pardubice) captured the second of three straight Vezina Trophies. Hasek is the only goaltender to win the Vezina in three straight seasons since 1981-82 when it took on its current criteria.

* Hasek finished his career with six total Vezina Trophies, tied with Bill Durnan for the second-most in NHL history – regardless of era – behind Jacques Plante (7). Hasek, who was drafted by Chicago in 1983 (No. 199 overall) and played a total of 31 games with the Blackhawks, retired from the NHL on Oct. 9, 2012, leaving with two Stanley Cups and 389 career regular-season victories – at the time the most ever by a goaltender born outside North America.

* Did You Know?: The only tie for the Vezina Trophy came in 1973-74 when Chicago's Tony Esposito and Philadelphia's Bernie Parent split the award, with each team having 164 goals against. Parent ended that season by claiming the Conn Smythe Trophy and Stanley Cup, the first of back-to-back wins in both categories for Parent and the Flyers.

* Players from the Czech Republic were instrumental in helping the New Jersey Devils capture their second championship in 2000, with Patrik Elias (Trebic), Holik (Jihlava) and Petr Sykora (Plzen) combining for 19-28—47 in 23 playoff games. The 2000 Devils were the first team in NHL history to win the Stanley Cup with three Czech players, a feat matched only once since (2002 Detroit Red Wings: Jiri Fischer, Hasek and Jiri Slegr).

* Elias, Hasek, Holik, Jagr, Sykora each won the Stanley Cup twice, as did Michal Rozsival (Vlasim). The only Czech Republic players with their name on the Stanley Cup more than twice are Jiri Hrdina (3; Prague) and Jaroslav Pouzar (3; Cakovec).

* A lifelong member of the Colorado Avalanche, Milan Hejduk (Usti) averaged a point per game in the 2001 playoffs to help Colorado capture its second Stanley Cup (7-16—23 in 23 GP). In 2002-03, Hejduk became the first Czech native to win the Maurice "Rocket" Richard Trophy, also joining Jagr (3x) as the second player from the country to score 50 goals in a season.

PRESEASON NHL GAMES PLAYED OUTSIDE NORTH AMERICA

The Chicago Blackhawks and Philadelphia Flyers are traveling to Europe this preseason, playing one exhibition game each against European club opposition before facing off in their NHL regular-season opener (on Oct. 4 in Prague, Czech Republic). The Blackhawks will tune up for the regular season by playing Eisbären Berlin at Mercedes-Benz Arena in Berlin, Germany, on Sunday, Sept. 29, while the Flyers will take on Lausanne HC at Vaudoise Arena in Lausanne, Switzerland, on Monday, Sept. 30 – both as part of the 2019 NHL Global Series Challenge.

Germany and Switzerland have played host to several preseason games involving NHL teams in recent years. Four German cities (Berlin, Cologne, Hamburg and Mannheim) have welcomed NHL teams for preseason games since 2008, while Lausanne will become the fourth Swiss city to feature NHL teams in that span (also Bern, Zug and Zurich).
